Christians in the City of Nairobi Kyama Mugambi, Mark Shaw, 2025-02-06

In this book Kyama Mugambi and Mark Shaw examine the diverse expressions of Christianity in Metropolitan Nairobi a city boasting a population of ten million which is one of the most religiously pluralistic cities in the world Founded in 1899 as little more than a train depot for the Uganda Railway Nairobi has come a long way mosques megachurches and temples serve as the backdrop for examining Christianity and public life in this vibrant city This volume covers all the major Christian traditions practiced in the city including Protestantism Orthodoxy and Catholicism The city is a laboratory of a new global pluralism and a vital centre of a new global Christian pluralism specifically Mugambi and Shaw argue that this kind of pluralism is reshaping religion everywhere in the majority world Other themes include the role of women in Christianity Kenyan Independent Churches and the Christian youth movement The book illuminates how through Christianity Africans have begun to come to terms with modern urban realities including religious pluralism hypothesising how this process could unfold in other parts of the world

The Pentecostal World

Michael Wilkinson, Jörg Haustein, 2023-04-01 The Pentecostal World provides a comprehensive and critical introduction to one of the most vibrant and diverse expressions of contemporary Christianity Unlike many books on Pentecostalism this collection of essays from all continents does not attempt to synthesize and simplify the movement's inherent diversity and fragmented dispersion Instead the global flows of Pentecostalism are firmly grounded in local histories and expressions as well as the various modes of their worldwide reproduction The book thus argues for a new understanding of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements that accounts for the simultaneous processes of pluralization and homogenization in contemporary World Christianity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors across various disciplines the volume is comprised of six parts with each offering a critical perspective on classical themes in the study of Pentecostalism Led by a programmatic introduction the thirty six chapters within these parts explore a variety of themes history and historiography conversion spirit beliefs and exorcism prosperity politics gender relations sexual identities racism development migration pilgrimage interreligious relations media ecumenism and academic research The Pentecostal World is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history political science religious studies sociology and theology The book will also be very useful for those in related fields such as culture studies black studies ethnic studies and gender studies
