Excerpt from Key to Ray's New Higher Arithmetic

IN the preparation of the following pages the chief aim has been to serve the teacher Accordingly through a great part of the work we have merely indicated the operations required and have thus saved the space which would be demanded for the full statements of analysis useful chiefly in recitation drill The help afforded by a Key being of very little value under the fundamental rules this work does not begin with the first exercises of the new higher arithmetic In most cases after a short study of an arithmetical problem the operations themselves as indicated properly by signs will suggest the reasoning on which the solution is based In the solutions here given this has been kept in view especially where the text book has presented a formula To the teacher and to the class alike it will be advantageous to have the blackboard work written in accordance with this plan and on this account early in the Arithmetic the subject of Arithmetical Signs has been formally presented About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Key to Ray's New Arithmetics Joseph Ray, 1879      Key to Ray's New Higher Arithmetic - Scholar's Choice Edition Joseph Ray, 2015-02-18
