Loss And Hope Global Interreligious And Interdisciplinary Perspectives:

Loss and Hope Peter Admirand, 2014-05-22 What are the spiritual consequences of abuse and trauma Where is God How and why does such senseless suffering occur What is the relationship between loss and hope What are the benefits of examining loss and hope from an interreligious focus These are some of the questions addressed in this volume written by leading international scholars and which also includes contributions by those who have suffered survivors of genocide and state terror Case studies of loss and hope from around the world are discussed including from the United States Ireland Sri Lanka India Iran Iraq Argentina China and Chile Religions examined include Buddhism Islam Christianity Judaism and Hinduism Three interconnected lenses are used to explore new perspectives on loss and hope survivors and victims testimony interfaith studies and ethical approaches The book highlights the need for responses to atrocity that transcend differences within gender class religion race and ethnicity The authors stress the need for partnership and dialogue from an interfaith perspective and while neither hiding nor unduly minimizing the extent of losses in the world attempt to establish an ethics of hope in the face of destabilizing losses in the realms of human rights and post conflict resolution Loss and Hope is the first book to bring together this high level and diversity of scholars living and working all over the world from different faith cultural and ethnic backgrounds examining the universal themes of loss and hope A World United or a World

Exploited? Peter Price, 2014-09-01 The processes of globalisation are reshaping our world dramatically and rapidly The great issues of our day emphasise that we are all in this together startling inequalities pressures on the environment continuing hunger and poverty climate change economic integration mass migrations instant communications and recurring armed conflicts The Future of Interfaith Dialogue Yazeed Said, Yazid Said, Lejla Demiri, 2018-08-30 Provides insightful discussions of the exegetic and discursive process begun by the open letter A Common Word Between Us and You

Destruction, Ethics, and Intergalactic Love Peter Admirand, 2022-12-30 Destruction Ethics and Intergalactic Love Exploring Y The Last Man and Saga offers a creative and accessible exploration of the two comic book series examining themes like nonviolence issues of gender and war heroes and moral failures forgiveness and seeking justice and the importance of diversity and religious pluralism Through close interdisciplinary reading and personal narratives the author delves into the complex worlds of Y and Saga in search of an ethics meaning and a path resonant with real world struggles Reading these works side by side the analysis draws parallels and seeks common themes around the four central ideas of seeking and making meaning in a meaningless world love and parenting through oppression and grief peacefulness when surrounded by violence and the perils and hopes of diversity and communion This timely and thoughtful study will resonate with scholars and students of comic studies media and cultural studies philosophy theology literature psychology and popular culture studies Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume s contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century

The Confluence of Law and Religion Frank Cranmer, Mark Hill QC, Celia Kenny, Russell Sandberg, 2016-04-21 Since the early 1990s politicians policymakers the media and academics have increasingly focused on religion noting the significant increase in the number of cases involving religion As a result law and religion has become a specific area of study The work of Professor Norman Doe at Cardiff University has served as a catalyst for this change especially through the creation of the LLM in Canon Law in 1991 the first degree of its type since the time of the Reformation and the Centre for Law and Religion in 1998 the first of its kind in the UK Published to mark the twenty fifth anniversary of the LLM in Canon Law and to pay tribute to Professor Doe s achievements so far this volume reflects upon the interdisciplinary development of law and religion

Religion, Torture and the Liberation of God Mario I Aguilar, 2015-04-17 If God can be used by the powerful to justify violence in the name of order he can also be used by the weak to illuminate the position of the victims of political conflict Religion Torture and the Liberation of God explores the theological possibilities of a God who is a prisoner and a victim of torture The book relocates God to the horrors of the military abuse of human rights in Chile and the systematic rape of women in the Democratic Republic of Congo Aguilar argues that this theological exercise offers us new ways of understanding the abuse of power whether it be the clerical abuse of children violence against women or homophobia This examination of torture and rape becomes through a theology of praxis and compliance an examination of solidarity love and affection The book concludes with an exploration of the possibilities of a tortured God who liberates

Turned Inside Out Steven Shankman, 2017-05-15 In Turned Inside Out Reading the Russian Novel in Prison Steven Shankman reflects on his remarkable experience teaching texts by Fyodor Dostoevsky Vasily Grossman and Emmanuel Levinas in prison to a mix of university students and inmates These persecuted writers Shankman argues that Dostoevsky s and Levinas s experiences of incarceration were formative describe ethical obligation as an experience of being turned inside out by the face to face encounter Shankman relates this experience of being turned inside out to the very significance of the word God to Dostoevsky s tormented struggles with religious faith to Vasily Grossman s understanding of his Jewishness in his great novel Life and Fate and to the interpersonal encounters the author has witnessed reading these texts with his students in the prison environment Turned Inside Out will appeal to readers with interests in the classic novels of Russian literature in prisons and pedagogy or in Levinas and phenomenology At a time when the humanities are struggling to justify the centrality of their mission in today s colleges and universities Steven Shankman by example makes an undeniably powerful case for the transformative power of reading great texts

The

Mystery of Suffering and the Meaning of God Anson Hugh Laytner, 2019-07-12 The Mystery of Suffering and the Meaning of God is a book written by a skeptical but spiritual person for people who struggle with the subjects of God divine providence prayer and related issues people who are looking for honest and thoughtful and sometimes humorous theological reflections but no easy answers A work of creative theology fifteen years in the making The Mystery of Suffering and the Meaning of God deals primarily with the issue of suffering starting with the book of Job and addresses the subject of theodicy before going on to explore related topics of the role of prayer God concepts the meaning of revelation and how we can best live together Laytner intersperses these penetrating theological reflections with pertinent episodes from his life starting with the personal tragedies that sparked this book Trained as a liberal rabbi Laytner riffs on Jewish themes to offer a universal yet personal response to each of the challenges he discusses His thesis is this If you are troubled by the issue of suffering and wonder about God's presence or lack thereof in the world and you find no solace in any of the traditional theodicies then change your conception of God and God's involvement in the world Problem solved Choosing Life after Tragedy Anson Hugh Laytner, 2023-09-08 A wave of disease and death in his immediate family led Rabbi Anson Laytner to question much of what he had learned about the meaning of suffering the value of petitionary prayer and the role of God in human life As he struggled to deal with his grief and doubts he gradually found a way forward His spiritual healing process took him from intense grief to a renewed appreciation of life and resulted in this book a work of creative theology some eighteen years in the making Choosing Life After Tragedy is written for people who struggle with the subjects of suffering divine providence God and prayer people who are looking for honest thoughtful provocative and occasionally humorous theological reflections but no easy answers Laytner intersperses his penetrating theological reflections with pertinent episodes from his life because for him theology is personal and experience based Trained as a liberal rabbi Laytner riffs on Jewish themes to offer a universal message of hope in the face of suffering and loss and of mutual support based on humanity's various teachings of lovingkindness This book will challenge you it will sometimes amuse you but you will not remain unmoved Religion and Legal Pluralism Russell Sandberg, 2016-03-09 In recent years there have been a number of concerns about the recognition of religious laws and the existence of religious courts and tribunals There has also been the growing literature on legal pluralism which seeks to understand how more than one legal system can and should exist within one social space However whilst a number of important theoretical works concerning legal pluralism in the context of cultural rights have been published little has been published specifically on religion Religion and Legal Pluralism explores the extent to which religious laws are already recognised by the state and the extent to which religious legal systems such as Sharia law should be accommodated Humbling Faith Peter Admirand, 2019-03-22 This is a book hoping to embolden doubt and sharpen unanswerable questions all in the context of loving the self and one another Ridiculously it believes the world can be healed through such a hope It is especially addressed to those allergic to the word faith and others who feel confident and proud in the faith they profess or system of thought they live by Humbling Faith helps us see how our beliefs or non beliefs our belongings and identities often remain flawed myopic self absorbed unredeemed The hope is that such awareness of our brokenness can fuel greater ethical partnerships and dialogue promoting peace from our recognized need for one another Humbling Faith is not only a resource towards humbling other faiths but most importantly your own Testimony and Trauma Cristina Santos,Adriana Spahr,Tracy Crowe Morey,2019-03-19 This book offers a collection of reflective essays on current testimonial production by researchers and practitioners working in multifaceted fields such as art and film performance public memorialization scriptotherapy and fictional and non fictional testimony The inter disciplinary approach to the question of testimony offers a current account of testimony s diversity in the twenty first century as well as its relevance within the fields of art storytelling trauma and activism The range of topics engage with questions of genre and modes of representation ethical and political concerns of testimony and the flaws and limitations of testimonial production giving testament to some of the ethical concerns of our present age Contributors are Alison Atkinson Phillips Olga Bezhanova Melissa Burchard Mateusz Chaberski Candace Couse Tracy Crowe Morey Marwa Sayed Hanafy Rachel Joy Emma Kelly Timothy Long Elizabeth Matheson Antonio Prado del Santo Christine Ramsay Cristina Santos and Adriana Spahr
