Hand Down World Lloyd Jones:

Hand Me Down World Lloyd Jones, 2011-05-11 Haunting and beautiful Hand Me Down World is the simply unforgettable story by the multi award winning author of Mister Pip A woman washes ashore in Sicily She has come from north Africa to find her son taken from her when he was just days old by his father and stolen away to Berlin With nothing but her maid s uniform and a knife stashed in a plastic bag she relies on strangers to guide her passage north These strangers tell of their encounters with a quiet mysterious woman in a blue coat each account a different view of the truth And slowly these fragments of a life piece together to create a spellbinding story of the courage of a mother and the versions of truth we create to accommodate our lives There are no easy answers in this thoughtful novel Indeed much of its intrigue and enjoyment comes from piecing together the story from the myriad voices Humane and moving it s a worthy successor to Jones s last novel the Booker shortlisted Mister Pip Daily Mail Hand Me Down World by Lloyd Jones Liz Waud, 2012

Paint Your Wife Lloyd Jones, 2014-11-19 Long ago when the men were away at the war Alma began painting the women of the town. They sat for him in lieu of payment for his work catching rats. Alice, his favourite, returned his attentions and when her husband George came home from the war he set out to prove his love and reclaim his wife by moving a hill wheelbarrow by wheelbarrow for her. Now decades later Alma's in lieu of payment is revived and the townspeople, looking to escape various corners of despair, turn to drawing classes. For when you draw the only thing that matters is what lies before you. Paint Your Wife is a colourful sensual novel brimming with rich stories and even richer characters. Lloyd Jones's best known novel is Mister Pip, which won the 2007 Commonwealth Writers Prize, the 2008 Kiriama Prize Fiction Category and the 2008 Montana Fiction Award. It was also shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize and has been made into a major feature film directed by Andrew Adamson. Shrek and Narnia. His other books include Hand Me Down, World The Book of Fame, which won the Deutz Medal for Fiction at the 2001 Montana New Zealand Book Awards and the Tasmania Pacific Fiction Prize. Here at the End of the World We Learn to Dance and Biografi. He has also published a collection of short stories The Man in the Shed and an acclaimed memoir A History of Silence. Lloyd Jones lives in Wellington. The writing reminded me a lot of Anne Tyler; it will be enjoyed by fans of domestic community drama but made all the more fascinating and unique because its observations are from within the male perspective.

bookbrowse.com A gentle whimsical book Jones's writing is easy and sophisticated reminding me of Steinbeck at his humorous best. The whole fanciful sprawl is a delight. Age Jones' deep affection for his characters and the light anecdotal touch with which he nudges them away from despair makes for a warm and original entertainment.

Gender and Prestige in Literature Alexandra Dane, 2020-07-10 Gender and Prestige in Literature Contemporary Australian Book Culture explores the relationship between gender, power, reputation and book publishing's consecratory institutions in the Australian literary field from 1965-2015. Focusing on book reviews, literary festivals and literary prizes, this work analyses the ways in which these institutions exist in an increasingly cooperative and generative relationship in the contemporary publishing industry, a system designed to limit field transformation. Taking an intersectional approach, this research acknowledges that a number of factors, in addition to gender, may influence the reception of an author or a title in the literary field and finds that progress towards equality is unstable and non-linear. By combining quantitative data analysis with interviews from authors, editors, critics, publishers and prize judges, Alexandra Dane maps the circulation of prestige in Australian publishing, addressing questions around gender identity, literary reputation, literary worth and the resilience of the status quo that have long plagued the field.

Diaspora, Law and Literature Klaus Stierstorfer, Daniela Carpi, 2016-11-07 The well-known challenges of international migration have triggered new departures in academic approaches with diaspora studies evolving as an interdisciplinary and even transdisciplinary field of study. Its emerging methodology shares concerns with another interdisciplinary field: the study of the relations between law and literature which focuses on the ways in which the two cultural practices of law and literature mutually negotiate each other and on the question after the ontological commensurability of the domains This volume offers for the first time an attempt to provide an interface between these overlapping interdisciplinary endeavours of literary studies legal studies and diaspora studies In doing so it explores new approaches and invites new perspectives on diasporas migration and the disciplines that study them hopefull also adding to the cultural resources of coping with a swiftly changing social landscape in a globalizing world
