5 Pack Trade Books - Lost on a Mountain in Maine Donn Fendler, 2011 Nature Shock Jon T. Coleman, 2020-08-12 An award winning environmental historian explores American history through wrenching tragic and sometimes humorous stories of getting lost The human species has a propensity for getting lost The American people inhabiting a mental landscape shaped by their attempts to plant roots and to break free are no exception In this engaging book environmental historian Jon Coleman bypasses the trailblazers so often described in American history to follow instead the strays and drifters who went missing From Hernando de Soto's failed quest for riches in the American southeast to the recent trend of getting lost as a therapeutic escape from modernity this book details a unique history of location and movement as well as the confrontations that occur when our physical and mental conceptions of space become disjointed Whether we get lost in the woods the plains or the digital grid Coleman argues that getting lost allows us to see wilderness anew and connect with generations across five centuries to discover a surprising and edgy American identity What Mountains Teach Michael Herrick, 2022 What Mountains Teach is an inspirational novel about the midlife crisis of a man questioning his commitment to love Tired of his life and his wife because they've grown apart and his solitary nature further challenged by the difficulty of relating to his two daughters he escapes to the mountains where he was once happy He reads an Appalachian Trail journal of a young man named Strider who found the ideal woman to love and from encounters with various women along the way learned to make a commitment to her Now out of shape and unhappy disillusioned and cynical Walt wants to be left alone with his thoughts As he walks a thousand miles he has various experiences with hikers who alternately bother him and enlighten him Thoughtfully plunging into life changing experiences he discovers in the mountains the surprising difference between the woman he wanted to love and the woman he needs to love Down East, 2001-08
