antifascism and it prioritized the intelligent and critical deployment of pictures and their perception as paramount in these campaigns With PM as its main focus Artist as Reporter offers a substantial intervention in the literature on American journalism photography and modern art The book considers the journalistic contributions to PM of such signal American modernists as the curator Holger Cahill the abstract painter Ad Reinhardt the photographers Weegee and Lisette Model and the filmmaker photographer and editor Ralph Steiner Each of its five chapters explores one dimension of the tabloid's complex journalistic activation of modernism's potential showing how PM inserted into daily print journalism the most innovative critical thinking in the fields of painting illustration cartooning and the lens based arts Artist as Reporter promises to revise our own understanding of midcentury American modernism and the nature of its relationship to the wider media
