

Political Parties, Interest Groups and Mass Media Study Guide:

1. What are the three main functions of political parties?

They nominate candidates for office, help elect candidates of that party by mobilizing supporters, and develop policy positions for government.

2. What are the differences between major parties and minor parties?

Major parties have widespread support, dominate elections and hold political offices. Minor parties have little electoral success and hold few political offices.

3. Define pluralism and describe how interest groups fit into a pluralistic system.

Pluralism refers to a political system with many diverse groups competing for influence. Interest groups are part of a pluralistic system where they represent various interests and compete for influence.

4. What methods do interest groups use to influence the government?

Lobbying legislators, contributing to campaigns, mobilizing members to contact officials, filing lawsuits, participating in protests and demonstrations.

5. Identify the key components of the media system model of mass media.

Gatekeeping, agenda-setting, and framing.

6. How does gatekeeping by the media work?

Media outlets choose which stories to cover and how much attention to give them, effectively controlling information that reaches the public.

7. What impact does agenda-setting by the media have?

By influencing what the public thinks about, the media can indirectly influence how the public thinks about issues.

8. Describe how framing by the media works.

The media can frame issues and events in specific ways that influence how the public interprets and understands them.

9. What factors influence the orientation and content of mass media coverage?

Ownership, advertisements, regulators, journalists' own values and backgrounds.

10. How have blogs, social media, and new media changed the role of traditional media?

They have expanded the range of options and platforms for news and political information, making it easier for alternative voices to be heard.

11. Describe the diffusion of power model of interest groups.

It argues that interest groups act as a check on government power by dispersing and diffusing power across multiple organized groups within society.
