Growing In The Life Of Faith Second Edition Education And Christian Practices:

Growing in the Life of Faith, Second Edition Craig Dykstra, 2005-09-02 In this new edition of his popular book Craig Dykstra explores the contributions of the traditions education worship practices and disciplines of the Reformed Christian community in helping people grow in faith In doing so he makes the case that the Christian church in its own traditions has a wealth of wisdom about satisfying spiritual hunger and the desire to know God deeply wisdom that offers coherent thoughtful guidance in such diverse settings as congregational life families youth groups and higher education Practicing Witness Benjamin T. Conner, 2011-07-06 How might a church infused with missional theology change the way it approaches Christian practices Interacting both with the missional theology of George Hunsberger and Darrell Guder and with the theology of Christian practices laid out by Craig Dykstra and Dorothy Bass Benjamin T Conner argues that allowing these two disciplines to inform one another can enhance the nature of the church s witness its congregational discipleship and its theological education Framing his work with real world narratives and applications inspired by his work as a minister to adolescents with special needs Conner shows how a practical missional mindset can redefine and reinvigorate the spirit and purpose of a congregation Teaching and Christian Practices David Smith, James K. A. Smith, 2011-10-10 In Teaching and Christian Practices several university professors describe and reflect on their efforts to allow historic Christian practices to reshape and redirect their pedagogical strategies Whether allowing spiritually formative reading to enhance a literature course employing table fellowship and shared meals to reinforce concepts in a pre nursing nutrition course or using Christian hermeneutical practices to interpret data in an economics course these teacher authors envision ways of teaching and learning that are rooted in the rich tradition of Christian practices as together they reconceive classrooms and laboratories as vital arenas for faith and spiritual growth From Generation to Generation Charles R. Foster, 2012-10-02 Mainline Protestant congregations face a profound adaptive challenge In the midst of significant social cultural and technological change the denominations they represent generally abandoned a view of education capable of maintaining and renewing their faith traditions through their children and youth New curriculum resources and innovative pedagogical strategies appropriated from the marketplace of religious education options have not met the challenge A transformation of consciousness is required in congregations seeking a future through their children It involves the exercise of an ecclesial imagination to reclaim a view of education rooted in the revitalization of their religious traditions in the past and re envisioning the congregation as a catechetical culture of faith formation Christian Faith, Formation and Education Ros Stuart-Buttle, John Shortt, 2017-11-13 This book discusses the relationship between faith formation and education Rooted in a variety of discourses the book offers original insights into the education and formation of the human person both theoretical and practical Issues are considered within a context of contemporary tensions generated by an increasingly pluralist society with antipathy to religious faith and debated from interdenominational Christian perspectives Including chapters by an international team of experts the volume demonstrates how Christian faith holds significance for educational practice and human development It argues against the common assumption that there can be a neutral approach to education whilst at the same time advocating a critical dimension to faith education It brings fresh thinking about faith and formation which demands attention given the fast changing political educational and socio cultural forces of today It will appeal to students and researchers involved in Christian educational practice bodies and individual heroic leadership You are invited to question this worldview while learning from scholars imagining a decolonized future

Living Our Story Larry A. Golemon, 2010-12-31 Living Our Story explores how good narrative work the retrieval construction and performance of valued stories takes place in ministry Authors Larry A Golemon Lee Ramsey N Graham Standish Tim Shapiro Carol Johnson Mike Mather Niles Elliot Goldstein and Diana Butler Bass examine this question from a variety of perspectives including the role of the pastor or rabbi as narrative leader the sacred and mundane stories that shape congregational life and identity storytelling as a means of community building and story sharing as a practice of hospitality Through the stories they themselves tell these authors show how stories witness to God's presence in the unfolding of human life and how the best leaders craft stories that reveal how God is at work among the people and inspire them to become a part of this larger story

Liturgical Theology Simon Chan, 2009-09-20 Bad worship produces bad theology and bad theology produces an unhealthy church In Liturgical Theology Simon Chan issues a call to evangelicals to develop a mature theology of the church an ecclesiology that is grounded in the church's identity as a worshiping community Evangelicals he argues are confused about the meaning and purpose of the church in part because they have an inadequate understanding of Christian worship As a remedy for this ailment Chan presents a coherent theology of the church that pays particular attention to the liturgical practices that have constituted Christian worship throughout the centuries With a seasoned eye and steady hand he guides the reader through these practices and unpacks their significance for theology spirituality and the renewal of evangelicalism in the postmodern era Chan's proposal advances the conversation among evangelicals regarding the relationship between theology and worship In contrast to some theologians who have tended to emphasize a sociological analysis Chan argues that we need to consider what is essential to the church's theological identity Drawing on the larger Christian tradition Chan argues that we discover that identity primarily in the structure and significance of Christian worship
