Yashni Deposed

In what happened during the time of the Achaemenians, the Persians who ruled over a vast empire stretching from India to Greece, the king Xerxes reigned in the citadel of Susa. In the third year of his reign he gave a banquet for all the nobles and officials. The satraps of Persia and Media, the governors, and the nobles of the provinces were present.

For a full 70 days he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendour and glory of his dynasty. When the feasts were over, the king gave a banquet for seven days in the enclosed garden of the king's palace, for all the people from the Susa to the gateway, who were in the citadel of Susa. The garden had hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white linen and purple material to silver rings on marble pillars. For the queen's conduct has become known to all the people, and they will despise the king and his kingdom.'"

"The king responded Queen Yashni brought before him, but she did not come." "This very day the Median women of the nobility heard about the queen's conduct and spread to all the king's nobles and to the king. There will be no end of discord and confusion."

Sermons: Courageous Women In the Bible Otis Clayton, 2024-01-16

This is a book of sermons about several courageous women in the Bible which I have identified from the Old and New Testament scriptures. I developed or created these sermons because of the bold example from my mother, Elizabeth Murphy Clayton. As a single parent, this courageous woman raised nine children: five sons and four daughters. Her five sons all served honorably in the United States Armed Forces. Furthermore, these sermons about female biblical characters reflect my mother's personality. While I created sermons about Deborah, Esther, Rahab, Ruth, and Hannah as five courageous women of the Old Testament, I also developed five homilies about five women in the New Testament. These brave women are: 1. Mary the Mother of Jesus, 2. Mary Magdalene, 3. Mary of Bethany, 4. Priscilla, and 5. Lydia in the New Testament. These sermons are essentially a male perspective about women who continue to serve as valuable and impeccable role models for how women today, especially African American women, can serve as courageous examples to achieve excellence in various fields of endeavor. The content provided here falls primarily into homiletic womanist studies.
