The Torch Richard Mende, 2016-09-24 The Torch is an attempt to spread the holy name by means of the brihat mrdrunga It has as one priority to be dramatically engaging throughout and thus reach the widest possible audience The Torch is a spiritual Cinderella story Terry the heroine is in the beginning on the lowest end of the scale both materially and spiritually She is an alcoholic a petty thief an occasional prostitute and lives with an abusive boyfriend But her greatest difficulty is that she is a pyromaniac taking joy in lighting fires She has her first fleeting exposure to Krishna consciousness when a harinam party passes by on the street Between her petty thievery to get money for drinks and her bold practice of arson Terry is eventually jailed A devotee with a prison ministry comes to visit her and introduces her to the practice of constant chanting of the holy name In her low and humble state of mind she decides to try and begins to feel good results from within When she is released she first visits her mother who is impoverished and also an alcoholic After some months we see that Terry has been transformed She has a beautiful spiritual glow She is now having a heart to heart talk with a senior devotee in the temple Terrys transformation is ready for the big test She is now ready for her debutante launching going to a high society party where she is an instant hit She even has a chance to sing and her voice has been transformed so there is no longer a rasp but instead a beautiful sound But Terry is also concerned with the low end of the social scale and goes back into the prison she herself had been in She impresses the prisoners but one of them expresses doubts that she could have been a part time prostitute because now Terry looks so high class Terry begins giving the names of some of her customers on the Lower East Side and also giving their special eccentricities It makes a believer of all the prisoners But when she comes down she falls on the ground and prays Lord please take away these mystic powers My only wish is to serve you with love In the end she goes into the woods very old and very infirm She slowly dies chanting the holy name After her fall animals appear from the forest to wish her good bye
