Eric Keenaghan and Rowena Kennedy Epstein assemble a selection of unpublished and out of print texts demonstrating the diversity brilliance and possibilities of mid twentieth century women's intellectual life and sociopolitical engagement. Although primarily known as a poet Rukeyser produced an expansive and influential body of nonfiction and critical writings. Reflective of a deeply committed thinker her accessible but philosophically complex prose including essays lectures radio scripts stories and reviews addresses issues related to racial gender and class justice war and war crimes the prison industrial complex Jewish culture and diaspora motherhood literature music cinema and translation. Many of the selected texts have been forgotten have fallen out of print or were never previously published because of conservative Cold War political and gender orthodoxies. The Muriel Rukeyser Era offers new insight into Rukeyser's radical and strikingly contemporary vision for the role of the writer especially the woman writer. This selection reveals the centrality of feminism antifascism and antiracism to her thinking and thus affirms the resonance and urgency of her work today.
