Challenges of Copyright in the Digital Age Arpi Abovyan, 2014-06-26 The adaption of copyright law to the digital age is currently one of the EU s main concerns regarding intellectual property This thesis analyses whether European legislation in this field can be successfully implemented in the same way in countries with different levels of development Taking the examples of Germany and Armenia will help to evaluate the problems of developed and transition countries concerning the challenges of copyright in the digital age The comparison between these two countries shows that a one size fits all approach is not appropriate in the digital environment The socio economic situation and the legal environment of transition countries call for a different solution In this respect the example of Armenia may be instructive for other transition countries as well especially CIS countries A recommendation for adopting a certain system for drafting European legislation in the future which will meet the needs of all countries considering their social economic and legal situation has been developed in this thesis

Perspectives on the Internationalisation of Higher Education David Law, Michael Hoey, 2018-04-19 Internationalisation of the contemporary university has become a pervasive and powerful development theme during the past three decades In many countries higher education is now a major export industry The UK has longstanding experience of overseas student recruitment international partnerships between universities and trans national education It has led the world in the development of the quality assurance of overseas activities This collection of essays brings together articles published in the journal of the UK Association of University Administrators AUA Several of the pieces are members of AUA whilst others are by authors who work in other countries Overall in this volume there is a practitioner focus that provides the reader with lessons learnt by those with experience of implementing policies to promote the internationalisation of higher education We are interested both in how universities can manage the challenges that they face and in how the experience of students can be enhanced by participation in internationalisation Because the AUA has an enduring commitment to the professionalization of management and administration readers of this anthology will find accessible focussed and brief articles that are solution oriented This book was originally published as a special issue of Perspectives Policy and Practise in Higher Education

Solving the Internet Jurisdiction Puzzle Dan Jerker B. Svantesson, 2017 Internet jurisdiction has emerged as one of the greatest and most urgent challenges online affecting areas as diverse as e commerce data privacy law enforcement content take downs cloud computing e health cyber security intellectual property freedom of speech and cyberwar In this innovative book Professor Svantesson presents a vision for a new approach to Internet jurisdiction based on an extensive period of research dedicated to the topic The book demonstrates that our current paradigm remains attached to territorial thinking that is out of sync with our modern world especially but not only online Having made the claim that our adherence to the territoriality principle is based more on habit rather than on any clear and universally accepted legal principles Professor Svantesson advances a new jurisprudential framework for how we approach jurisdiction a framework that unites private and public international law He also proposes several other reform initiatives aimed at equipping us to solve the Internet jurisdiction puzzle In addition the book provides a history of Internet jurisdiction and challenges our traditional categorisation of different types of jurisdiction It places Internet jurisdiction in a broader context and outlines methods for how to properly understand and work with rules of Internet jurisdiction While Solving the Internet Jurisdiction Puzzle paints a clear picture of the concerns involved and the problems that needs to be overcome this book is distinctly aimed at finding practical solutions anchored in a solid theoretical framework Professor Svantesson argues that many of the Internet jurisdiction problems we face are due to a sleepwalking like acceptance of orthodox thinking Solving the Internet Jurisdiction Puzzle acts as a wake up call to this issue The Internationalization of Government Procurement Regulation Aris Georgopoulos, Bernard

Hoekman, Petros C. Mavroidis, 2017-02-16 As governments are major buyers of goods and services foreign companies are keen to be able to participate in procurement opportunities on an equal footing with national firms This has given rise to the inclusion of procurement disciplines in trade agreements and to internationally agreed good regulatory practices in this important policy area The contributions to this book examine how the dynamic mix of bilateral regional plurilateral and international norms on government procurement is reflected in purchasing practices at the national level and whether these are leading to convergence in policies and approaches The countries studied span both advanced high income economies and emerging economies Some are members of the WTO procurement agreement others are not Most WTO members have decided not to commit to binding international disciplines on procurement in trade agreements This book explores whether there has been nonetheless internationalization of good procurement practices and what current public purchasing processes suggest as regards the value added of signing on to binding rules of the game in this area The approach taken in the volume is interdisciplinary Contributors include economists political scientists legal scholars and practitioners with a solid understanding of both the extant international disciplines and national government procurement policies Each chapter assesses the current state of play as regards legislation and procurement practices the degree to which industrial policy considerations feature in the relevant regulatory frameworks the existence and use of domestic dispute resolution and review procedures that allow firms to contest the behavior of procuring entities and the availability of data on procurement processes and outcomes Information Technology and the Law, 1996 Internationalization of Library and
