The new fifth edition of Bradt's Zimbabwe remains the only detailed standalone guide from a major publisher to cover one of the premier safari and cultural destinations in southern Africa. Best known for the Victoria Falls which leaves visitors awed by the world's largest curtain of falling water, Zimbabwe offers manifold other experiences for the intrepid traveller from evocative wildlife to fascinating arts, jaw-dropping landscapes to astonishing World Heritage sites. Soak up the laid-back atmosphere of the capital Harare with its bustling arts scene and trendy restaurants or head to the mighty Zambezi River for fast-flowing adventure. Visit national parks that offer a variety of wildlife encounters, enjoy canoe-based game viewing at Mana Pools where African painted dog is a highlight or remote camping beside rare nyala antelope in the wilderness of Gonarezhou. Capitalise on the exciting revival of Matusadona which boasts one of Africa's highest densities of leopard or combine watching white and black rhinos with admiring the world's greatest concentration of ancient hunter-gatherer rock art at Matobo Hills. History buffs will marvel at Zimbabwe's plethora of historical and cultural sites, most famously the World Heritage-listed stone-built ancient cities of Great Zimbabwe and Khami, the latter once controlling a lucrative international trading empire. Birdwatchers meanwhile will delight in a trove of avian encounters, notably in Bunga's lush forests, one of Zimbabwe's best-kept secrets. With increased business confidence in Zimbabwe, scores of new hotels and lodges have opened, the country's national parks have been rejuvenated, its two main airports upgraded and major roads improved. Accommodation options comprise everything from luxury safari camps to budget stays for travellers who arrive overland, plus suggested pit stops to break up journeys. Written by a former resident of Zimbabwe, thoroughly updated by two seasoned adventurers and with a foreword by explorer Sir Ranulph Fiennes, Bradt's Zimbabwe remains an ideal companion for everyone from wildlife enthusiasts to adventure seekers and hikers, whether travelling independently or on an organised tour. New for this edition are a 64-page full-colour wildlife guide plus expanded coverage of Zambezi National Park, Matobo Hills and the surroundings of Harare and Bulawayo.

Band on the Bus Richard King,2017-07-03 When nine friends set out from England in 1969 to travel the world in a double decker bus called Hairy Pillock little did they know that they would become honorary citizens of Texas hold the keys to New York release a record in Australia perform for the Shah and Empress of Iran and appear on countless television and radio shows around the world Their epic three year journey which began as a bet with the landlord of their local pub took them across perilous roads through Europe to Iran and Afghanistan through the Khyber Pass to Pakistan and India then to Australia and finally the United States and Canada Initially planning on getting work as export salesmen they soon had to supplement their meagre funds by performing the folk songs they sang in the pubs back home after which they achieved minor stardom as The Philanderers throughout Australia and the US This light hearted account follows the group on their trip across deserts and mountains as they undertook an incredible expedition that would be impossible today Entrepreneur ,1995-07 Evangelical Theology Michael F. Bird,2013-10-29 Evangelical Theology is a systematic theology written from the perspective of a biblical scholar Michael F Bird contends that the center unity and boundary of the evangelical faith is the evangel gospel as opposed to things like justification by faith or inerrancy The evangel is the unifying thread in evangelical theology and the theological hermeneutic through which the various loci of theology need to be understood Using the gospel as a theological leitmotif an approach to Christian doctrine that begins with the gospel and sees each loci through the lens of the gospel this text presents an authentically evangelical theology as opposed to an ordinary systematic theology written by an evangelical theologian According to the author theology is the drama of gospelizing performing and living out the gospel in the theatre of Christian life The text features tables sidebars and questions for discussion The end of every part includes a What to Take Home section that gives students a run down on what they need to know And since reading theology can often be dry and cerebral the author applies his unique sense of humor in occasional Comic Belief sections so that students may enjoy their learning experience through some theological humor added for good measure Federal Register ,2000-04 Fodor's New Mexico Eric B.
