Enhancing a High-Performing School Culture and Climate Cletus R.

Bulach, Frederick C. Lunenburg, Les Potter, 2016-10-04 The purpose of our book is to share with our readers some insights we have acquired over the years in our administrative experience implementing change and reforms Two areas that are critical for any reform to succeed are the way communications and conflicts are handled We have included a chapter on interpersonal communications that describes five basic communication skills We have also included a chapter on conflict with provides a number of insights on how to handle conflicts and how to avoid conflicts Successfully dealing with communications and conflict are essential for improving levels of openness and trust Crucial for school culture and climate are low levels of openness and trust There is little agreement amongst faculty that they are open and trusting with each other This creates a guarded environment where energy is being spent in a protective mode Motivation that should go towards improving instruction is diverted to make sure teachers stay out of trouble Improving levels of openness and trust is a thread throughout the book as is the concept of servant leadership If administrators and teachers are perceived as servants as opposed to self serving an improvement in levels of openness and trust will result The authors describe a number of activities for principals so they can practice the servant leadership style that is essential in order to enhance a school s culture and climate One of the activities addresses bullying behavior Bullying behavior must be addressed if there is to be a positive school culture and climate

The Relevance of the Leadership Standards Leslie Jones, 2017-05-04 The work of school leaders is critical in this era and there is heightened attention on the roles of the leaders as linked to student achievement and school improvement school culture and climate and the variables that impact achievement improvement culture and climate The demands on school leaders have significantly changed About a decade ago the Southern Educational Regional Board suggested that school leaders impact as much as twenty percent of the achievement in schools A few years later the potential impact of school leaders increased to twenty five percent Throughout the chapters the reoccurring concepts regarding the work of leaders are discussed The need for leaders to move student learning and to respond to changes in education and challenges are contributing factors to the development of the Professional Standards for Educational Leaders PSEL In chapter 1 and in other chapters throughout the book the links and importance between educational leadership and student learning are made The standards provide a framework of the knowledge and skills needed for school leaders to be prepared for the challenges
