Made To Be Seen Perspectives On The History Of Visual Anthropology:

Made to Be Seen Marcus Banks, Jay Ruby, 2012-08-01 Made to be Seen brings together leading scholars of visual anthropology to examine the historical development of this multifaceted and growing field Expanding the definition of visual anthropology beyond more limited notions the contributors to Made to be Seen reflect on the role of the visual in all areas of life Different essays critically examine a range of topics art dress and body adornment photography the built environment digital forms of visual anthropology indigenous media the body as a cultural phenomenon the relationship between experimental and ethnographic film and more The first attempt to present a comprehensive overview of the many aspects of an anthropological approach to the study of visual and pictorial culture Made to be Seen will be the standard reference on the subject for years to come Students and scholars in anthropology sociology visual studies and cultural studies will greatly benefit from this pioneering look at the way the visual is inextricably threaded through most if not all areas of human activity

Visual Research Jerome W. Crowder, Jonathan S. Marion, 2023-12-12 Visual Research A Concise Introduction to Thinking Visually Second Edition provides an accessible introduction to doing visual research in the social sciences Beginning with ethical considerations this book highlights the importance of thinking visually before engaging in visual research Further themes involve creating organizing and using images and are presented so as to help readers think about and work with their own visual data This fully updated second edition includes new case studies updated discussions regarding the ethics of social media and online content new technology and an expansion to include new material on museum public and applied work Concise and highly focused Visual Research is an invaluable resource for visual media and communications students and researchers and others interested in visual research in the social sciences Visual Methods in Social Research Marcus Banks, 2001-05-01 There has been an explosion of interest in visual culture coming largely from work in sociology anthropology and cultural studies and while there are a number of practical and technical manuals available for film photographic and other visual media there is a dearth of writing that combines both the practical and the technical This book redresses this with a balanced approach that is written primarily for students in the social sciences who wish to use visual materials in the course of empirical qualitative field research It should also be of interest to experienced researchers who wish to expand their methodological approaches Visual Research Jonathan S. Marion, Jerome W. Crowder, 2013-08-15 Visual Research A Concise Introduction to Thinking Visually is the first text to present a concise overview of the significant ethical theoretical and practical considerations for conducting research with images The capacity to take photos and video on handheld devices and the ability to store post and share such imagery online all offer tremendous opportunities for social research The rapid development and popularity of such technology means that little technological proficiency is required and even less theoretical and ethical consideration This book provides an accessible introduction to doing visual research in the social sciences Beginning with ethical considerations this book highlights the importance of thinking visually before engaging in visual research Further themes involve creating organizing and using images and are presented so as to help readers think about and work with their own visual data Boxed case studies and further reading suggestions enhance the utility of this primer Concise and highly focused Visual Research will be an invaluable resource for visual media and communications students and researchers and others interested in visual research in the social sciences

Arts and Aesthetics in a Globalizing World Raminder Kaur, Parul Dave-Mukherji, 2020-05-21 This is an investigation of arts and aesthetics in their widest senses and experiences presenting a variety of perspectives which range from the metaphysical to the political Moving beyond art as an expression of the inner mind and invention of the individual self the volume bridges the gap between changing perceptions of contemporary art and aesthetics and maps globalizing currents in a number of contexts and regions The volume includes an impressive variety of case studies offered by established leaders in the field and original and emerging scholarly talent covering areas in India Nepal Indonesia Iran Russia Rwanda and Germany as well as providing transnational or diasporic perspectives From the contradictory demands made on successful artists from the south in the global art world such as Anish Kapoor to images of war and puppetry created by female political prisoners the volume compels creative and political interpretations of the ever changing and globalizing terrain of arts and aesthetics

Mace, Kathleen M. Ryan, Noah J.

Springer, 2014-05-15 Over the last half of the twentieth century television has become the predominant medium through which the public accesses information about the world Through the news situation comedies police dramas and commercials we learn about the world around us and our role within it These genres narratives and cultural forms are not simply entertainment but powerful socializing agents that show the world as we might never see it in real life How Television Shapes Our Worldview brings together a diverse set of scholars methodologies and theoretical frameworks to interrogate the ways through which television molds our vision of the outside world The essays include advertising and public relations analyses audience interviews and case studies that touch on genres ranging from science fiction in the 1970s to current reality television Television truly provides a powerful influence over how we learn about the world around us and understand its social processes

Screening Social Justice Sherry B. Ortner, 2023-02-20 In Screening Social Justice award winning anthropologist Sherry B. Ortner presents an ethnographic study of Brave New Films a nonprofit film production company that makes documentaries intended to mobilize progressive grassroots activism Ortner positions the work of the company within a tradition of activist documentary filmmaking and within the larger field of alternative media that is committed to challenging the mainstream media and telling the truth about the world today The company s films cover a range of social justice issues with particular focus on the hidden workings of capitalism racism and right wing extremism Beyond the films themselves Brave New Films is also famous for its creative distribution strategies All of the films are available for free on YouTube Central to the intention of promoting political activism the films circulate through networks of other activist and social justice organizations and are shown almost entirely in live screenings in which the power of the film is amplified Ortnr takes the reader inside both the production process and the screenings to show how a film can be made and used to mobilize action for a better world Uncertain Images: Museums and the Work of Photographs Elizabeth Edwards, Sigrid Lien, 2016-02-17 Almost all museums hold photographs in their collections and museum professionals and their audiences engage with photographs in a myriad of ways Yet despite some three decades of critical museology and photographic theory and an extensive debate on the politics of representation outside art museums almost no critical attention has been given specifically to the roles purposes and lives of these photographs within museums This book brings into focus the ubiquitous yet entirely unconsidered work that photographs are put to in museums The authors argument is that there is an economy of photographs in museums which is integral to the processes of the museum and integral to the understanding of museums The international contributors drawn from curators and academics reflect a range of visual and museological expertise After an introduction setting out the range of questions and problems the first part addresses broad curatorial strategies and ways of thinking about photographs in museums Shifting the emphasis from curatorial practices and anxieties to the space of the gallery this is followed by a series of case studies of exhibitionary practices and the museum strategies that support them The third section focuses on the role of photographs in the museum articulation of difficult histories A final section addresses photograph collections in a digital environment New technologies and new media have transformed the management address and purposing in photographs in museums from cataloguing practices to streaming on social media These growing practices challenge both traditional hierarchies of knowledge in museums and the location of authority about photographs The volume emerges from PhotoCLEC a HERA funded project on museums and the photographic legacy of the colonial past in a postcolonial and multicultural Europe Handbook of Visual Communication Sheree Josephson, James Kelly, Ken Smith, 2020-04-03 This Handbook of Visual Communication explores the key theoretical areas and research methods of visual communication With chapters contributed by many of the best known and respected scholars in visual communication this volume brings together significant and influential work in the discipline The second edition of this already classic text has been completely revised to reflect the metamorphosis of communication in the last 15 years and the ubiquity of visual communication in our modern mediated lifestyle Thirteen major theories of communication are defined by the top experts in their fields perception cognition aesthetics visual rhetoric semiotics cultural studies ethnography narrative media aesthetics digital media intertextuality ethics and visual literacy Each of these theory chapters is followed by an exemplar study or two in the area demonstrating the various methods used in visual communication research as well as the research approaches applicable for specific media types The Handbook of Visual Communication is a theoretical and methodological handbook for visual communication researchers and a compilation for much of the theoretical background necessary to understand visual communication It is required reading for scholars researchers and advanced students in visual communication and it will be influential in other disciplines such as advertising persuasion and media studies The volume will also be essential to media practitioners seeking to understand the visual aspects of how audiences use media to contribute to more effective use of each specific medium

Neighbourhoods and Neighbourliness in Urban South Asia Sadan Jha, Dev Nath Pathak, 2022-04-25 This volume examines urban South Asia through the ideas of neighbourhood and neighbourliness With a focus on the affective socio spatial and sensorial experiences of non metropolitan small and intermediate cities the chapters in the volume look at neighbourhoods as a key to exploring the textures of urban life Bringing together scholars from a variety of disciplines including sociology anthropology urban studies planning and social history the book highlights urban heterogeneity and contemporary transformations in South Asia It discusses the linkages between urban lived spaces and social life memory migration and exile and the city and its society through practices of everyday life in neighbourhoods With studies from Sri Lanka Nepal Afghanistan Bangladesh and India the volume addresses a wide range of issues pertaining to urban experiences in their regional specificities and in a broader context of the Global South This book will be useful to scholars and researchers of urban sociology anthropology urban studies planning and development social history political studies cultural studies geography and South Asian studies It will also interest practitioners and policymakers architects planners civil society organisations and thinktanks

The Thing about Museums Sandra Dudley, Amy Jane Barnes, Jennifer Binnie, Julia Petrov, Jennifer Walklate, 2011-08-26 The Things about Museums constitutes a unique highly diverse collection of essays discussing how objects are constructed in museums the ways in which visitors may directly experience those objects how objects are utilised within particular representational strategies and forms and the challenges and opportunities presented by using objects to communicate difficult and contested matters

The Palgrave Handbook on Right-Wing Populism and Otherness in Global Perspective Rui Alexandre Novais, Rogério Christofolletti, 2025-01-21 The Palgrave Handbook on Right Wing Populism and Otherness in Global Perspective argues that a key characteristic of the recent rise in right wing populist politicians worldwide is the pervasive dynamic of exclusionary conflicts and moral divisions designated as meta othering This is achieved through the use of two distinct forms of otherization upward othering which targets the establishment elites and their associates and downward othering which involves demeaning and scapegoating certain out groups or external outsiders The Handbook takes a multidisciplinary approach and focuses on recent real world expressions of right wing populist tactics to justify strengthen or instrumentalize alterity narratives and claims It provides a comprehensive analysis of manifestations of right wing populism othering from diverse cases and variations around the world with a particular emphasis on including examples from the Global South
