literature Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa Dallen J. Timothy, 2023-03-13 Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa However despite its salience there has not been a systematic examination of Africa's heritage resources markets policies practices successes and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent's immense heritage value This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage mobilities globalization colonialism and indigeneity conflict identity and nation building connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists most being from Africa offering a truly African perspective The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism cultural studies heritage studies geography anthropology sociology history and global studies The Heart of an Ironman South Africa Elzabe Boshoff, Marieta Van Der Merwe, Marietjie Van der Merwe, 2012 This book tells the tale of the heartache that eventually resulted in participants overcoming pain finally accepting themselves making life changing decisions becoming an athlete though possibly not yet an Ironman or realizing a lifetime dream It would also feature stories from the SA Triathlon Development team physically disabled I Heart Africa Project Nikki Lockwood, 2022-03-10 Meet Africa a vast and beautiful continent Africa is the heart of the world the cradle of life a continent teeming with breath taking landscapes cultures histories wildlife adversities and people Where tradition and culture converge and are deeply threaded throughout modern day Africa In the pages of I Heart Africa Project meet the incredible individuals whose souls have been touched by Africa from residents wildlife heroes conservationists documentary hosts photographers rangers veterinarians wildlife ecologists guides tourists and many more who all share their experiences journeys and love of the Dark Continent Filled with authentic stories and stunning photographs I Heart Africa Project offers advice from those who have journeyed across these ancient lands enlightens you as to the efforts and struggles of conservation and sheds light on the warmth beauty and incredible experiences one can possibly have in Africa Cultural Tourism and Identity Keyan Tomaselli, 2012-08-22 Studies of cultural tourism and indigenous identity are fraught with questions concerning exploitation entitlement ownership and authenticity Unease with the idea of leveraging a group identity for commercial gain is ever present This anthology

articulates some of these debates from a multitude of standpoints It assimilates the perspectives of members of indigenous communities non governmental organizations tourism practitioners and academic researchers who participated in an action research project that aims to link research to development outcomes

Cultural and Heritage Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Siamak Seyfi, C. Michael Hall, 2020-09-28 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive account of cultural and heritage tourism in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region and the many complexities that heritage sites and tourist attractions face The MENA region has long been regarded as the cradle of Western and Arab civilisation and is the home of many of the world's major religions Because of this the region is rich in heritage sites that serve as major tourist attractions and as icons of national cultural and religious identity However as this book examines heritage in the region is simultaneously highly contested and has even become a target for terrorism creating a situation that brought major challenges for heritage management and sustainable tourism development Many of the region's innumerable cultural sites are threatened in some cases by overuse in others by neglect and in many simply by the pressures of economic development This book is therefore of interest not only to heritage managers and policy makers but those academics who seek to address the delicate balance between tourism development communities and the tourists who visit such sites in a turbulent but highly significant region of the world

Travel, Tourism, and Identity Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-09-29 Travel Tourism and Identity addresses the psychological and social adjustments that occur when people make contact with others outside their social cultural or linguistic groups Whether such contact is the result of tourism seeking exile or relocating abroad the volume s contributors demonstrate how one s identity cultural assumptions and worldview can be brought into question In some cases the traveller finds that bridging the social and cultural gap between himself and the new society is fairly easy In other cases the traveller discovers that reorienting himself requires absorbing a new cultural history and traditions The contributors argue that making these adjustments will surely enhance the traveller s or tourist s experience otherwise the traveller or tourist will be at risk of becoming a marginalized figure one disconnected from the society that surrounds him This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series features a collection of essays on travel and tourism The essays cover a range of topics from historical travels to modern social identities They discuss ancient travels contemporary travels in Europe Africa and sustainable eco tourism and the politics of tourism Essays also address experiences of Grenada s Spice Island identity and the effects of globalization and migrations on personal identity
