Igerton University January Intake 2016:

Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style The Grants Register 2016

Palgrave Macmillan Ltd, 2016-12-27 The most comprehensive guide on postgraduate grants and professional funding globally For thirty four years it has been the leading source for up to date information on the availability of and eligibility for postgraduate and professional awards Each entry is verified by its awarding body and all information is updated annually

University Initiatives in Climate Change Mitigation and Adaptation Walter Leal Filho, Rafael Leal-Arcas, 2018-06-18 This book focuses on the role of higher education institutions in addressing climate change mitigation and adaptation challenges contributing to the development of this fast growing field Further it includes the results of empirical research and offers ideas regarding on going and future research initiatives The contributions also showcase the research and projects on issues pertaining to climate change at universities from across the globe document and promote ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of research projects especially successful initiatives and best practices and introduce methodological approaches and projects that offer a better understanding of climate change across society and economic sectors The book is structured around two parts lessons learned from climate change research education studies and projects Each part focuses on mitigation and adaptation respectively with many responses of the two modalities overlapping This book is a valuable resource for researchers and practitioners in the fields of environment human geography business and economics as well as academics and students as it presents education communication and awareness raising projects on matters related to climate change at universities in both industrialised and developing countries often in cooperation with government bodies NGOs and other stakeholders The Impact of MOOCs on Distance Education in Malaysia and Beyond

Mohamed Ally, Mohamed Amin Embi, Helmi Norman, 2019-02-26 This book provides theoretical and empirical discussions around the impact of MOOCs and other pedagogical strategies for online learning in international contexts Through discussions of inverse blended learning and other teaching and learning approaches Part I navigates the pressing conceptual issues around global online education By analyzing the Malaysia MOOC Initiative the first governmental MOOC project in the world Part II offers insight into the developmental strategies learning design and integrative approaches of these pioneering efforts Edited by leading scholars in the field of globalized online learning this volume offers a valuable contribution to research around collaborative initiatives between governments and universities especially ones dedicated to open and distance education Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark Quarterly Index to Periodical Literature, Eastern and Southern Africa Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya, 2000 An Unfamiliar America Ari Helo, Mikko Saikku, 2020-11-12 This collection focuses on conceptions of the unfamiliar from the viewpoint of mainstream American history aliens immigrants ethnic groups and previously unencountered ideas and ideologies in Trumpian America The book suggests bringing historical thinking back to the center of American Studies given that it has been recently challenged by the influential memory studies boom As much as identity building appears to be the central concern for much of the current practice in American history writing it is worth keeping in mind that historical truth may not always directly contribute to one's identity building The researcher's constant quest for truth does not equate to already possessing it History changes all the time because it consists of our constant reinterpretation of the past It is only the past that does not change This collection aims at keeping these two apart while scrutinizing a variety of contested topics in American history from xenophobic attitudes toward eighteenth century university professors Apache masculinity Ku Klux Klan Tom Waits's lyrics and the politics of the Trump era Quarterly Index to Africana Periodical Literature, 2000 Borrowed Land, Stolen Labor, and the Holy Spirit Diane T. Feldman, 2025-07-15 Borrowed Land Stolen Labor and the Holy Spirit The Struggle for Power and Equality in Holmes County Mississippi chronicles the profound history of a low income county that became a pivotal site for Delta organizing during the civil rights movement Landowning African American farmers who enjoyed more economic independence than sharecroppers emerged as the grassroots leaders of the movement The volume begins with the county s Native American heritage moving through the periods of removal land sales to speculators the rapid increase of enslaved labor in the nineteenth century and early African American political engagement during Reconstruction Author Diane T Feldman explores how African Americans fostered cooperative landownership efforts in the 1880s and 1920s alongside the development of schools and churches particularly the Church of God in Christ a denomination founded in Holmes County The fight for voting rights started with African American farmers in the 1950s and gained momentum with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in the 1960s Their struggle to desegregate schools culminated in the landmark Supreme Court case Alexander v Holmes which abolished dual school systems in the South The final chapters cover the past sixty years and current initiatives to restore food production in the Mississippi Delta Enriched with recent and historic photographs this volume serves as a microhistory of a single county illuminating broader themes prevalent throughout Mississippi and the rural South Anniversary Essays on Alexander Pope's 'The Rape of the Lock' Donald W. Nichol,2016-01-01 In celebration of its tercentenary this collection brings together ten eminent scholars with new perspectives on the poem Vaccines and Immunostimulants for Finfish Hetron Mweemba Munang'andu,Irene Salinas,Roy Ambli Dalmo,Carolina Tafalla,2020-12-16 This eBook is a collection of articles from a Frontiers Research Topic Frontiers Research Topics are very popular trademarks of the Frontiers Journals Series they are collections of at least ten articles all centered on a particular subject With their unique mix of varied contributions from Original Research to Review Articles Frontiers Research Topics unify the most influential researchers the latest key findings and historical advances in a hot research area Find out more on how to host your own Frontiers Research Topic or contribute to one as an author by contacting the Frontiers Editorial Office frontiersin.org/about/contact Secular Chains Philip Connell,2016-04-07 Secular Chains offers an original and richly contextualized account of the relationship between poetry and religious controversy between 1649 and 1745 This was a period of political conflict and intellectual upheaval in which traditional sources of spiritual authority were variously challenged and transformed This study reveals the importance of English literary culture for our understanding of this process and throws new light on the dynamics of change and continuity between the puritan revolution and the early Enlightenment Based on extensive research in both printed and manuscript sources the book combines detailed case studies of major literary figures with a sustained historical narrative linking the republican moment of the 1650s the conflicts and crises of the Restoration and the ecclesiastical politics of the early eighteenth century Milton and Dryden provide the principal focus of the first three chapters which explore the divisive issue of church settlement in the work of both writers together with the increasingly prominent rhetoric of anti clericalism and irreligion in the poetry and polemics of the later seventeenth century Subsequent chapters extend the book s argument to the embattled condition of the Church of England in the decades after 1688 and the significant contribution of contemporary literary culture to a range of religious and philosophical argument from heterodox free thinking to Newtonian natural theology Secular Chains demonstrates the close and continued relationship between poetry and religious politics in the age of Milton and Pope and provides a new framework for understanding this complex and turbulent period in English literary history

Education and Imperial Unity, 1901-1926 James G. Greenlee,2016-11-18 Under the influence of mounting foreign competition in the late Victorian and Edwardian periods many Britons sought to bolster England s world position by reinforcing the unity of the Empire For the most part their effort were channelled into an attempt to construct a formal political union or federation of Britain s overseas dominions However when the so called Imperial Federation Movement failed to produce a viable constitutional solution the problem of unity a number of people began to search for an alternative non political approach In this connection a campaign was mounted during the first two decades of the twentieth century that came to emphasise the informal spiritual ties which supposedly bound the Empire together This title first published in 1987 brings to light the assumptions aspirations and schemes of those predominantly middle class figures who orchestrated the Imperial Studies Movement at the turn of the twentieth century

This title will be of interest to students of history and education The Freemason's Chronicle ,1899 Cannabinoid Therapeutics: What's Hot Fabricio A. Pamplona,Carsten T. Egerton,2016-07-01 First published in 2003 Hewett Cottrell

Watson was a pioneer in a new science not yet defined in Victorian times ecology and was practically the first naturalist to conduct research on plant evolution beginning in 1834 The correspondence between Watson and Darwin analysed for the first time in this book reveals the extent to which Darwin profited from Watson s data Darwin s subsequent fame however is one of the reasons why Watson became almost forgotten This biography traces both the influences and characteristics that shaped Watson s outlook and personality and indeed his science and the institutional contexts within which he worked At the same time it makes evident the extent of his real contributions to the science of the plant ecology and evolution
