Love's Redeeming Work Geoffrey Rowell, Kenneth Stevenson, Rowan Williams, 2003 There is a rich vein of writing within Anglican tradition that has helped to form the theology and spirituality of the contemporary church For many readers much of this material remains unfamiliar and is often difficult to access Love s Redeeming Work draws together the works of major writers from the sixteenth century to the present day who have contributed to this development Each selected writer is introduced with a brief biography which gives background information about the author and highlights the relationships that existed with others from the same period This will enable the reader to set the writings in their proper context enhancing understanding of the material The selections then follow In some instances these may be familiar but other examples will introduce fresh ideas for every reader Each writer s selection is concluded with a list of source texts which can encourage readers to explore in more depth those areas which intrigue and excite them Love s Redeeming Work traces a path that has enabled Anglicanism in particular and the wider church as well to develop an ever deepening awareness of the need for a spiritual depth in the Christian life informed by a better knowledge of tradition In exploring this material it is the compilers hope that readers will find new riches that will encourage and sustain their own quest for holiness Love's Redeeming the difficult word perfection has been part of Christian spirituality through the centuries The Fathers spoke of it and Augustine particularly contributed his penetrating analysis of human motivation in terms of love Medieval theologians such as Bernard and Thomas Aquinas developed the tradition and wrote of levels or degrees of perfection in love However the doctrine has not fared so well among Protestants John Wesley was the one major Protestant leader who tried to blend this ancient tradition of Christian perfection with the Reformation proclamation of justification by grace through faith This book seeks to develop Wesley s synthesis of patristic and Reformation theology in order to consider how Christian perfection can be expressed in a more nuanced way in today s culture Noble examines what basis may be found for Wesley s understanding of sanctification in the central doctrines of the church particularly the atonement the doctrine of Christ and the most comprehensive of all Christian doctrines the doctrine of the Holy Trinity What he sets out is a fully trinitarian theology of holiness

Working with Words Stanley Hauerwas,2011-02-16 The crucial challenge for theology is that when it is read the reader thinks This is true Recognizing claims that are true enables readers to identify an honest expression of life s complexities The trick is to show that theological claims the words that must be used to speak of God are necessary if the theologian is to speak honestly of the complexities of life The worst betrayal of the task of theology comes when the theologian fears that the words he or she must use are not necessary This new collection of essays lectures and sermons by Stanley Hauerwas is focused on the central challenge risk and difficulty of this necessity working with words about God The task of theology is to help us do things with words God is not a word peculiar to theology but if God is a word to be properly used by Christians the word must be disciplined by Christian practice It should therefore not be surprising that like any word we must learn how to say God
