inegalitarian construction of egalitarian citizenship Citizen Subject is the summation of tienne Balibar s career long project to think the necessary and necessarily antagonistic relation between the categories of citizen and subject In this magnum opus the question of modernity is framed anew with special attention to the self enunciation of the subject in Descartes Locke Rousseau and Derrida the constitution of the community as we in Hegel Marx and Tolstoy and the aporia of the judgment of self and others in Foucault Freud Kelsen and Blanchot After the humanist controversy that preoccupied twentieth century philosophy Citizen Subject proposes foundations for philosophical anthropology today in terms of two contrary movements the becoming citizen of the subject and the becoming subject of the citizen The citizen subject who is constituted in the claim to a right to have rights Arendt cannot exist without an underside that contests and defies it He or she because Balibar is concerned throughout this volume with questions of sexual difference figures not only the social relation but also the discontent or the uneasiness at the heart of this relation The human can be instituted only if it betrays itself by upholding anthropological differences that impose normality and identity as conditions of belonging to the community The violence of civil bourgeois universality Balibar argues is greater and less legitimate therefore less stable than that of theological or cosmological universality Right is thus founded on insubordination and emancipation derives its force from otherness Ultimately Citizen Subject offers a revolutionary rewriting of the dialectic of universality and differences in the bourgeois epoch revealing in the relationship between the common and the universal a political gap at the heart of the universal itself

The Politics of Dialogue Ranabir Samaddar, 2017-07-05 Offering a detailed analysis of post colonial South Asia The Politics of Dialogue discusses the creation and impact of borders and the pervasive tension between the new nations Neither all out war nor complete peace this fragile condition makes political leaders and strategists feel claustrophobic a war produces an end result but peace allows the rulers to carry out their policies for governing along their preferred path of development The book shows how cartographic communal and political lines are not only dividing countries but that they are being replicated within countries creating new visible and invisible internal frontiers It argues that in a situation where geopolitics constrains democracy the political class becomes incapable of coping with the tension between the inside outside eg democracy appears as an internal problem and geopolitics appears as a problem related to the outside
