iDisrupted Michael Baxter, 2015-10-16 iDisrupted changing the human race forever Technology is set to transform the world Its likely impact is both terrifying and incredibly exciting We all need to understand the great changes that are just beginning to re shape the human domain and our daily lives Then we need to draw up plans There are few challenges more important This book is for People who want a job in ten years time Employers who want to hire the right talent for the future Students of business and business professionals who want to understand how technology will transform the commercial world Business leaders and shareholders who want the business they run or own to flourish and not get swept away Investors endeavouring to understand the possible impact of new technology and to place the right bets Policy makers needing to understand the potentially devastating impact of tech economics and tech politics to make the right decision for their country And above all those of us who care about the future of the human race Technologies to watch Robotics internet of things technologies for the promotion of a sharing economy artificial intelligence 3D printing stem cell research genome sequencing energy storage lasers solar power new materials virtual reality nanotechnology brain interfaces to computers and above all else the internet mixed with computers following the evolutionary trajectory described by Moore s Law Book Review

Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Singular Texts/plural Authors Lisa S. Ede, Andrea A.

Lunsford, 1992 Why write together the authors ask They answer that question here in the first book to combine theoretical and historical explorations with actual research on collaborative and group writing Lisa Ede and Andrea Lunsford challenge the assumption that writing is a solitary act That challenge is grounded in their own personal experience as long term collaborators and in their extensive research including a three stage study of collaborative writing supported by the Fund for the Improvement of Post Secondary Education The authors urge a fundamental change in our institutions to accommodate collaboration by radically resituating power in the classroom and by instituting rewards for collaborative work that equal rewards for single authored work They conclude with the injunction Today and in the twenty first century our data suggest writers must be able to work together They must in short be able to collaborate Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003
