The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim, 2000 Albert Wertheim's study of Fugard's plays is both extremely insightful and beautifully written a book that held my attention from beginning to end It was a pleasure to read Wertheim succeeds in communicating the greatness of Fugard as a playwright actor and director He also conveys well what Fugard has learned from other plays and dramatists Thus he places Fugard's works not so much in a South African context as in a theatrical context He also illuminates his interpretations with the help of Fugard's manuscripts previously available only in South Africa This book is aimed not only at teachers students scholars and performers of Fugard but also at the person who simply loves going to see a Fugard play at the theatre Nancy Topping Bazin Eminent Scholar and Professor Emeritus Old Dominion University Considered one of the most brilliant powerful and theatrically astute of modern dramatists South African playwright Athol Fugard is best known for

The Blood Knot MASTER HAROLD and the boys A Lesson from Aloes and Sizwe Bansi Is Dead The energy and poignancy of Fugard s work have their origins in the institutionalized racism of his native South Africa and more recently in the issues facing a new South Africa after apartheid In The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard Albert Wertheim analyzes the form and content of Fugard s dramas showing that they are more than a dramatic chronicle of South African life and racial problems Beginning with the specifics of his homeland Fugard s plays reach out to engage more far reaching issues of human relationships race and racism and the power of art to evoke change The Dramatic Art of Athol Fugard demonstrates how Fugard s plays enable us to see that what is performed on stage can also be performed in society and in our lives how inverting Shakespeare Athol Fugard makes his stage the world AF Press Clips ,1982-05 AF Press Clips United States Department of State. Bureau of African Affairs,1982 Echoes Down the Corridor International Association for the Study of Anglo-Irish Literature. Conference,2007 Essays on contemporary Irish theatre Censorship Derek Jones,2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression Master Harold and the Boys Theatre Passe Muraille Archives (University of Guelph),Grand Theatre Collection (University of Guelph),Scott McKowen Collection,Athol Fugard,1987 The Critics' Canon Richard Hudson Palmer,1988-10-19 Palmer clearly states that his purpose is to explain 1the ways of critics to theatre practitioners the ways of theatre to inexperienced reviewers and the dynamic convergence of theatre and critic to anyone interested in theatre The work is a well written primer for writers and it will be useful primarily to performers who object to unfavorable criticism without understanding the nature and purpose of reviewing Accessible to general readers and undergraduates Choice Palmer begins with an examination of the theatrical review as a medium for informing and entertaining theatregoers documenting events of artistic of community importance and supporting theatre through critical evaluation and publicity He next comments on how journalistic pressures affect reviewers Citing brief examples from hundreds of reviews the author devotes a chapter to each of the elements that needs to be covered in a review including performers script direction music and choreography together with stage and lighting design and other physical aspects of the production The final chapter develops criteria for assessing the strengths and weaknesses of a theatrical review based on aesthetic standards the cultural tastes of theatregoers and the interests of the community Palmer s experience as both a theatre professional and a journalist gives him an intimate understanding of the antagonism that often develops between reviewers and those who feel themselves to be the target of irresponsible criticism His book provides a clear perspective on theatrical matters and guidelines that will help to improve standards of reviewing and create an appreciation of the essential relationship between the theatre and its critics The International Who's who ,1985 TLA Film, Video, and DVD Guide 2002-2003 David Bleiler,2001-11-03 A film video and DVD guide for the true lover of the cinema this volume focuses on independent and international films as well as the best of the mainstream 450 photos throughout Voices of Justice and Reason Geoffrey V. Davis,2021-10-25 Over the past fifty years transformations of great moment have taken place in South Africa Apartheid and the subsequent transition to a democratic non racial society in particular have exercised a profound effect on the practice of literature This study traces the development of literature under apartheid then seeks to identify the ways in which writers and theatre practitioners are now facing the challenges of a new social order The main focus is on the work of black writers prime among them Matsemela Manaka Mtutuzeli Matshoba and Richard Rive who as politically committed members of the oppressed majority bore witness to the black experience through their writing Despite the draconian censorship system they were able to address the social problems caused by racial discrimination in all areas of life particularly through forced removals the migrant labour system and the creation of the homelands Their writing may be read both as a comprehensive record of everyday life under apartheid and as an alternative cultural history of South Africa Particular attention is paid to theatre as a barometer of social change in South Africa The concluding chapters consider how in the current period of transition writers and arts institutions have set about reassessing their priorities redefining their function and seeking new aesthetic directions in taking up the challenge of imagining a new society Major 20th-century Writers ,1991 Merriam-Webster's Encyclopedia of Literature Merriam-Webster, Inc,1995 Describes authors works and literary terms from all eras and all parts of the world Orange Coast Magazine ,1986-04 Orange Coast Magazine is the oldest continuously published lifestyle magazine in the region bringing together Orange County s most affluent coastal communities through smart fun and timely editorial content as well as compelling photographs and design Each issue features an award winning blend of celebrity and newsmaker profiles service journalism and authoritative articles on dining fashion home design and travel As Orange County s only paid subscription lifestyle magazine with circulation figures guaranteed by the Audit Bureau of Circulation Orange Coast is the definitive guidebook into the county s luxe lifestyle
