Girl at the End of the World Elizabeth Esther, 2014-03-18 I was raised in a homegrown fundamentalist Christian group which is just a shorthand way of saying I'm classically trained in apocalyptic stockpiling street preaching and the King James Version of the Bible I know hundreds of obscure nineteenth century hymns by heart and have such razor sharp modesty vision that I can spot a miniskirt a mile away Verily verily I say unto thee none of these highly specialized skills ever got me a job but at least I'm all set for the end of the world Selah A story of mind control the Apocalypse and modest attire Elizabeth Esther grew up in love with Jesus but in fear of daily spankings to break her will Trained in her family run church to confess sins real and imagined she knew her parents loved her and God probably hated her Not until she was grown and married did she find the courage to attempt the unthinkable To leave In her memoir readers will recognize questions every believer faces When is spiritual zeal a gift and when is it a trap What happens when a pastor holds unchecked sway over his followers And how can we leave behind the harm inflicted in the name of God without losing God in the process By turns hilarious and heartbreaking Girl at the End of the World is a story of the lingering effects of spiritual abuse and the growing hope that God can still be good when His people fail Includes reading group discussion guide and interview with the author The Cookie Dough Lover's
