Jihad in Paradise: Islam and Politics in Southeast Asia Mike Millard, 2015-01-28 Written in an accessible journalistic style Jihad in Paradise focuses on Southeast Asia's struggle to deal with Islamic extremists and terrorism at the hands of Jemah Islamiyah al Qaeda's Southeast Asian arm Although the book gives particular attention to Singapore's attempts to deal with these issues the story extends into Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines All of these countries have significant Muslim populations and recent violent events have affected the business environment tourism and the region's tradition of religious tolerance The author draws on personal interviews with experts in the field as well as key political and religious figures in Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia including Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew Minister for Muslim Affairs Jaacoub Ibrahim and expelled Muslim dissident Zulfikar Mohamad Sharif Millard examines the Bali bombing Malaysia's conservative Islamic party PAS the Malaysian province of Kelantan which is a Muslim political hotbed Abu Saayaf of the Philippines and Fateha.com and the use of the Internet He also provides a glimpse of how Singapore the region's most developed nation has engineered its society in order to impose a degree of racial and religious tolerance

The Anxieties of Mobility Johan A. Lindquist, 2009-01-01 Since the late 1960s the Indonesian land of Batam has been transformed from a sleepy fishing village to a booming frontier town where foreign investment converges with inexpensive land and labour The book moves beyond these dichotomies to explore the experiences of migrants and tourists who pass through Batam

Suicide Terrorism Ami Pedahzur, 2005 Over the last quarter of a century terrorist attacks have become a major threat to the governments and citizens of many countries This title looks at the root causes of suicide terrorism and its rapid proliferation in recent years

Labour Market Segmentation in Malaysian Services Khong How Ling, K.S. Jomo, 2009-01-01 This is the first book to look at labor in Malaysian services and also the first to use the labor market segmentation approach to study Malaysian labor As in most other countries the services sector has long accounted for more of the labor force than manufacturing in Malaysia Studies of those working in services in developing countries have tended to focus on the public sector and in recent decades the informal sector This study of workers in services also covers those in private enterprises both modern e.g. financial services and traditional e.g. transportation services This study also looks more generally at Malaysian labor market segmentation especially at ethnicity and gender Of particular importance are the impact of structural change in the economy and the interaction between these processes and the labor market on job and pay opportunities

The Routledge Handbook of Terrorism Research Alex Schmid, 2011-02-25 This major new Handbook synthesises more than two decades of scholarly research and provides a comprehensive overview of the field of terrorism studies The content of the Handbook is based on the responses to a questionnaire by nearly 100 experts from more than 20 countries as well as the specific expertise and experience of the volume editor and the various contributors Together they guide the reader through the voluminous literature on terrorism and propose a new consensus definition of terrorism based on an extensive review of existing conceptualisations The work also features a large collection of typologies and surveys a wide range of theories of terrorism Additional chapters survey terrorist databases and provide a guide to available resources on terrorism in libraries and on the Internet It also includes the most comprehensive World Directory of Extremist Terrorist and other Organizations associated with Guerrilla Warfare Political Violence Protest and Organized and Cyber Crime The Routledge Handbook of Terrorism Research will be an essential work of reference for students and researchers of terrorism and political violence security studies criminology political science and international relations and of great interest to policymakers and professionals in the field of counter terrorism

Chronologies of Modern Terrorism Barry Rubin, Judith Colp Rubin, 2015-01-28 Concise yet comprehensive this one volume reference examines the history of terrorism in the modern world including its origins and development and terrorist acts by groups and individuals from the French Revolution to today Organized thematically and regionally it outlines major developments in conflicts that involved terrorism the history of terrorist groups key aspects of counterterrorist policy and specific terrorist incidents Initial chapters explore terrorism as a social force and analyze the use of terrorism as a political tool both historically and in the contemporary world Subsequent chapters focus on different parts of the world and consider terrorism as a part of larger disputes Each chapter begins with a historical introduction and analysis of the topic or region followed by one or more chronologies that trace events within political and social contexts A glossary selected bibliography and detailed index are also included

Territoriality of Radical Islamist Groups Bohumil Doboš, Martin Riegl, Jakub Landovský, 2021-05-04 This book examines the issue of territorial control by violent jihadist groups using a comparative perspective The book argues that in many parts of the world the connection between a state and the control over territory is not as close as presented by conventional political maps and therefore it is necessary to analyse the territoriality of non state actors as well Based on a variety of case studies the work looks at different levels of connection between the violent Islamist groups and territory dividing them into non territorial semi territorial and territorial groups While the majority of the cases are located in the Middle East Islamic State Al Qaeda Al Qaeda at the Arabian Peninsula Hayat Tahrir al Sham Hamas and Hezbollah the book also draws cases from Africa groups in the western Sahel Al Shabaab and Boko Haram South Asia Taliban and East Asia Abu Sayyaf By providing in depth understanding of their respective approaches to territory the book identifies the specifics of each group s territoriality while also drawing more general conclusions This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism and political violence radical Islam Middle Eastern studies and International Relations in general

Islam and the Making of the Nation Chiara Formichi, 2012-06-30 A testament to the relevance of historical research in understanding contemporary politics Islam and the Making of the Nation guides the reader through the contingencies of the past that have led to the transformation of a nationalist leader into a separatist rebel and a martyr while at the same time shaping the public perception of political Islam and strengthening the position of the Pancasila in contemporary Indonesia

Extremist Islam Kumar Ramakrishna, 2022 Since the Bali terrorist attacks in 2002 law enforcement agencies have rigorously combatted terrorist networks in Southeast Asia yet groups motivated by violent extremist interpretations of Islam remain resilient and dangerous This book shines a light on specific beliefs behaviors and policies that impact these challenges ultimately offering cutting edge effective tools for response The book begins by challenging misguided and controversial notions that depict Islam as an inherently violent religion arguing that the theological ideological amalgam of what has been called Salafabism is the more useful lens for recognizing closed minded extremist currents The book carefully distinguishes this Salafabist extremist mindset from relatively open minded Salafabist radicalism paying due attention to nonviolent extremists and the ways they can contribute to rather than reduce violent terrorist activity in the region Using poignant case studies from Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Indonesia the book clarifies a bewildering range of terminology associated with Islamist violence and explains how imprecise and oversimplified narratives are destructive to progress and worse empowering to terrorist organizations These chapters build up to research informed policies and rhetorical recommendations for improved outcomes With its novel insights into the root causes of extremist terrorism in Southeast Asia the ineffective policies that prohibit progress and promote unrest in this region and the avenues for positive change this book offers a comprehensive strategy for fostering theologically sound yet culturally authentic counterterrorist measures that defend the complex richly textured tapestry of culture in Southeast Asia

Islamist Terrorism and Militancy in Indonesia Kumar Ramakrishna, 2014-10-19 Drawing upon insights from the natural and social sciences this book puts forth a provocative new argument that the violent Islamist threat in Indonesia today derives its stubborn resilience from being in essence a complex adaptive and self organizing system or what some specialists might even call a super organism The book challenges the popular assumption that ideology is the root cause that explains why Indonesian Islamists radicalize into violent extremism In addition it addresses why despite years of intense security force pressure seemingly disparate militant cells keep popping up like the proverbial hydra and in the apparent absence of a centralized coordinating body nevertheless appear to display an organic interconnectivity with one another. Going beyond standard ideological mantras the book argues that fresh inter disciplinary thinking is needed to cope with the constantly mutating violent Islamist challenge in Indonesia and puts forth a comprehensive strategy for doing so. It will be of interest to academics and students of terrorism religion and violence in the Southeast Asian region Choice ,2004

International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee,2014-11-25 This fully revised and updated edition of Donald E Weatherbee s widely praised text offers a clear and comprehensive introduction to international relations in contemporary Southeast Asia. The author analyzes the efforts of the Southeast Asian states to adapt collectively through the ASEAN Community building process to the challenges of traditional intraregional security issues the requirements of the international economy and the political demands of nontraditional issues such as democracy human rights and environmental degradation. Weatherbee warns that autonomy expressed in the claim to the ASEAN Community s centrality to Asia could be threatened by the strategic impact of China s rise and America s recommitment to regional strategic balance. An invaluable guide to the region this thoughtful and lucid work will be an essential text for courses on Southeast Asia and on the international relations of the Asia Pacific.

Spaces of Security and Insecurity Alan Ingram,2016-04-01 Drawing on critical geopolitics and related strands of social theory this book combines new case studies with theoretical and methodological reflections on the geographical analysis of security and insecurity. It brings together a mixture of early career and more established scholars and interprets security and the war on terror across a number of domains including international law religion migration development diaspora art nature and social movements. At a time when powerful projects of globalization and security continue to extend their reach over an increasingly wide circle of people and places the book demonstrates the relevance of critical geographical imaginations to an interrogation of the present.

Culture, Identity and Religion in Southeast Asia Alistair D. B. Cook,2009-05-27 I have read the draft of this book sent to me by the editor. After reading this draft I do think this book is valuable and timely. It discusses the contemporary issues that have worried many people in the present world: terrorism human rights Islamic radicalism and the problem of identity in the Singaporean capitalism. These issues are not discussed in the theoretical abstract way; it also doesn't mean that theories are not discussed at all but in the context of various concrete societies. The book deals with one of the above issues in Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia Aceh and Sumenep in Madura. Each issue is written by a different author that has studied the issue thoroughly. So the book is a collection of research done by specialists of these issues. Two essays on Southeast Asia: one on health and the other on human security give the general picture of this region acting as a broad introduction of the chapters that follow. Each chapter has been written professionally and the readers will learn many things from each of them. One has to read the chapter in order to really appreciate them. Therefore I really recommend that this manuscript be published as a book in order to get a large audience One shortcoming though this book deals with three countries only Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia albeit these three are the important countries in the region Other important Southeast Asian countries such as Thailand the Philippines and Burma are not discussed individually With the omission of these countries it thus can be argued whether this book can represent the Southeast Asian region Also in dealing with Indonesia the chapters talk on sub national level namely on Aceh province and a peripheral city Sumenep in the island of Madura East Java while Malaysia and Singapore are dealt on the level of nation state To conclude even with these shortcomings this book is still valuable Therefore I would like to recommend it be published Arief Budiman Foundation Professor of Indonesian Asia Institute The University of Melbourne Australia
