Ifa Divination Poetry Traditional African Literature:

Ifá Divination Poetry 'Wande Abimbola, 1977      African Literatures Oyekan Owomoyela, 1979      Literatures in African Languages B. W. Andrzejewski, S. Pilaszewicz, W. Tyloch, 1985-11-21 Although African literatures in English and French are widely known outside Africa those in the African languages themselves have not received comparable attention In this book a number have been selected for survey by fourteen specialist writers providing the reader with an introduction to this very wide field and a body of reference material which includes extensive bibliographies and biographical information on African authors Theoretical issues such as genre divisions are discussed in the essays and the historical social and political forces at work in the creation and reception of African literature are examined Literature is treated as an art whose medium is language so that both the oral and written forms are encompassed This book will be of value not only to readers concerned with the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in the literary phenomena of the world in general      African Oral Literature Isidore Okpewho, 1992-09-22 its pages come alive with wonderful illustrative material coupled with sensitive and insightful commentary Reviews in Anthropology the scope breadth and lucidity of this excellent study confirm that Okpewho is undoubtedly the most important authority writing on African oral literature right now Research in African Literatures Truly a tour de force of individual scholarship World Literature Today excellent African Affairs a thorough synthesis of the main issues of oral literature criticism as well as a grounding in experienced fieldwork a wide ranging theoretical base and a clarity of argument rare among academics Multicultural Review This is a breathtakingly ambitious project Harold Scheub a definitive accounting of the evidence of living oral traditions in Africa today Professor Okpewho's authority as an expert in this important new field is unrivaled Gregory Nagy Isidore Okpewho's African Oral Literature is a marvelous piece of scholarship and wide ranging research It presents the most comprehensive survey of the field of oral literature in Africa Emmanuel Obiechina a tour de force of scholarship in which Okpewho casts his net across the African continent searching for its verbal forms through voluminous recent writings and presents African oral literature in a new voice proclaiming the literariness of African folklore Dan Ben Amos This is an outstanding book by a scholar whose work has already influenced how African literature should be conceived Professor Okpewho is a scholar with a special talent to nurture scholarship in others After this work African literature will never be the same Mazisi Kunene Isidore Okpewho for many years Professor of English at the University of Ibadan is one of the handful of African scholars who has facilitated the growth of African oral literature to its status today as a literary enterprise concerned with the artistic foundations of human culture This comprehensive critical work firmly establishes oral literature as a landmark of high artistic achievement and situates it within the broader framework of contemporary African culture      Introduction to African Oral Literature and Performance Bayo Ogunjimi, Abdul Rasheed Na'Allah, Abdul Rasheed Na'Allah, 2005 Rev ed of Introduction to African oral literature c1991 African Divination Systems Philip M. Peek, 1991 This volume of finely crafted case studies is also the vehicle for an important general theory of divination this is a book overflowing with ideas that will powerfully stimulate further research Journal of Ritual Studies The essays in this collection provide a very useful overview of both the diversity of African divination systems and of recent approaches to their study Choice This unique collection of essays by an exceptional international group of Africanists demonstrates the central role that divination continues to play throughout Africa in maintaining cultural systems and in guiding human action African Divination Systems offers insights for current discussions in comparative epistemology cross cultural psychology cognition studies semiotics ethnoscience religious studies and anthropology

Olupona, Rowland O. Abiodun, 2016-02-29 This landmark volume compiled by Jacob K Olupona and Rowland O Abiodun brings readers into the diverse world of If its discourse ways of thinking and artistic expression as manifested throughout the Afro Atlantic Firmly rooting If within African religious traditions the essays consider If and If divination from the perspectives of philosophy performance studies and cultural studies They also examine the sacred context verbal art and the interpretation of If texts and philosophy With essays from the most respected scholars in the field the book makes a substantial contribution toward understanding If and its role in contemporary Yoruba and diaspora cultures      Our Mothers, Our Powers, Our Texts Teresa N. Washington, 2015-12-23 Blazes a new trail in Africana literary criticism by providing an insight into the soul and spirit of Africana womanhood Anthonia Kalu The Ohio State University author of Women Literature and Development in Africa This is the revised and expanded edition of Teresa N Washington s groundbreaking book Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts Manifestations of Aje in Africana Literature In Yoruba language and culture Aje signifies both a phenomenal spiritual power and the human beings who exercise that power Aje is the birthright of Africana women who are revered as the Gods of Society While Africana men can have Aje its owners and controllers are Africana women Because it is an African female power and due to its invisibility ubiquity and profundity Aje is often maligned as witchcraft However as Teresa N Washington reveals in Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts Aje is central to the Yoruba ethos worldview and cosmology Not only is it essential to human creation and artistic creativity but as a force of justice and retribution Aje is vital to social harmony and balance Washington analyzes forms figures and forces of Aje in the Yoruba world in the Caribbean Islands in Latin America and in African America Washington s research reveals that with the exile and enslavement of millions of Africans Aje became a global force and an essential ally in organizing insurrections soothing shattered souls and reminding the dispossessed of their inherent divinity From her in depth exploration of Aje in Pan African history and orature Washington guides readers through rich analyses of the symbolic methodological and spiritual manifestations of Aje that are central to important works by Africana writers but are rarely elucidated by Western criticism Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts includes innovative readings of works by many Africana writers including Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison Ben Okri Wole Soyinka Jamaica Kincaid and Ntozake Shange This revised and expanded edition of Our Mothers Our Powers Our Texts will appeal to scholars of Africana literature African religion and philosophy gender studies and comparative literature Devotees of Africana spiritual systems will find this book to be indispensable Art and Risk in Ancient Yoruba Suzanne Preston Blier, 2017-11-02 In this book Suzanne Preston Blier examines the intersection of art risk and creativity in early African arts from the Yoruba center of Ife and the striking ways that ancient Ife artworks inform society politics history and religion Yoruba art offers a unique lens into one of Africa's most important and least understood early civilizations one whose historic arts have long been of interest to local residents and Westerners alike because of their tour de force visual power and technical complexity Among the complementary subjects explored are questions of art making art viewing and aesthetics in the famed ancient Nigerian city state as well as the attendant risks and danger assumed by artists patrons and viewers alike in certain forms of subject matter and modes of portrayal including unique genres of body marking portraiture animal symbolism and regalia This volume celebrates art history and the shared passion and skill with which the remarkable artists of early Ife sought to define their past for generations of viewers Yoruba Ritual Margaret Thompson Drewal, 1992-03-22 Yoruba peoples of southwestern Nigeria conceive of rituals as journeys sometimes actual sometimes virtual Performed as a parade or a procession a pilgrimage a masking display or possession trance the journey evokes the reflexive progressive transformative experience of ritual participation Yoruba Ritual is an original and provocative study of these practices Using a performance paradigm Margaret Thompson Drewal forges a new theoretical and methodological approach to the study of ritual that is thoroughly grounded in close analysis of the thoughts and actions of the participants Challenging traditional notions of ritual as rigid stereotypic and invariant Drewal reveals ritual to be progressive transformative generative and reflexive and replete with simultaneity multifocality contingency indeterminacy and intertextuality Throughout the book prominence is given to the intentionality of actors as knowledgeable agents who transform ritual itself through play and improvisation Integral to the narrative are interpolations about performances and their meanings by Kolawole Ositola a scholar of Yoruba oral tradition ritual practitioner diviner and master performer Rich descriptions of rituals relating to birth death reincarnation divination and constructions of gender are rendered all the more vivid by a generous selection of field photos of actual performances Religious Beliefs and Knowledge Systems in Africa Toyin Falola, Nicole Griffin, 2021-09-21 Key to African studies is understanding the knowledge systems of the continent and her diaspora The representation and understanding of Africa are dependent on the observer's definition of knowledge Afrocentric knowledge is comprised of a collection of political religious and indigenous belief systems Religious Beliefs and Knowledge Systems in Africa begins with deconstructing the Western philosophy of knowledge before defining and exploring the epistemic disciplines of Africa It transcends postcolonial critique through an Afrocentric approach to knowledge divided into three key themes The first of these is the African worldview exploring knowledge through eldership witchcraft and divination This is followed up by kingship ideology and epistemologies exploring discussing how politics religion and belief shape African society Finally the world religion chapter examines Christianity Islam and Pentecostalism in their impact on African ways of knowing This book calls to action new fields of study in universities encouraging a greater understanding of African ways of knowing through more nuanced disciplines

Oral Tradition in African Literature Ce, Chin,Smith, Charles,2015-09-04 This study of oral tradition in African literature is borne from the awareness that African verbal arts still survive in works of discerning writers and in the conscious exploration of its tropes perspectives philosophy and consciousness its complementary realism and ontology for the delineation of authentic African response to memory history and other possible comparisons with modern existence such as witnessed in recent developments of the African novel In this series we have strived to adopt innovative and multilayered perspectives on orality or indigeneity and its manifestations on contemporary African and new literatures These studies use multi faceted theories of orality which discuss and deconstruct notions of history truth claims and identity making not excluding gender and genealogy cultural and biological studies in African contexts A Book of Readings in Language and Literature for Colleges and Universities Amandianeze F. Obi-Okoye,1996

African Oral Literature Russell Kaschula,2001 Throughout Africa oral literature is flourishing though it is perceived by some as anachronistic to the modern world This work refutes this idea in its entirety by presenting 22 chapters which firmly place the study of oral literature within contemporary African existence The study analyzes how oral literature relates to media music technology text gender religion power politics and globalization

The Cambridge History of African American Literature Maryemma Graham,Jerry W. Ward, Jr,2011-02-03 The first major twenty first century history of four hundred years of black writing The Cambridge History of African American Literature presents a comprehensive overview of the literary traditions oral and print of African descended peoples in the United States Expert contributors drawn from the United States and beyond emphasise the dual nature of each text discussed as a work of art created by an individual and as a response to unfolding events in American cultural political and social history Unprecedented in scope sophistication and accessibility the volume draws together current scholarship in the field It also looks ahead to suggest new approaches new areas of study and as yet undervalued writers and works The Cambridge History of African American Literature is a major achievement both as a work of reference and as a compelling narrative and will remain essential reading for scholars and students in years to come

The Palgrave Handbook of African Traditional Religion Ibigbolade S. Aderibigbe,Toyin Falola,2022-05-20 The Palgrave Handbook of African Traditional Religion interrogates and presents robust and comprehensive contributions from interdisciplinary experts and scholars Offering a range of perspectives and opinions through the prism of understanding the past about African Traditional religions and more importantly capturing their dynamics in the present and projecting their sustainability and relevance for the future this volume is an essential resource for knowledge and understanding of African

Traditional religions in the global space of religious traditions      Readings in Indigenous Religions Graham Harvey, 2002-08-27 In China at a time when few girls are taught to read or write Ruby dreams of going to the university with her brothers and male cousins      Ìwà: The Process-Relational Dimension to African Metaphysics Emmanuel Ofuasia, 2024-11-22 This book approaches the subject of African metaphysics historically as it connects Ancient Egypt to Yorùbá It provides a history of African metaphysics from ancient Egypt or Kemet down to John Boakye Danquah and Placide Tempels in the 20th century and then Innocent Asouzu Ada Agada and Aribiah David Attoe in the 21st century As it surpasses the deductions of these previous works it moves further to showcase African originality and approaches to studying reality whilst resisting the temptation to deduce conclusions from Western philosophy It is the first book in the history of African philosophy to use a process relational approach to interrogate African metaphysics It also serves to harmonize and engage prominent African scholars who have written on the subject of African metaphysics The general scope of this book centers on engaging the history of distortion and misunderstanding of African metaphysics by providing a relevant and reliable process relational background as well as an alternative trivalent logic system Unless African metaphysical theories are understood from this perspective they will remain powerless to overcome these misrepresentations It appeals to students and researchers internationally actively working in the fields of African philosophy Intercultural African studies as well as process studies _____ This book is one of the valuable contributions to the emerging field of African philosophy after decades 1970s 1990s of rather fruitless debates on the status of the discipline Like many others the book side tracks the seemingly unending controversy of whether or not there is such a thing as African philosophy Godwin Sogolo Emerittus Professor of Philosophy National Open University of Nigeria NOUN In the opening lines of the introduction of this monumental book Dr Ofuasia announces As you read these lines the earth in which you live in as an ontological entity is spinning at an estimate estimated speed of 67 000 mph This indicates that the perspective that a thing is not in motion or is at rest is one of the fallacies ever fed to humanity Nothing rests I was awe struck by how this revelation from physics extends to metaphysics This book is a welcoming addition to African metaphysical scholarship as the process relational approach used to explore Egyptian and ancient Yorùbá thought system in this work creatively intersects emerging discourses on agency both at the animate and what humans call inanimate ontology plant sentience African medicine cosmogony the physical sciences neutral nihilism and other related metaphysical topics The eclectic interrogation of classical concepts of w and Nun from the Yoruba and Egyptian intellectual traditions respectively is a trail blazing contribution Congratulations on this feat Dr Ofuasia Ademola Kazeem Fayemi Queensland Bioethics Center Australian Catholic University Brisbane Dr Ofuasia's book marries aspects of Egyptian philosophy with ancient Yorùbá metaphysics and process metaphysics all under the framework of Ezumezu logic and it works What has emerged from this marriage is a new and contemporary theory in African metaphysics w ontology which is strongly grounded on African thought This book is recommended for anyone interested in African metaphysics Aribiah David Attoe University of the Witwatersrand Emmanuel Ofuasia s text is engaged at times even rightfully angry This makes this a lively energetic contribution I appreciate that This passion is often missing in philosophy but it is much needed especially in this area of research Bjoerne Freter Hagerstown Community College Maryland In this timely work Emmanuel Ofuasia throws down a challenge to African philosophers with the claim that process thinking runs through African philosophy from the contested Egyptian past down to contemporary times His claim culminates in the articulation of w ontology which he presents as a contemporary philosophical expression of process metaphysics This is a bold insightful and impressive work that will brighten the ever expanding horizon of 21st century African philosophy Ada Agada Federal University Otuoke
