John Aubrey Stone Circles Britains First Archaeologist From Avebury To Stonehenge:

John Aubrey & Stone Circles Aubrey Burl, 2010-10-15 The career of eminent archaeologist John Aubrey and his revolutionary work on stone circles Archaeology Hotspot Great Britain Donald Henson, 2015-03-12 The Archaeology Hotspots series offers reader friendly and engaging narratives of the archaeology in particular countries Written by archaeological experts with a general reader in mind each book in the series focuses on what has been found and by whom what the controversies and scandals have been ongoing projects and how it all fits into a broader view of the history of the country In Archaeology Hotspot Great Britain expert Donald Henson first chronicles the deep archaeology of a long settled region including England Wales and Scotland then explores both the famously ancient finds cave art at Creswell Crags Stonehenge and more recent and iconic historic sites and monuments such as Westminster Abbey and Ironbridge Gorge He profiles the often larger than life personalities and the previously marginalized women who have contributed to British archaeology the controversies influencing how we see the past are also highlighted Henson considers London's position in the antiquities trade and the safeguarding of heritage sites As a whole the book tells a fascinating story of Great Britain's history culture national heritage and ongoing role as a hotspot of archaeology Nigel Kneale and Horror Derek Johnston, 2025-04-01 Nigel Kneale's writing career spanned the second half of the twentieth century arguably contributing to the shape of British television drama as well as having lingering influence in science fiction and horror This collection focuses on Kneale's horror writing particularly in film and television Taking a number of different academic perspectives the chapters approach questions of medium adaptation genre and style emphasising the role that time plays in Kneale's horror and how he connected to wider cultural concerns The work covered includes more famous productions such as the Quatermass serials The Woman in Black and Nineteen Eighty Four as well as some that have received less attention including the social horror of Kneale's film adaptations of Look Back in Anger and The Entertainer lost productions such as The Chopper and Bam Pow Zap and unproduced work such as The Big Big Giggle Drawing on archival sources including Kneale's own archives alongside the productions themselves the collection portrays Kneale as a writer deeply concerned with society and social change with the potential and responsibility of the media and not as a horror writer but a writer deeply concerned with the horrific The Energies of Crop Circles Lucy Pringle, 2019-05-07 A scientific investigation of the healing and energetic effects of crop circles Shares the results of decades of research into crop circles including detailed scientific explanations and responses from an 800 person questionnaire study Explores the connections between crop circle formations cosmic energies and consciousness Features stunning full color aerial photographs of crop circles from Lucy Pringle's personal collection In 1990 while studying the energetics of a crop circle Lucy Pringle experienced a miraculous healing of a severe shoulder injury Inspired she expanded her research to investigate the physical psychological and energetic effects of these mysterious formations on people as well as on animals In this book alongside her stunning full color aerial photographs of crop circles Pringle shares the results of her research including anecdotes from an 800 person questionnaire study in combination with detailed scientific explanations by aerospace engineer and fellow crop circle researcher James Lyons The authors discuss case histories of healing from temporary respite from arthritis Reynaud s and Parkinson s to the permanent cure of muscle strains and chronic pain to emotional healing and feelings of peace and happiness They explore the relationship of crop circle formations and consciousness highlighting intention as a key factor in crop circle manifestation Pringle describes the wide range of physiological effects both positive and negative caused by the frequencies in crop circles and shows how the negative symptoms may possibly be caused by heavy use of pesticides Drawing on the science behind the formation of the Aurora Borealis or Northern Lights the authors explain how the same electromagnetic waves that produce these lights in the sky also interact with the Earth s magnetic field and ley lines to produce geometric energetic patterns in fields crop circles akin to the cymatic patterns of sand on a vibrating drum surface They reveal dowsing as a way to identify underlying sacred geometry within a field and explain how healing arises as the result of communication with the self organizing energy field of a crop circle With the first recorded appearance of a crop circle formation more than 4 000 years ago crop circles are an ancient part of Earth s and humanity s intertwined history that we are only beginning to understand

Communities and knowledge production in archaeology Julia Roberts, Kathleen Sheppard, Ulf R. Hansson, Jonathan R. Trigg, 2020-01-15 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The dynamic processes of knowledge production in archaeology and elsewhere in the humanities and social sciences are increasingly viewed as the collaborative effort of groups clusters and communities of researchers rather than the isolated work of so called instrumental actors Shifting focus from the individual scholar to the wider social contexts of her work and the dynamic creative processes she participates in this volume critically examines the importance of informal networks and conversation in the creation of knowledge about the past Engaging with theoretical approaches such as the sociology and geographies of knowledge and Actor Network Theory ANT and using examples taken from different archaeologies in Europe and North America from the seventeenth to the mid twentieth century the book caters to a wide readership ranging from students of archaeology anthropology classics and science studies to the general reader Lost Cities of Atlantis, Ancient Europe & the Mediterranean David Hatcher Childress, 1996 Atlantis The legendary lost continent comes under the close scrutiny of archaeologist David Hatcher Childress From Ireland to Turkey Morocco to Eastern Europe or remote islands of the Mediterranean and Atlantic Childress takes the reader on an astonishing quest for mankind s past Ancient technology cataclysms megalithic construction lost civilisations and devastating wars of the past are all explored in this amazing book Childress challenges the sceptics and proves that great civilisations not only existed in the past but that the modern world and its problems are reflections of the ancient world of Atlantis Secrets of the Avebury Stones Terence Meaden, 2000 Avebury less than 20 miles from its more famous neighbor Stonehenge is rich in symbols linked to pre Christian Goddess religions This book reveals the wonders of the site the largest and most complex prehistoric monument in Britain through a lavishly illustrated guided tour encompassing history archaeology spirituality and art Archaeologists Brian Fagan, 2003-04-10 Including eccentric professors and adventuring fortune hunters of old and highly trained scientists of today Archaeologists collects together biographies of more than 30 archaeologists of the past two centuries In the process Archaeologists presents an engaging portrait of how digging for treasure evolved into the respected and vital science we know today Some of the archaeologists profiled include Giovanni Belzoni the 19th century archaeologist who brought the head of Ramesses II back to England Heinrich Schliemann the modern discoverer of prehistoric Greece whose excavations included Mycenae and the ancient city of Troy Howard Carter who discovered King Tut's tomb Mary and Louis Leakey whose discovery of humanoid fossils placed human evolution's beginning in Africa From the romance of golden pharaohs and lost civilizations to computers tree ring dating and numerous other scientific methods Archaeologists is a fascinating look at the explorers of the human past Britain by the Book Oliver Tearle, 2017-11-02 What caused Dickens to leap out of bed one night and walk 30 miles from London to Kent How did a small town on the Welsh borders become the second hand bookshop capital of the world Why did a jellyfish persuade Evelyn Waugh to abandon his suicide attempt in North Wales A multitude of curious questions are answered in Britain by the Book a fascinating travelogue with a literary theme taking in unusual writers haunts and the surprising places that inspired some of our favourite fictional locations We'll learn why Thomas Hardy was buried twice how a librarian in Manchester invented the thesaurus as a means of coping with depression and why Agatha Christie was investigated by MI5 during the Second World War The map of Britain that emerges is one dotted with interesting literary stories and bookish curiosities Teatro Móvil Fernando Quesada, 2021-07-13 Taking as a starting point a design for a mobile theater made at the Architectural Association of London between 1970 and 1971 by Spanish architect Javier Navarro de Zuñiga born 1942 this book traces the architectural counterculture of that time and the relations with the alternative performing arts Architect Javier Navarro de Zuñiga 1942 graduated in 1968 at Madrid School of Architecture During the academic year 1970-1971 he travelled from Madrid to London thanks to a grant of the British Council to complete his postgraduate training at the Architectural Association There he designed a building called Mobile Theater It was a theatrical device composed of several 8 x 2.5 meters trucks carefully designed which contained all the building elements needed to shape a space for the performing arts or other collective uses The assembly time estimated for four workers was six and a half hours This project was internationally showed and published between 1971 and 1975 but was never built This book intends to release this project largely ignored by canonical historiography and to culturally place it in time and space the agitated city of London in 1971 After the convulsions of May 1968 architectural counterculture reared on very different fronts from the disciplinary rally to the guerilla positions This architectural design accounts for these events since it had a temporal development that goes beyond its mere conception as an artifact The long and frustrated process for construction 1969 to 1976 calls for a particular intra history which this books will tell William Stukeley David Boyd Haycock,2002 William Stukeley was the most renowned English antiquary of the 18th century This study discusses his life and achievements which he shared with his illustrious friend Isaac Newton and with other natural philosophers theologians and historians Artifacts Crystal B. Lake,2020-02-11 A literary history of the old broken rusty dusty and moldy stuff that people dug up in England during the long eighteenth century In the eighteenth century antiquaries wary of the biases of philosophers scientists politicians and historians used old objects to establish what they claimed was a true account of history But just what could these small fragmentary frequently unidentifiable things whose origins were unknown and whose worth or meaning was not self evident tell people about the past In Artifacts Crystal B Lake unearths the four kinds of old objects that were most frequently found and cataloged in Enlightenment era England coins manuscripts weapons and grave goods Following these prized objects as they made their way into popular culture Lake develops new interpretations of works by Joseph Addison John Dryden Horace Walpole Jonathan Swift Tobias Smollett Lord Byron and Percy Bysshe Shelley among others Rereading these authors with the artifact in mind uncovers previously unrecognized allusions that unravel works we thought we knew well In this new history of antiquarianism and by extension historiography Lake reveals that artifacts rarely acted as agents of fact as those who studied them would have claimed Instead she explains artifacts are objects unlike any other Fragmented and from another time or place artifacts invite us to fill in their shapes and complete their histories with our imaginations Composed of body as well as spirit and located in the present as well as the past artifacts inspire speculative reconstructions that frequently contradict one another Lake s history and theory of the artifact will be of particular importance to scholars of material culture and forms This fascinating book provides curious readers with new ways of evaluating the relationships that exist between texts and objects Stonehenge Aubrey Burl,2006 Authoritatively researched new insights into Stonehenge s past Britain s leading expert on stone circles turns his attention to the greatest example of them all Stonehenge Drawing on forty years of research and fieldwork archaeologist Aubrey Burl offers a seminal new view of the changing cults and evolving architecture of Stonehenge Every aspect of Stonehenge is re considered in this groundbreaking volume Burl explains for the first time how the outlying Heel Stone long predates Stonehenge itself serving as a trackway marker in the prehistoric Harroway He uncovers new evidence that the Welsh bluestones were brought to Stonehenge by glaciation rather than by man And he reveals just how far the design of Stonehenge was influenced by Breton styles and by Breton cults of the dead Meticulously researched the book sets the record straight on the matter of Stonehenge s astronomical alignments Although the existence of a sightline to the midsummer sunrise is well known the alignment and the viewing position are critically different from popular belief And until now the existence of an earlier alignment to the moon and a later one to the midwinter sunset has been little appreciated One almost unexplained puzzle remains The site of Stonehenge lies at the heart of a vast six mile wide graveyard All around it are groups of earthen long barrows the burial places of Neolithic people many of whom died more than a thousand years before Stonehenge The mystery is that before Stonehenge there was a vacuum two miles across inside that cemetery Nothing was inside Why Burl points to an answer

If Stones Could Speak Marc Aronson, 2010 Explores the mysterious monument of Stonehenge and reveals some of its secrets and history From Carnac to Callanish Aubrey Burl, Dr Aubrey Burl, 1993-01-01 This book discusses the lines of standing stones that until now have been the neglected wonders of prehistoric Europe rows that were foci of rituals in Britain Ireland and Brittany for over two thousand years Places such as Carnac in Brittany and Callanish in the Hebrides are visited by many visitors each year but before now there has been no book that seriously explains the history significance and background to these impressive sites Aubrey Burl shows that the settings vary from pairs of isolated stones in the far south west of Ireland to networks of long lines in Scotland Dartmoor and Brittany and describes the types in a sequence of architectural chapters that stress the increasing social and commercial connections between regions hundred of miles apart He uses information from a wide variety of sources excavation reports megalithic art astronomical analyses and legends to provide explanations of why the rows were erected when and what they may have been used for Stonehenge Andy Worthington, 2004 Stonehenge has always been a gathering point for different aspects of counter culture never more so than during the summer solstice celebrations This book traces the history of the celebrations from the Druid revival of the 18th century to the modern rave culture and road protest movement of more modern times In the Beginning Brian M. Fagan, 2001 For courses in Introduction to Archaeology Method and Theory in Archaeology This comprehensive narrative uses an international perspective throughout while outlining the basic principles methods and theoretical approaches of modern archaeology It gives students a basic grounding on the subject the career opportunities it offers and a look at some of the spectacular and not so well known discoveries that illuminate our past Written by a master of the genre the text emphasizes remote sensing techniques for archaeological survey addresses the study of gender and ethnic diversity from the archaeological record and assesses the importance of archaeology in the modern world A Brief History of Archaeology Nadia Durrani, Brian M. Fagan, 2021-12-30 A Brief History of Archaeology details early digs and covers the development of archaeology as a multidisciplinary science the modernization of meticulous excavation methods during the twentieth century and the important discoveries that led to new ideas about the evolution of human societies Spanning more than two thousand years of history this short account of the discipline of archaeology tells of spectacular discoveries and the colorful lives of the archaeologists who made them as well as of changing theories and current debates in the field Early research at Stonehenge in Britain burial mound excavations and the exploration of Herculaneum and Pompeii culminate in the nineteenth century debates over human antiquity and the theory of evolution The book then moves on to the discovery of the world's pre industrial civilizations in Egypt Mesopotamia and Central America the excavations at Troy and Mycenae the Royal Burials at Ur Iraq and the dramatic finding of the pharaoh Tutankhamun in 1922 The book concludes by considering recent sensational discoveries and exploring the debates over processual and post processual theory that have intrigued archaeologists in the early twenty first century The third edition updates this respected introduction to one of the science s most fascinating disciplines A Brief History of Archaeology is a vivid narrative that will engage readers who are new to the discipline drawing on the authors extensive experience in the field and classroom John Fowles Eileen Warburton,2004 Based on exclusive access to Fowles s 50 year private diary personal letters and interviews this is the first biography of the celebrated novelist of The French Lieutenant s Woman From Black Land To Fifth Sun Brian Fagan,1998-05-04 A prominent archaeologist uses the latest scientific techniques to interpret the spiritual lives of ancient people explaining how cutting edge science can take readers beyond the artifacts and into the mystical realm of shamans and spirit mediums ancestor worship and ritual sacrifice
