Herinneringen Van Een Friese Landarbeider:

Herinneringen van een Friese landarbeider Imke Klaver, 1974 Register op personen voorkomend in Imke Klaver
Herinneringen van een Friese landarbeider, 1974* Herinnering en identiteit in het vrijzinnig protestantisme

Mirjam de Baar, Mathilde van Dijk, 2009 Met de vestiging van de V P R O studio en de secretariaten van tal van vrijzinnig protestantse organisaties op de Nieuwegracht 27 in Utrecht belichaamde dit grachtenpand ooit de droom van een zuil die al wat vrijzinnig protestants was zou verenigen Anno 2009 is die droom vervlogen en is het Nederlandse vrijzinnig protestantisme in zijn institutionele of organisatorische vorm nauwelijks meer zichtbaar Des te relevanter wordt juist dan de vraag naar die plekken in het collectieve geheugen van de protestantse vrijzinnigen die als plaatsen van herinnering zijn aan te merken de plekken waaraan de vrijzinnige herinnering zich heeft gehecht Het gaat in deze bundel niet alleen om concrete plekken waaraan de collectieve herinnering vastzit en waarmee vrijzinnigen zich kunnen identificeren maar ook om symbolische plaatsen in de geest in de vorm van een begrip bijvoorbeeld tolerantie of een persoon bijv Coornhert met wie de vrijzinnigen zich van oudsher verbonden hebben gevoeld Deze benadering impliceert een ruime opvatting van vrijzinnigheid

Travel Writing in Dutch and German, 1790-1930 Alison E. Martin, Lut Missinne, Beatrix van Dam, 2017-01-06 This volume focuses on how travel writing contributed to cultural and intellectual exchange in and between the Dutch and German speaking regions from the 1790s to the twentieth century interwar period Drawing on a hitherto largely overlooked body of travelers whose work ranges across what is now Germany and Austria the Netherlands and Dutch speaking Belgium the Dutch East Indies and Suriname the contributors highlight the interrelations between the regional and the global and the role alterity plays in both spheres They therefore offer a transnational and transcultural perspective on the ways in which the foreign was mediated to audiences back home By combining a narrative perspective on travel writing with a socio historically contextualized approach essays emphasize the importance of textuality in travel literature as well as the self positioning of such accounts in their individual historical and political environments The first sustained analysis to focus specifically on these neighboring cultural and linguistic areas this collection demonstrates how topographies of knowledge were forged across these regions by an astonishingly diverse range of travelling individuals from professional scholars and writers to art dealers soldiers female explorers and scientific collectors The contributors address cultural aesthetic political and gendered aspects of travel writing drawing productively on other disciplines and areas of scholarly research that encompass German Studies Low Countries Studies comparative literature aesthetics the history of science literary geography and the history of publishing Migrant Labour in Europe, 1600-1900 Jan Lucassen, 2022-11-16 Migrant Labour in Europe 1987 examines the movement of workers from less prosperous parts of Europe to areas with demand for their services The author identifies seven major systems of migrant labour the North Sea System mainly Westphalian workers heading for the German and Dutch North Sea Coast and Walloon French workers bound for the Belgian and Zeeland coasts the area between London and the

Humber the Paris Basin Provence Languedoc and Catalonia Castile Piedmont and central Italy with Corsica A detailed study of the first of these systems tracing its development and changes is brought into a synchronic relation with data for the other regions The evidence shows major waves of immigration in the seventeenth century and a rapid diminution of migratory labour to the North Sea in the last quarter of the nineteenth century a time when new pull areas were created by the expanding industrial complexes of Germany and labour began to come in from areas outside Europe

Travel and Space in Nineteenth-Century Europe Anna P.H. Geurts, 2024-06-27 This detailed study of eighty European journeys examines the everyday spatial concerns of nineteenth century travelers with a focus on travelers from the Netherlands and North Sea region From common soldiers in revolutionary Belgium to guests of the tsars in Russia many of their travel accounts are here examined for the first time Chapters analyze the different meanings of the home and homeliness travelers desires for socializing but equally their intricate privacy norms their intense attachment to cleanliness order space and light and the discomforts of cold hot wet hard and cramped spaces Author Anna P H Geurts details what spatial characteristics travelers valued what measures they took to ensure them and what sensations emotions and thoughts this resulted in Geurts s careful attention to gender class and individual experience turns existing conceptions of industrial modernity on their head From Napoleonic stagecoaches and sailing boats to the steam powered journeys of the belle poque the continuities in travel experiences are surprising as are the commonalities between travelers of different social classes and genders Significant shifts in their spatial micropolitics should be sought less in the world of administration and industrial machinery and more in travelers increasingly flexible and egalitarian mindset and changing economic relations This book will be of value to students and researchers of cultural history as well as contemporary planning and design

Crop Protection in Medieval Agriculture Jan C. Zadoks, 2013-10-16 Mediterranean and West European pre modern agriculture agriculture before 1600 was by necessity organic agriculture Crop protection is part and parcel of this agriculture with weed control in the forefront Crop protection is embedded in the medieval agronomy text books but specialised sections do occur Weeds insects and diseases are described but identification in modern terms is not easy The pre modern Crop Portfolio is well filled certainly in the Mediterranean area The medieval Pest Portfolio differs from the modern one because agriculture then was a Low External Input Agriculture and because the proportion of cultivated to non cultivated land was drastically lower than today The pre modern Control Portfolio is surprisingly rich both in preventive and interventive measures Prevention was by risk management intensive tillage and careful storage Intervention was mechanical and chemical Chemical intervention used natural substances such as sulphur pitch and botanicals Some fifty plant species are mentioned in a crop protection context Though application methods look rather modern they are typically low tech Among them are seed disinfection spraying dusting fumigation grease banding wound care and hand picking but also scarification now outdated The reality of pest outbreaks and other damages is explored as to frequency intensity and extent Information on the practical use of the recommended treatments is scanty If applied their effectiveness remains enigmatic Three medieval agronomists are at the heart of this book but historical developments in crop protection from early Punic Greek and Roman authors to the first modern author are outlined The readership of these writers was the privileged class of landowners but hints pointing to the exchange of ideas between them and the common peasant were found Consideration is given to the pre modern reasoning in matters of crop protection Comparison of pre modern crop protection and its counterpart in modern organic agriculture is difficult because of drastic changes in the relation between crop areas and non crop areas and because of the great difference in yield levels then and now with several associated differences

Middeleeuwse mensen en hun verhalen

Rudi Künzel, 2022-01-17 Toen in de jaren zeventig de mentaliteitsgeschiedenis opkwam in het Nederlands taalgebied was Rudi Künzel een van de pioniers In deze essays zet hij dat onderzoek voort waarbij historisch filologisch onderzoek van middeleeuwse teksten en methodologische beschouwingen elkaar afwisselen Hij belicht middeleeuwse groepsstructuren en laat zien hoe in middeleeuwse teksten emoties en mondelinge overlevering te achterhalen zijn Ook analyseert hij het werk van enkele belangrijke Europese mediavisten en niet te vergeten van hun intrigerende veertiende eeuwse Noord Afrikaanse voorganger Ibn Khaldun
