Harvard's Classics Collection Complete 71 Volumes is a monumental anthology that serves as a comprehensive survey of the foundational texts and figures that have shaped Western literature and thought. This collection spans millennia encompassing works from ancient Greece to the Enlightenment and up through the 19th century showcasing a diverse range of literary styles including poetry, philosophy, fiction, and scientific discourse. The inclusion of seminal works by figures such as Dante Alighieri, William Shakespeare, Plato, and Charles Darwin amongst others highlights the anthology's breadth and depth, offering readers an unparalleled insight into the various currents that have influenced Western cultural and intellectual history. The contributing authors and editors of this collection are each luminary in their own right, having left indelible marks on their respective fields. This anthology not only collates works by philosophers, scientists, and literary giants but also orchestrates a dialogue among them, offering a unique multidisciplinary perspective. The collection navigates through Renaissance humanism, the Enlightenment's valorization of reason, and the Romantic eras' emphasis on individual emotion and natural beauty, painting a rich historical and cultural panorama. Through their collective works, this anthology encapsulates the essence of human thought and its evolution over the centuries. Harvard's Classics Collection Complete 71 Volumes is an essential resource for those looking to immerse themselves in the rich tapestry of human knowledge and creativity. Whether for scholarly research, educational pursuits, or personal enrichment, this collection offers an unmatched opportunity to engage with the texts that have served as cornerstones of Western culture. Readers are invited to explore this treasure trove of human experience, thought, and expression, which continues to enlighten, instruct, and inspire generations.

Black Womanist Ethics Katie G. Cannon, 2006-02-09 This study articulates the distinctive moral character of the Afro American women's community. Beginning with a reconstructive history of the Afro American woman's situation in America, the work next traces the emergence of the Black woman's literary tradition and explains its importance in expressing the moral wisdom of Black women. The life and work of Zora Neale Hurston is examined in detail for her unique contributions to the moral tradition of the Afro American woman. A final chapter initiates a promising exchange between the works of Hurston and those of Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King Jr. A pioneering and multi-dimensional work, Black Womanist Ethics is at once a study in ethics, gender, and race.

Heart to Heart June Theresa Nichols, 2013-06-28 Heart to Heart June daily devotionals are designed to bring you encouragement in your daily walk with Christ. The love letter from God flows after Theresa spends time praying and meditating on God's Word. The words flow out from her heart after seeking God's heart and the two become one as the words form in a love letter from God to you with a scriptural reference. The monthly books are excerpts from the To Know Me series of Love Letters from God. Volume 6 Theresa displays a variety of books to inspire and encourage you in the ups and downs of life. It rains on the just and the unjust. So if you are feeling up, these Letters will add to your joy; if you are feeling down, these words will lift you up and help you face the day with hope for nothing stays the same. This too shall pass. www.threesheep.com
