

Hemodynamic Monitoring Limits

Reliability:
Over-reliance on technology overshadows
clinical judgment

Implementation:
Besides equipment
costs, investments in team training for proper use of the technology
must also be done

Interpretation:
As different individuals present variable responses to hemodynamic changes,
decision-making process
may be miss-guided
