From Knowledge to Narrative Lisa C. Roberts, 2014-07-15 From Knowledge to Narrative shows that museum educators professionals responsible for making collections intelligible to viewers have become central figures in shaping exhibits Challenging the traditional scholarly presentation of objects educators argue that rather than transmitting knowledge museums displays should construct narratives that are determined as much by what is meaningful to visitors as by what curators intend Lisa C Roberts discusses museum education in relation to entertainment as a tool of empowerment as a shaper of experience and as an ethical responsibility The book argues for an expanded role for museum education based less on explaining objects than on interpreting narratives

Fake Masterpieces Felicity Moreau, 2025-02-25 Fake Masterpieces explores the captivating and deceptive world of art forgery revealing how skilled counterfeiters exploit vulnerabilities within the art market It exposes the profound consequences that ripple through museums and private collections challenging our understanding of authenticity The book argues that art forgery is more than just a crime it's a complex phenomenon that exposes the subjective nature of art appreciation For instance the story of Han van Meegeren who famously fooled the Nazis with his Vermeers highlights how even the most discerning eyes can be deceived The book begins by introducing core concepts like authentication and the art market then progresses through various case studies A significant portion is dedicated to the Beltracchi scandal a contemporary case involving sophisticated techniques and a vast network By examining the techniques forgers use to replicate master artists and the failures of authentication the book reveals weaknesses in a system built on connoisseurship and scientific analysis It ultimately proposes ways to improve authentication methods and encourages a more critical approach to art appreciation
