The Poetics of Natural History Christoph Irmscher,2019-09-08 Winner of the 2000 American Studies Network Prize and the Literature and Language Award from the Association of American Publishers Inc Early American naturalists assembled dazzling collections of native flora and fauna from John Bartram s botanical garden in Philadelphia and the artful display of animals in Charles Willson Peale s museum to P T Barnum s American Museum infamously characterized by Henry James as halls of humbug Yet physical collections were only one of the myriad ways that these naturalists captured catalogued and commemorated America s rich biodiversity They also turned to writing and art from John Edward Holbrook s forays into the fascinating world of herpetology to John James Audubon s masterful portraits of American birds In this groundbreaking now classic book Christoph Irmscher argues that early American natural historians developed a distinctly poetic sensibility that allowed them to imagine themselves as part of and not apart from their environment He also demonstrates what happens to such inclusiveness in the hands of Harvard scientist turned Amazonian explorer Louis Agassiz whose racist pseudoscience appalled his student William James This expanded full color edition of The Poetics of Natural History features a preface and art from award winning artist Rosamond Purcell and invites the reader to be fully immersed in an era when the boundaries between literature art and science became fluid The Croom Family and Goodwood Plantation William Warren Rogers, Erica R. Clark, 2010-01-01 One of the most elegant mansions in Florida Goodwood was built over a century ago and stands today as one of Tallahassee's grandest historical monuments It was once the center of a thriving plantation founded by the Croom family of North Carolina who in the 1820s sought to revive their fortunes in the newly opened Florida territory William Warren Rogers and Erica R Clark tell the story of this family and their legacy shedding new light on many aspects of antebellum family life plantation management and race relations They describe how brothers Hardy and Bryan Croom developed Goodwood Plantation to over four thousand acres with nearly two hundred slaves before Hardy and his family were killed in a shipwreck and how a twenty year lawsuit complicated by questions of survivorship and residency denied Bryan control of the estate This meticulously detailed account drawing extensively on family correspondence and court records is a story of humaneness hard work and family values but also of selfishness and greed that reveals an intriguing chapter of southern history The History of Ornithology in Virginia David W. Johnston, 2003 Host to a large and diverse bird population as well as a long human history Virginia is arguably the birthplace of ornithology in North America David W Johnston's History of Ornithology in Virginia the result of over a decade of research is the first book to address this fascinating element of the state's natural history Tertiary era fossils show that birds inhabited Virginia as early as 65 million years ago Their first human observers were the region's many Indian tribes and later colonists on Roanoke Island and in Jamestown Explorers pushing westward contributed further to the development of a conception of birds that was distinctively American By the 1900s planter farmers naturalists and government employees had amassed bird records from the Barrier Islands and the Dismal Swamp to the Blue Ridge and Appalachian Mountains The modern era saw the emergence of ornithological organizations and game laws as well as increasingly advanced studies of bird distribution migration pathways and breeding biology Johnston shows us how ornithology in Virginia evolved from observations of wondrous creatures to a sophisticated science recognizing some 435 avian species David W Johnston taught ornithology at the University of Virginia's Mountain Lake Biological Station for nearly two decades and has edited numerous ecological studies as well as the Journal of Field Ornithology and Ornithological Monographs South Carolina Naturalists David Taylor, 1998 This collection of Civil War era letters includes epistles from the family of Charles Leverett an Episcopal clergyman and Lowcountry planter and his wife Mary Maxcy Leverett Carolinian A Rumor of Black Lutherans James R. Thomas, 2024-05-28 The history of Lutheran engagement in the Black context in the United States is regrettably thin The book helps Lutherans in the US and other students of American history to assemble a complete account of the role of early American Lutherans in higher education among African Americans The book does so by tracing the stories of ten remarkable African Americans from their encounters with Lutherans through to the powerful and impactful lives of ministry and service they went on to lead Diverse in place time and work these ten mini biographies paint a richly unified portrait of the ways Lutherans have supported African Americans in higher educational pursuits Maria Martin's World Debra Lindsay, 2018-02-27 Family Faith the Lutheran way Painting from nature Maria Martin and John James Audubon Living together working together collaboration and kinship Family and science beyond botanicals Family and science quadrupeds Faith Our trust in God Birds of the Carolinas Eloise F. Potter, James F. Parnell, Robert P. Teulings, Ricky Davis, 2015-12-01 The well loved standard reference for bird watchers and nature lovers in North Carolina and South Carolina Birds of the Carolinas collects information on all avian species known to have occurred in the region since 1900 This thoroughly revised second edition describes more than 460 individual species including more than 60 new species that have been recorded since the publication of the first edition in 1980 Updated entries for all species reflect the current status of bird life as well as major changes in taxonomy and nomenclature Each species account indicates when and where the bird is most likely to be found in the Carolinas its nesting habits feeding habits and descriptive information useful in identifying the species Generously illustrated with 350 color photographs this comprehensive guide to regional birds and their behavior will quickly earn a prominent place on the bookshelf of every bird watcher in the Carolinas
