the show's title these portraits use the etymological differences between looking and seeing as their point of departure featuring subjects whose dissociated stares seem as defiant as they are mystifying In keeping with his signature approach Marshall has painted his figures in strikingly opaque black pigments both fashioning and abstracting their presences in order to assimilate the limitations and contradictions of style subject and chronology inherent in art historical narratives written from a white Western perspective Taken all together the range of materials included in Look See constitutes a vibrant and comprehensive portrait of Marshall's original and ever evolving practice In the Tower Kerry James Marshall, 2013
