Ideal Worlds New Romanticism In Contemporary Art:

Ideal worlds, new Romanticism in contemporary art, 2005 Film Landscapes Graeme Harper, Jonathan Rayner, 2014-08-26 This book brings together critical and theoretical essays examining the connections between films and landscapes It showcases the work of established and emerging academics whose research probes the complex relationships between moving images and the filmed environment and accounts for the impactful effects of viewing lived spaces and human places on screen The essays in this collection actively engage with examples of contemporary popular and art cinema genre films and auteur canon historical films propaganda documentary and animation in their explorations of the meanings with which filmed landscapes are endowed and invested The breadth of the study is matched by the depth of the interest with writers here approaching the subject of film landscapes as critics as film practitioners and as teachers of film studies and film making Film Landscapes gives voice to a great many ideas and includes coverage of a great many films but it also points forward to ways in which we might revisit discussions of the environments of film and consider ways in which history and creativity critical understanding and the interaction of human beings and place could be reconsidered and revised to produce new insights The Gothic in Contemporary British Trauma Fiction Ashlee Joyce, 2019-09-05 This book examines the intersection of trauma and the Gothic in six contemporary British novels Martin Amis's London Fields Margaret Drabble's The Gates of Ivory Ian McEwan's Atonement Pat Barker's Regeneration and Double Vision and Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go In these works the Gothic functions both as an expression of societal violence at the turn of the twenty first century and as a response to the related crisis of representation brought about by the contemporary individual's highly mediated and spectatorial relationship to this violence By locating these six novels within the Gothic tradition this work argues that each text to borrow a term from Jacques Derrida participates in the Gothic in ways that both uphold the paradigm of unspeakability that has come to dominate much trauma fiction as well as push its boundaries to complicate how we think of the ethical relationship between witnessing and writing trauma Romantic Legacies Shun-Liang Chao, John Michael Corrigan, 2019-03-06 Romantic Legacies Transnational and Transdisciplinary Contexts presents the most wide ranging treatment of Romantic regenerations covering the cross pollination between the arts or between art and thought within or across the borders of Germany Britain France the US Russia India China and Japan Each chapter in the volume examines a legacy or afterlife in a comparative context to demonstrate ongoing Romantic legacies as fully as possible in their complexity and richness The volume provides readers a lens through which to understand Romanticism not merely as an artistic heritage but as a dynamic site of intellectual engagement that crosses nations and time periods and entails no less than the shaping of our global cultural currents The Last Days of Pompeii Victoria C. Gardner Coates, Kenneth D. S. Lapatin, Jon L. Seydl, Cleveland Museum of Art, Musée national des beaux-arts du Québec, 2012 Destroyed yet paradoxically preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in a d 79 Pompeii and other nearby sites are usually considered places where we can most directly experience the daily lives of ancient Romans This book explores Pompeii as a modern obsession in which the Vesuvian sites function as mirrors of the present It is a fascinating survey of the modern obsession with the destruction of Pompeii as seen through the eyes of artists Destroyed yet paradoxically preserved by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in a d 79 Pompeii and other nearby sites are usually considered places where we can most directly experience the daily lives of ancient Romans Rather than present these sites as windows to the past The Last Days of Pompeii explores Pompeii as a modern obsession in which the Vesuvian sites function as mirrors of the present Through cultural appropriation and projection outstanding visual and literary artists of the last three centuries have made the ancient catastrophe their own expressing contemporary concerns in diverse media from paintings prints and sculpture to theatrical performances photography and film This lavishly illustrated volume featuring the works of artists such as Fragonard Kaufmann Duchamp Dali and Warhol surveys the legacy of Pompeii in the modern imagination

Computer Games As Landscape Art Peter Nelson, 2023-08-31 This book proposes that computer games are the paradigmatic form of contemporary landscape and offers a synthesis of art history geography game studies and play Like paint on canvas the game engine is taken as the underlying medium and using the Valve Source Engine as the primary case study it analyses landscapes according to the technical economic and cultural features this medium affords It presents the single player first person shooter Half Life 2 as a Promethean safari examines how the economics of gambling and product placement shaped the eSports landscapes of Counter Strike and reveals how sandboxes such as Garry s Mod visualise the radical landscape of Web 2 0 This book explores how our relationship to the environment is changing how we express this through computer games and how we can move beyond examining artistic influences on games to examining how historical connections flow through games and the history of landscape images
