Guns And Rain Guerrillas Spirit Mediums In Zimbabwe:

Guns and Rain David Lan, 1985-11-14 This book makes us understand an historical event of world importance the liberation of Zimbabwe from the point of view of ordinary people It is not only a specific study of great brilliance but also a model which shows how anthropology can contribute to politics and history Maurice Bloch Professor of Anthropology London School of Economics in his preface to this book Guns & Rain David Lan, 1985 Almost every anti colonial struggle this century has been led by an army of guerrillas No such struggle has succeeded without a very high degree of cooperation between guerrillas and the local peasantry But what does cooperation between peasants and guerrillas really consist of What effect does it have on the way they view the world for which they fight In the struggle for Zimbabwe 1966 80 hundreds of thousands of peasants provided the guerrillas with practical help and support But they went a good deal further Throughout the country scores of spirit mediums the religious leaders of Shona gave active support to resistance With their participation the scale of the war expanded into an astonishing act of collaboration between ancestors and their descendants the past and the present the living and the dead This book is a detailed study of one key operational zone in the Zambezi valley It shows that to understand the meaning the war and independence have for the people of Zimbabwe themselves we must take into account not only the nationalist guerrillas and politicians the bearers of guns but also the mediums of the spirits of the Shona royal ancestors the bringers of rain Publisher Guns and Rain : Guerrillas And Spirit Mediums in Zimbabwe David Lan, 1985 Becoming Zimbabwe. A History from the Pre-colonial Period to 2008 Brian Raftopoulos, Alois Mlambo, 2009-09-15 Becoming Zimbabwe is the first comprehensive history of Zimbabwe spanning the years from 850 to 2008 In 1997 the then Secretary General of the Zimbabwe Congress of Trade Unions Morgan Tsvangirai expressed the need for a more open and critical process of writing history in Zimbabwe The history of a nation in the making should not be reduced to a selective heroic tradition but should be a tolerant and continuing process of questioning and re examination Becoming Zimbabwe tracks the idea of national belonging and citizenship and explores the nature of state rule the changing contours of the political economy and the regional and international dimensions of the country's history In their Introduction Brian Raftopoulos and Alois Mlambo enlarge on these themes and Gerald Mazarire's opening chapter sets the pre colonial background Sabelo Ndlovu tracks the history up to WW11 and Alois Mlambo reviews developments in the settler economy and the emergence of nationalism leading to UDI in 1965 The politics and economics of the UDI period and the subsequent war of liberation are covered by Joseph Mtisi Munyaradzi Nyakudya and Teresa Barnes After independence in 1980 Zimbabwe enjoyed a period of buoyancy and hope James Muzondidya's chapter details the transition from buoyancy to crisis and Brian Raftopoulos concludes the book with an analysis of the decade long crisis and the global political agreement which followed The Zimbabwe African People's Union, 1961-87 Eliakim M. Sibanda, 2005 This book is an exploration of the political history of insurgency in Southern Rhodesia During the early years of its struggle ZAPU employed non violent means to try and achieve its goal for majority rule and a non racial society Because of the belligerency of the White settler regime ZAPU added the armed resistance to its strategy and went on to build a formidable army Problems escalated and alliances were built and dissolved until tired of being hunted down and butchered the ZAPU leadership decided to merge its party with the ruling party in December 1987 Guns & Rain David Lan,1985 Almost every anti colonial struggle this century has been led by an army of guerrillas No such struggle has succeeded without a very high degree of cooperation between guerrillas and the local peasantry But what does cooperation between peasants and guerrillas really consist of What effect does it have on the way they view the world for which they fight In the struggle for Zimbabwe 1966 80 hundreds of thousands of peasants provided the guerrillas with practical help and support But they went a good deal further Throughout the country scores of spirit mediums the religious leaders of Shona gave active support to resistance With their participation the scale of the war expanded into an astonishing act of collaboration between ancestors and their descendants the past and the present the living and the dead This book is a detailed study of one key operational zone in the Zambezi valley It shows that to understand the meaning the war and independence have for the people of Zimbabwe themselves we must take into account not only the nationalist guerrillas and politicians the bearers of guns but also the mediums of the spirits of the Shona royal ancestors the bringers of rain Publisher Necroclimatism in a Spectral World (Dis)order? Nhemachena, Artwell,Mawere, Munyaradzi,2019-06-25 Highlighting the problematiques of working with a narrow version of greenhouse effects or global warming this book posits the theory of necroclimatism that encompasses broader versions of greenhouse effects and global warming Conceiving cultures societies moral sensibilities epistemologies politics economies legal systems and religions of the formerly colonised peoples as greenhoused and entrapped in the heat of global apartheid and neo colonialism the book refuses to be confined to the pufferies of physical conceptualisations of greenhousing and global warming Underlining the supposed disposability and dispensability of colonised peoples the notion of necroclimatism explicates ways in which some people suffer various forms of death which have increasingly become a feature of global apartheid and neo colonialism that are cast in spectral sacrificial logics Deemed to constitute disposable bodies disposable cultures disposable politics disposable societies disposable epistemologies disposable religions disposable laws and disposable economies the sacrificed are in the age of climate catastrophism once again reminded that they have duties to die to become extinct in order to save the global spaceship that is sinking due to climate change and global warming This book therefore argues that in a sacrificial world dis order binaries between humans and animals good and evil moral and immoral the dead and the living necessarily vanish in the nefarious logic of what marks the era of climate catastrophism and the attendant necroclimatism The book further argues that a sacrificial world dis order is necessarily a posthumanist and postanthropocentric world dis order which should be never granted space in African worlds and even beyond The book thus raises fundamental questions for African anticipatory regimes and for this reason it is handy for scholars in political science sociology social anthropology

Close to the Sources Abebe Zegeye, Maurice Vambe, 2011-03-28 European and African works have found it difficult to move past the image of Africa as a place of exotica and relentless brutality This book explores the status and critical relationship between politics culture literary creativity criticism education and publishing in the context of promoting Africa's indigenous knowledge and seeks to recover some of the sites where Africans continue to elaborate conflicting politics of self affirmations It both acknowledges and steps outside the protocols of analysis informed by nationalism differentiating the forms that postcolonial theories have taken and arguing for a selective appropriation of theory that emerges from Africa's lived experiences

A Complicated War William Finnegan, 2023-09-01 Powerful instructive and full of humanity this book challenges the current understanding of the war that has turned Mozambique a naturally rich country into the world's poorest nation Before going to Mozambique William Finnegan saw the war like so many foreign observers through a South African lens viewing the conflict as apartheid's forward defense This lens was shattered by what he witnessed and what he heard from Mozambicans especially those who had lived with the bandidos armado the armed bandits otherwise known as the Renamo rebels The shifting wrenching ground level stories that people told combine to form an account of the war more local and nuanced more complex more African than anything that has been politically convenient to describe A Complicated War combines frontline reporting personal narrative political analysis and comparative scholarship to present a picture of a Mozambique harrowed by profound local conflicts ethnic religious political and personal Finnegan writes that South Africa's domination and destabilization are basic elements of Mozambique's plight but he offers a subtle description and analysis that will allow us to see the post apartheid region from a new more realistic if less comfortable point of view Powerful instructive and full of humanity this book challenges the current understanding of the war that has turned Mozambique a naturally rich country into the world's poorest nation Before going to Mozambique William Finnegan saw the war like so m

Women Warriors and National Heroes Boyd Cothran, Joan Judge, Adrian Shubert, 2020-02-20 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched This volume presents women warriors and hero cults from a number of cultures since the early modern period The first truly global study of women warriors individual chapters examine figures such as Joan of Arc in Cairo revenging daughters in Samurai Japan a transgender Mexican revolutionary and WWII Chinese spies Exploring issues of violence gender fluidity memory and nation building the authors discuss how these real or imagined female figures were constructed and deployed in different national and transnational contexts Divided into four parts they explore how women warriors and their stories were created consider the issue of the violent woman discuss how these female figures were gendered and highlight the fate of women warriors who live on The chapters illustrate the ways in which female fighters have figured in nation building stories and in the ordering or re ordering of gender politics and give the history of women fighters a critical edge Exploring women as military actors women after war and the strategic use of women s stories in national narratives this intellectually innovative volume provides the first global treatment of women warriors and their histories

Religion and the Creation of Race and Ethnicity Craig R Prentiss, 2003-06-01 The original essays in this collection shed light on the role religion and myth have played in the creation of race and ethnic categories When scholars approach religion and race they tend to focus on such issues as how African Americans have expressed Christianity or how Japanese or Mexicans have lived religiously This volume meant specifically for those new to the field offers a different perspective Prominent scholars illuminate the role religious myths have played in shaping those very social boundaries that we call races and ethnicities It asks what part did Christianity play in creating Blackness To what extent was Japanese or Mexican identity itself the product of religious life The text comprised of all original material introduces readers to the social construction of race and ethnicity and the ways in which these concepts are shaped by religious narratives It offers examples from both the U S and around the world exploring these themes in the context of places as diverse as Bosnia India Japan Mexico Zimbabwe and the Middle East The volume helps make the case that any account of the social construction of race and ethnicity will be incomplete if it fails to consider the influence of religious traditions and myths

Remaking Mutirikwi Joost Fontein, 2015 Finalist for the African Studies Association 2016 Melville J Herskovits Award A detailed ethnographic and historical study of the implications of fast track land reform in Zimbabwe from the perspective of those involved in land occupations around Lake Mutirikwi from the colonial period to the present day The Mutirikwi river was dammed in the early 1960s to make Zimbabwe s second largest lake This was a key moment in the Europeanisation of Mutirikwi s landscapes which had begun with colonial land appropriations in the 1890s But African landscapes were not obliterated by the dam They remained active and affective At independence in 1980 local clans reasserted ancestral land claims in a wave of squatting around Lake Mutirikwi They were soon evicted as the new government asserted control over the remaking of Mutirikwi s landscapes Amid fast track land reform in the 2000s the same people returned again to reclaim the land Many returned to the graves and ruins of past lives forged in the very substance of the soil and even incoming war veterans and new farmers appealed to autochthonous knowledge to make safe their resettlements This book explores those reoccupations and the complex contests over landscape water and belonging they provoked The 2000s may have heralded a long delayed re Africanisation of Lake Mutirikwi but just as African presence had survived the dam so white presence remains active and affective through Rhodesian era discourses place names and the materialities of ruined farms contour ridging and old irrigation schemes Through lenses focused on the political materialities of water and land this book reveals how the remaking of Mutirikwi's landscapes has always been deeply entangled with changing strategies of colonial and postcolonial statecraft. It highlights how the traces of different pasts intertwine in contemporary politics through the active enduring yet emergent forms and substances of landscape. Joost Fontein is Director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa and Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the University of Edinburgh. The Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion Robert Wuthnow, 2013-12-04. Containing over 200 articles from prominent scholars, The Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion examines ways in which politics and religion have combined to affect social attitudes, spark collective action, and influence policy over the last two hundred years. With a focus that covers broad themes like millenarian movements and pluralism and a scope that takes in religious and political systems throughout the world, the Encyclopedia is essential for its contemporary as well as historical coverage. Special Features: Encompasses religions, individuals, geographical regions, institutions, and events; Describes the history of relations between religion and politics; Longer articles contain brief bibliographies. Attractively designed and produced, The Encyclopedia of Politics and Religion will be invaluable for any library, public and academic, which serves those interested in politics, sociology, religious studies, international affairs, and history. Contents include: Abortion, Algeria, Anabaptists, China, Christian Democracy, Ethnic Cleansing, Gandhi, Israel, Italy, Jesuits, Jihad, Just War, Missionaries, Moral Majority, Muslim Brethren, Temperance Movements, Unification Church, War, Zionism.

The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2025-01-21. The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe: Gender, Coups, and Diplomats argues the 2017 coup that ousted long-time Zimbabwean president Robert Gabriel Mugabe and the generality of coups cannot be accurately and rigorously understood without examining the crucial role of gender and women's politics in military seizures of power. Tendi's book shows that gender and women's politics pervade military coup causes, dynamics, justifications, and international responses to coups. Contrary to influential representations of Zimbabwe's 2017 coup and other recent coups as markedly different from past coups, Tendi draws on long-gendered histories of military coups in Africa to argue that there are significant continuities in coup characteristics across time. Additionally, Tendi's highly original study of Zimbabwe's 2017 coup identifies the motives, dynamics, and trigger of the coup. Despite the existence of an international anti-coup norm and democracy promotion in Africa by Western states, Zimbabwean coup makers' direct intervention in politics was largely not publicly condemned or penalized by Western and African diplomats. Tendi uses original interviews with diplomats and politicians involved in external responses to the coup to address this important puzzle.

Violence and Belonging Vigdis Broch-Due, 2005. Violence and Belonging explores the formative role of violence in shaping people's identities in modern postcolonial Africa.

War Veterans in Zimbabwe's Revolution Zvakanyorwa Wilbert Sadomba, 2011. An insider's view of the land issue and farm invasions in Zimbabwe, this book gives a different perspective than is normally heard, revealing much about the tensions within Zimbabwean society and between the war veterans and the ruling party.

Decolonisation of

Materialities or Materialisation of (Re-)Colonisation Nhemachena, Artwell, Kangira, Jairos, 2017-11-28 Contemporary scholarly discourses about decolonising materialities are taking two noticeable trajectories the first trajectory privileges establishing connections relationships and associations between human beings and nature The second trajectory privileges restoration restitution reparations for colonial dispossessions lootings and disinheritance While the first trajectory presupposes that colonialism was merely about separation alienation and disconnections between human beings and nature the second trajectory stresses the colonialists dispossession disinheritance and privations of Africans Drawing on contemporary discourses about materialities in relation to semiotics non representationalism rhetoric ecocriticism territorialisation deterritorialisation and reterritorialisation translation animism science and technology studies this book teases out the intellectually rutted terrain of African materialities It argues that in a world of increasing impoverishment the significance of materialities cannot be overemphasised more so for the continent of Africa where impoverishment materialises in the midst of resource opulence The book is a pacesetter in no holds barred interrogation of African materialities

Encyclopedia of African Colonial Conflicts Timothy J. Stapleton, 2016-11-07 Two volumes introduce the history of colonial wars in Africa and illustrate why African countries like the Democratic Republic of Congo Nigeria Somalia and Sudan continue to experience ethnic political and religious violence in the early 21st century This sweeping study examines the wars of colonial conquest fought in Africa during the 19th and early 20th centuries From Britain's efforts to wrest control of the Sudan from military leader Muhammad Ahmad al Mahdi to Italy's decisive defeat at the Battle of Adowa in Ethiopia to Leopold II's brutal reign over the Belgian Congo the work surveys the devastation reaped upon the continent by colonization and illustrates how its combative influence continues to resonate in Africa today Written by scholars in the fields of history and politics this complete reference includes entries on wars campaigns rebellions battles leaders and organizations The work delves into key historical periods including the Scramble for Africa ca 1880 to 1910 early European colonial wars in Africa such as the Dutch in the Cape and the Portuguese in Angola and Mozambique and African rebellions against the early colonial state in the 1890s and early 1900s Entries feature prominent events and personalities as well as lesser known occurrences and players

Twenty Years of Independence in Zimbabwe S. Darnolf, L. Laakso, 2016-01-13 This collection offers comprehensive insights into pivotal areas of concern regarding developments in Zimbabwe since its independence By disclosing the intra elite competition assessing the performance of Zimbabwe's economy and explaining how the country's natural resources have been managed we can better understand the ruling ZANU PF's increasing reliance on the so called war veterans and the land reform issue for its political survival
