Central Europe is one of the key notions of classical geopolitics yet it has always been a somewhat elusive concept Originally perceived as a plan for a German dominated political and economic union it subsequently emerged to threaten leaders in the East and West in a variety of forms Otilia Dhand provides a critical examination of the concept of Central Europe from its early inception to the present day Making extensive use of archival material she shows how successive manifestations of Central Europe of whatever vintage have failed to bring about their intended changes on the international structure and how customary claims about Central Europe are not supported by the original source material The result is a work of outstanding scholarship that advances our understanding of regionalism and geopolitics in Europe Handbook on Critical Geographies of Migration Katharyne Mitchell,Reece Jones,Jennifer L. Fluri,2019

Border walls shipwrecks in the Mediterranean separated families at the border island detention camps migration is at the centre of contemporary political and academic debates This ground breaking Handbook offers an exciting and original analysis of critical research on themes such as these drawing on cutting edge theories from an interdisciplinary and international group of leading scholars With a focus on spatial analysis and geographical context this volume highlights a range of theoretical methodological and regional approaches to migration research while remaining attuned to the underlying politics that bring critical scholars together A Student's Introduction to Geographical Thought Pauline Couper,2014-12-01

This is a busting text is an enormously accessible account of the key philosophical and theoretical ideas that have informed geographical research It makes abstract ideas explicit and clearly connects it with real practices of geographical research and knowledge Written with flair and passion A Student's Introduction to Geographical Thought Explains the key ideas scientific realism anti realism and idealism positivism critical rationalism Marxism and critical realism social constructionism and feminism phenomenology and post phenomenology postmodernism and post structuralism complexity moral philosophy Uses examples that address both physical geography and human geography Use a familiar and real world example the beach as an entry point to basic questions of philosophy returning to this to illustrate and to explain the links between philosophy theory and methodology All chapters end with summaries and sources of further reading a glossary explaining key terms exercises with commentaries and web resources of key articles from the journals Progress in Human Geography and Progress in Physical Geography A Student's Introduction to Geographical Thought is a completely accessible student A Z of theory and practice for both human and physical geography

Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick,2020-12-14 In Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick presents a creative and rigorous study of black and anticolonial methodologies Drawing on black studies studies of race cultural geography and black feminism as well as a mix of methods citational practices and theoretical frameworks she positions black storytelling and stories as strategies of invention and collaboration She analyzes a number of texts from intellectuals and artists ranging from Sylvia Wynter to the electronica band Drexciya to explore how narratives of imprecision and relationality interrupt knowledge systems that seek to observe index know and discipline blackness Throughout McKittrick offers curiosity wonder citations numbers playlists friendship poetry inquiry song grooves and anticolonial chronologies as interdisciplinary codes that entwine with the academic form Suggesting that black life and black livingness are in themselves rebellious methodologies McKittrick imagines without totally disclosing the ways in which black intellectuals invent ways of living outside prevailing knowledge systems
