that affirms a traditional image of Appalachia a region of great natural beauty inhabited by a self sufficient people whose lives are notable for simplicity and harmony For this book Jean Haskell Speer has selected more than 120 representative photographs from Palmer s collection and has written a biographical and critical commentary based on extensive interviews with the photographer Palmer s photographs Speer argues are significant cultural statements that depict not so much a geographical region as a particular idea of Appalachia Southern School Journal ,1900 Along the Maysville Road Craig Thompson Friend,2005 Along the Maysville Road details the life of the trail from its beginnings as a buffalo trace through its role in populating and transforming an early American West to its decline in regional and national affairs This biography of a road thus serves as a microhistory of social and cultural change in the Early American Republic Jacket

Lawless,2015-08-05 Includes life histories of four women preachers transcriptions of sermons and analysis by Lawless of both life stories and sermons Home Voices Mark Lucas,1991-01-01 In the decades following World War I the American South was the locus of a starburst of creative activity the Southern Literary Renaissance Paradoxically the same South that produced much of the greatest American literature of this century has also long had one of the worst literacy rates in the country But the recent adult literacy movement is making important inroads and many of the South s nonreaders with the help of literacy projects springing up throughout the region are now learning to read As reward and encouragement why not put these newly literate adults in touch with the acclaimed storytelling art of their region This is the idea behind Home Voices an anthology selected especially for adult new readers The literacy students and tutors who served as editorial advisors for Home Voices demanded works uncomplicated enough in diction and sentence structure for people relatively new to reading yet rich enough in substance for people not at all new to life From James Weldon Johnson's rousing verse sermon The Creation to a harrowing excerpt from Olive Ann Burns's Cold Sassy Tree the six works in this volume bridge the gap between simplicity of language and complexity of vision The selections are diverse ranging from the quiet intensity of an excerpt from James Still's River of Earth to the broad comedy of Flannery O'Connor's The Life You Save May Be Your Own Home Voices is the sixth in the series New Books for New Readers acclaimed for a style vocabulary and sentence structure that neither talk down nor pose too much difficulty yet appeal to adult tastes
