The Concept of Freedom in the Writings of St. Francis de Sales Eunam McDonnell, 2009 Through the examination of the concept of freedom in the writings of St Francis de Sales the author concludes that in contradistinction to a contemporary understanding of freedom perceived as self determination a Salesian understanding privileges freedom's relationship to the good This situates St Francis de Sales in the classical Thomistic tradition of freedom's necessary relationship to the good but involves a methodological shift as he employs the Renaissance starting point of the turn to the subject This study demonstrates how St Francis arrives inductively at what St Thomas demonstrated deductively namely the essential relationship of freedom to the good Along with this Thomistic influence the author analyses the Salesian indebtedness to Augustinian anthropology which explains the primacy St Francis gives to the will and consequently to love Love understood as the heart's movement towards the good allows the Salesian approach to move beyond the confines of a traditional faculty psychology to embrace a more biblical understanding of the human person This examination of love's relationship to freedom reveals their teleological and archaeological natures coming back to our origins wherein we discover the source of our freedom bestowed on us as a gift from God

Teilhard's Proposition for Peace Jean Maalouf, 2018-11-15 Teilhard de Chardin called the greatest prophet of this age intended to write a book called The Book of Peace though he failed to do so Instead he went on sowing the seeds of peace throughout his writings This book distills and presents the essence of the case Teilhard made for the cause of peace There is no doubt that Teilhard's readers have noticed how difficult his thought can be and how puzzling it appears at times This volume navigates the complexity of those labyrinthine roads inviting the reader to confidently see the basic unity which underlies all that is When we recognize that we live in the Divine Milieu where we witness the transforming presence of the divine in human consciousness we will existentially realize the truth of the principle by which Teilhard wanted us to live
