G. Dunn, 1992 Jews and Christians : the parting of the ways, A.D. 70 to 135 :. James D. G. Dunn (ed), 1999 Jews and Christians - Parting Ways in the First Two Centuries CE? Jens Schröter, Benjamin A. Edsall, Joseph Verheyden, 2021-08-23 The present volume is based on a conference held in October 2019 at the Faculty of Theology of Humboldt University Berlin as part of a common project of the Australian Catholic University the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and the Humboldt University Berlin The aim is to discuss the relationships of Jews and Christians in the first two centuries CE against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of Judaism and Christianity in antiquity One objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities Another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor It is more likely that distinctions between Jews Christians Jewish Christians Christian Jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows In light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early Christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of Jews and Christians in the early period A Handbook on the Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith Craig Evans, David Mishkin, 2021-04-18 A Handbook on the Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith is a comprehensive handbook that serves as an introduction to the Jewish roots of the Christian Faith It includes Old Testament background Second Temple Judaism the life of Jesus the New Testament and the early Jewish followers of Jesus It is intended as a resource for college and or higher education It is no longer a novelty to say that Jesus was a Jew In fact the term Jewish roots has become something of a buzzword in books articles and especially on the internet But what does the Jewishness of Jesus actually mean and why is it important This collection of articles aims to address those questions and serve as a comprehensive yet concise primer on the Jewish roots of the Christian faith It consists of thirteen chapters most of which are divided into four or five articles It is in a handbook format meaning that each article is brief but informative The thirteen chapters are grouped into four major sections 1 The Soil 2 The Roots 3 The Trunk and 4 The Branches Craig A Evans PhD DHabil is the John Bisagno Distinguished Professor of Christian Origins at Houston Baptist University in Texas He is a frequent contributor to scholarly journals and the author or editor of over seventy books Evans resides in Houston TX David Mishkin PhD serves on the faculty of Israel College of the Bible in Netanya Israel He is the author of The Wisdom of Alfred Edersheim and Jewish Scholarship on the Resurrection of Jesus Anti-Judaism and the Gospel of John Mirosław Stanisław Wróbel, 2023-12-04 In the light of the research undertaken in this book the author concludes that the so called anti Jewish texts in Johannine Gospel are not directed against the Jews being an ethnic or religious community The object of the polemic and attacks is not the entire Jewish nation across the span of all the ages but a group of the Jewish leaders or opponents to Jesus in the First Century AD Looking through the prism of the aposynagoga polemic one can notice that the state of tension between the Johannine community and the rabbinic Judaism is inter Jewish not anti Jewish in character The source of the polemical language of the Fourth Gospel is the Christological discussion in the historical and sociological context the Messianic confession the excommunication from the Synagogue the presence of Samaritans in the Johannine community the struggle for the preservation of the identity The Gospel of Matthew on the Landscape of Antiquity Edwin K. Broadhead, 2017-07-13 The Gospel of Matthew is an oeuvre mouvante a work in process and the dynamics of this process are essential to its identity and function This understanding of the Gospel of Matthew stands in distinction from the long history of research centered on Matthew the author and his design for the gospel Focused instead on tradition history the history of composition and transmission Edwin K Broadhead's approach keeps open the dialectical engagements and the conflicting voices intrinsic to the Gospel of Matthew As a result the consistently Jewish textures of this gospel are emphasized there is a broader engagement with the landscape of antiquity and serious attention is given to further developments in the history of transmission This focus on the developing tradition thus highlights rather than suppresses the viability and the generative potential of such discourses T&T Clark Handbook of the Early Church Ilaria L.E. Ramelli, J.A. McGuckin, Piotr Ashwin-Siejkowski, 2021-12-16 Exploring the key documents authors and themes of Early Christian traditions this volume traces the vital trajectories of emerging distinctive Christian identity in the Graeco Roman world Special attention is given to the coherent growth of Christian faith in connection with worship alongside the crucial transformation of Christian life and doctrine under the Christian Emperors As well as offering a chronological development of the Early Church the book examines the interaction between Christian worship and faith In addition readers interested in systematic theology can refer to chapters on the roots of some significant theological notions in Christian Antiquity also with reference to ancient philosophy Issues addressed include Distinctiveness of the Christian identity during the first centuries Diversity of communities and their theologies Connection between faith and worship Transition from the persecuted minority to triumphant Church with Creeds History of early Christian thought and modern systematic theology Introduction to Messianic Judaism Zondervan, 2013-02-05 This book is the go to source for introductory information on Messianic Judaism Editors David Rudolph and Joel Willits have assembled a thorough examination of the ecclesial context and biblical foundations of the diverse Messianic Jewish movement Unique among similar works in its Jew Gentile partnership this book brings together a team of respected Messianic Jewish and Gentile Christian scholars including Mark Kinzer Richard

Bauckham Markus Bockmuehl Craig Keener Darrell Bock Scott Hafemann Daniel Harrington R Kendall Soulen Douglas Harink and others Opening essays written by Messianic Jewish scholars and synagogue leaders provide a window into the on the ground reality of the Messianic Jewish community and reveal the challenges questions and issues with which Messianic Jews grapple The following predominantly Gentile Christian discussion explores a number of biblical and theological issues that inform our understanding of the Messianic Jewish ecclesial context Here is a balanced and accessible introduction to the diverse Messianic Jewish movement that both Gentile Christian and Messianic Jewish readers will find informative and fascinating

The Role of Jewish Feasts in John's Gospel Gerry Wheaton, 2015-02-26 In the first three Gospels Jesus rarely travels to Jerusalem prior to his final week The Fourth Gospel however features Jesus repeated visits to the city which occur primarily during major festivals This volume elucidates the role of the Jewish feasts of Passover Tabernacles and Dedication in John's presentation of Jesus Gerry Wheaton examines the Gospel in relation to pertinent sources from the Second Temple and Rabbinic periods offering a fresh understanding of how John appropriates the symbolic and traditional backgrounds of these feasts Wheaton situates his inquiry within the larger question of Judaism in John's Gospel which many consider to be the most anti-Semitic New Testament text The findings of this study significantly contribute to the ongoing debate surrounding the alleged anti-Jewish posture of the Gospel as a whole and it offers new insights that will appeal to scholars of Johannine theology New Testament studies and Jewish studies

Anti-Judaism and the Fourth Gospel Reimund Bieringer, Didier Pollefeyt, Frederique Vandecasteele-Vanneuville, 2001-01-01 A selection of essays from the Leuven Conference on the anti-Judaism of the fourth gospel this volume includes essays from the world's best Johannine scholars

Matthew and the Mishnah Akiva Cohen, 2016-06-10 Akiva Cohen investigates the general research question how do the authors of religious texts reconstruct their community identity and ethos in the absence of their central cult His particular socio-historical focus of this more general question is how do the respective authors of the Gospel according to Matthew and the editors of the Mishnah redefine their group identities following the destruction of the Second Temple Cohen further examines how after the Destruction both the Matthean and the Mishnaic communities found and articulated their renewed community bearings and a new sense of vision through each of their respective author/redactor's foundational texts The context of this study is thus that of an inner Jewish phenomenon two Jewish groups seeking to re-establish their community identity and ethos without the physical temple that had been the cultic center of their cosmos

The Jewish World Around the New Testament Richard Bauckham, 2010-07 A leading biblical scholar shows that the New Testament texts cannot be understood without careful attention to their Judaic and Second Temple roots

Gender and Purity in the Protevangelium of James Lily C. Vuong, 2013-11-19 The Protevangelium of James is arguably the earliest surviving source that exhibits profound interest in Mary the mother of Jesus Although frequently cited for later Christian reflections about Mary gender and virginity and its influence on popular Christian art music and literature it is not well known outside academic circles and is rarely studied for its own sake Lily C Vuong offers a sustained analysis of the text's narrative and literary features in order to explore the portrayal and characterization of Mary through a focus on the theme of purity By tracing the various ways purity is described and presented in the text the author contributes to discussions on early Jewish and Christian ideas about purity representations of women in the ancient world the early history of Mariology and the place of non canonical writings in the history of biblical interpretation

Radical Martyrdom and Cosmic Conflict in Early Christianity Paul Middleton, 2006-06-30 Several views of martyrdom co existed in the early Church The orthodox position generally accepted by scholars was that a Christian should choose martyrdom rather than deny the Faith but should not on any account court death Although it has been recognised that some in the early Church did seek a glorified death by giving themselves over to arrest most scholars have dismissed such acts as differing from the accepted attitude to martyrdom in the early Church Therefore instances of volitional or radical martyrdom have been largely overlooked or sidelined in scholarly investigations into the theology and origins of Christian martyrdom Paul Middleton argues that far from being a deviant strand of early Christianity radical martyrdom was a significant and widely held idealised form of devotion in the late first to early third centuries Christian martyrdom is placed within the heritage of Jewish War tradition with each martyr making an important contribution to the cosmic conflict between Satan and God Radical Martyrdom re examines the presentation theology and origins of Christian martyrdom up to the beginning of the Decian persecutions in the light of new perspectives on the subject

The Provenance of the Pseudepigrapha James R. Davila, 2005 This book analyzes a substantial corpus of Old Testament pseudepigrapha proposing a methodology for understanding them first in the social context of their earliest Christian manuscripts and inferring still earlier Jewish or other origins only as required by positive evidence

Jews Or Christians?

Giorgio Jossa, 2006 When was Christianity born When was it that Christianity born as a particular current within Judaism constituted itself as a religion different and separate from the Jewish religion The question has been asked and the problem has therefore been considered since the historical critical investigation of Christian origins began However the problem has become acute only in the last few decades because of the occurrence of a whole series of circumstances and of reflections that have deeply changed the historiographic understanding regarding Judaism in the first century and thus the origins of Christianity as well Traditional opinion considered the founders of Christianity to be Jesus of Nazareth and Paul of Tarsus Recent studies however affirm that a Christian religion as distinct from the Jewish religion can be spoken of only much later and that for the entire first century and for at least a part of the second century Christianity was nothing more than a sect within Judaism Dealing with the problem from an historical point of view and thus considering not only Christianity of Jewish origin but also that of gentile origin Giorgio Jossa demonstrates that the birth of a Christian identity as distinct from Jewish identity must actually be dated back to the first period of life of the community of Jesus Galilee Through the Centuries

Eric M. Meyers, 1999 This volume presents the papers given at the Second International Conference on Galilee in Antiquity held at Duke University and the North Carolina Museum of Art in 1997 The goal of the conference was to examine the significance of Galilee and its rich and diverse culture through an extended period of time Several of the papers have been revised since the conference and in light of continuing discussion Furthermore three new papers have been added to the collection for a total of 25 contributions
