Lincoln Memorial, The Kevin S. Schindler and Brian Anderson,2021 The Lincoln Memorial in Washington DC is a monument to the nation s 16th president a commemoration of the country s post Civil War reunification and a setting for national events and quiet visits Demands for a national memorial to Abraham Lincoln began shortly after his 1865 assassination but produced nothing substantial until the early 20th century Elevation of Lincoln to legendary status and an extended debate over location and design finally led

Congress in 1913 to approve a memorial at the west end of the National Mall Construction took another eight years Since its dedication in 1922 the Lincoln Memorial has hosted civil rights demonstrations presidential events national celebrations and day and night visits by millions of people who come to reflect upon one of the most consequential leaders in American history Kevin S Schindler is a historian at Lowell Observatory in Flagstaff Arizona and has written six books about science and history Brian Anderson is a Washington DC lawyer and Ford s Theatre Society trustee who previously wrote a book about the history of Ford s Theatre Drawing upon Washington area museums and research libraries Schindler and Anderson have assembled a rich collection of historical images to tell the fascinating story of this American landmark Landmarks in African American History Michael V. Uschan,2012-12-07 This compelling volume describes physical landmarks in African American history and discusses the history associated with those places The book is organized around thematic chapters that take readers on a virtual tour of landmarks associated with the theme while also describing the people and events that inspired the landmarks Thematic chapters include The Slavery Era African Americans Resist Slavery The Civil War Education for Blacks The Civil Rights Movement and African American Achievers Funding the Natural Resource Challenge, a Report to Congress, Fiscal Year ... United States. National Park Service, The National Parks, Index ,2012 Index , The Official Price Guide to Collectible Rock Records Randal C. Hill,1980 The Presidents United States. National Park Service,1976 The National Parks ,2009 Generally referred to as the red book the 2005 2007 edition of the National Park System NPS Index provides an alphabetical list of all 388 units of the National Park System as well as affiliated areas regional offices statistical information maps and NPS nomenclature Included in the Index are also designated Wilderness Areas National Heritage Areas National Trail Systems and National Wild and Scenic River Systems The National Parks Index 2005 2007 is part of the National Park Handbook series National Park Handbooks support management programs and promote understanding and enjoyment of the 388 parks in the National Park System The National Park Service cares for these special places saved by the American people so that all may enjoy our heritage Index of the National Park System and Affiliated Areas , The Parks Belong to the People Joe Weber,Selima Sultana,2024-04 In examining the 424 units of the U S national park system geographers Joe Weber and Selima Sultana focus attention on the historical geography of the system as well as its present distribution covering the diversity of places under the control of the National Park Service NPS This includes the famous national parks such as the Grand Canyon Yellowstone and Yosemite and the lesser known national monuments memorials lakeshores seashores rivers recreation areas preserves reserves parkways historic sites historic parks and a range of battlefields as well as more than twenty additional sites not fitting into any of these categories such as the White House The geographic view of The Parks Belong to the People sets it apart from others that have taken a solely historical approach Where parks are located what they are near where their visitors come from and how land use and activities are organized within parks are some of the fundamental issues discussed The majority of units in the NPS are devoted to recreation areas or historic sites such as battlefields archaeological sites or sites devoted to a specific person and this is reflected in the authors approach What we think of as a national park has changed over the years and will continue to change Weber and Sultana emphasize changing social and political environments in which NPS units were created and the roles they serve such as protecting scenery providing wildlife habitats preserving history and serving as scientific laboratories and places for outdoor recreation The authors also focus on parks as public facilities and sites of economic activities National parks were created by people for people to enjoy at great cost and with great benefit They cannot be understood without taking this human context into account National Park Service Budget Management United States. Congress. House. Committee on Natural Resources. Subcommittee on National Parks, Forests, and Public Lands,1993 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche
