Canadian identity and how to understand Canadian media politically is the subject of a chapter on textual analysis Two extensive chapters follow on the media s influence and effects on politics In addition to standard topics on politics and the media this new edition offers much more an examination of the media on the politics of gender and aboriginal peoples the micro politics of the media workplace and an exploration of important media related considerations Throughout reference is made to relevant and compelling issues placed within the context of media theory Doing Politics Jacqui Briggs, 2014-11-27 Aimed at politics students in their final year of secondary education or beginning their degrees this highly readable book is the ideal introduction to politics Doing Politics is a detailed guide to both the study and the activity of politics which explores why we study politics what is involved in a politics degree and the skills and mindset that are needed to tackle the subject Key questions are answered including Just what is politics and how does it affect us Why does politics and why do politicians get a bad press How do we study non traditional forms of politics Assuming no prior knowledge this lively and engaging guide is the perfect introduction to the academic study of politics Ukraine's Euromaidan David R. Marples, Frederick V. Mills, 2014-04-01 The papers presented in this volume analyze the civil uprising known as Euromaidan that began in central Kyiv in late November 2013 when the Ukrainian president Viktor Yanukovych opted not to sign an Association Agreement with the European Union and continued over the following months The topics include the motivations and expectations of protesters organized crime nationalism gender issues mass media the Russian language and the impact of Euromaidan on Ukrainian politics as well as on the EU Russia and Belarus An epilogue to the book looks at the aftermath including the Russian annexation of Crimea and the creation of breakaway republics in the east leading to full scale conflict The goal of the book is less to offer a definitive account than one that represents a variety of aspects of a mass movement that captivated world attention and led to the downfall of the Yanukovych presidency Political Communication in Africa Ayo Olukotun, Sharon Adetutu Omotoso, 2017-02-13 This book offers a comprehensive account of the nature and development of political communication in Africa In light of the growing number of African states now turning towards democratic rule as well as the growing utilization of information technologies in Africa the contributors examine topics such as the role of social media in politics strategic political communication political philosophy and political communication Habermas in Africa gender and political communication image dilemma in Africa and issues in political communication research in Africa and identify the frontiers for future research on political communication in Africa Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes Media Reform Monroe E.

Price, Beata Rozumilowicz, Stefaan G. Verhulst, 2003-09-02 Media Reform examines the relationship between the media and the development of democracy Detailed worldwide case studies illustrate discussions on liberalisation of media technological developments and new trends Disinformation and Manipulation in Digital Media Eileen Culloty, Jane Suiter, 2021-02-07 Drawing on research from multiple disciplines and international case studies this book provides a comprehensive and up to date understanding of online disinformation and its potential countermeasures Disinformation and Manipulation in Digital Media presents a model of the disinformation process which incorporates four cross cutting dimensions or themes bad actors platforms audiences and countermeasures The dynamics of each dimension are analysed alongside a diverse range of international case studies drawn from different information domains including politics health and society In elucidating the interrelationship between the four dimensions of online disinformation and their manifestation in different international contexts the book demonstrates that online disinformation is a complex problem with multiple overlapping causes and no easy solutions The book s conclusion contextualises the problem of disinformation within broader social and political trends and discusses the relevance of radical innovations in democratic participation to counteract the post truth environment This up to date and thorough analysis of the disinformation landscape will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of journalism communications politics and policy as well as policymakers technologists and media practitioners This research received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 825227 American Government, Second Edition Timothy O.
