The Best Travel Writing 2010 James O'Reilly, Larry Habegger, Sean O'Reilly, 2010-05-25 The Best Travel Writing 2010 is the seventh volume in the annual Travelers Tales series launched in 2004 to celebrate the world's best travel writing from Nobel Prize winners to emerging new writers. The points of view and perspectives are global and themes encompass high adventure, spiritual growth, romance, hilarity, and misadventure, service to humanity, and encounters with exotic cuisine. In The Best Travel Writing 2010, readers will explore the mysteries of superstition in Cameroon, discover the meaning of life with an Irish carpenter on a long flight, take adopted children to Korea on a Homeland Tour, delve deep into a sacred Japanese pilgrimage, travel solo in Panama's forbidding Darien jungle, comprehend the nuances of bargaining in Senegal, and much more.

Working the Room Geoff Dyer, 2010-11-04 Alive with insight, delight, and Dyer's characteristic irreverence, this book offers a guide around the cultural maze, mapping a route through the worlds of literature, art, photography, music. Across ten years' worth of essays, Working the Room spans the photography of Martin Parr and the paintings of Turner, the writing of Scott Fitzgerald, and the criticism of Susan Sontag, and includes extensive personal pieces: On Being an Only Child, Sacked, and Reader's Block, among many others. Dyer's breadth of vision and generosity of spirit combine to form a manual for ways of being in and seeing the world today.

The Colour of Memory Geoff Dyer, 2014-05-20 The first novel in revised form from possibly the best living writer in Britain. The Daily Telegraph. In The Colour of Memory, six friends plot a nomadic course through their mid-twenties as they scratch out an existence in near destitute conditions in 1980s South London. They while away their hours drinking cheap beer, landing jobs, and quickly squandering them, smoking weed, dodging muggings, listening to Coltrane, finding and losing a facsimile of love, collecting unemployment, and discussing politics in the way of the besotted young, as if they were employed only by the lives they chose. In his vivid evocation of council flats and pubs of a life lived in the teeth of romantic ideals, Geoff Dyer provides a shockingly relevant snapshot of a different Lost Generation.

The Search Geoff Dyer, 2014-05-20 A short brilliant novel. The Search offers more in 150 pages than most books twice that length. The Guardian. Walker meets Rachel at a glamorous party by the bay. When she turns up at his apartment two days later, there is a hint of erotic promise in the air. But it isn't Walker she wants; at least not yet. Her husband Malory has gone missing, and she wants Walker to find him. So begins Walker's quest, as well as this beautiful novel that takes our hard-boiled knight across the vast landscape of an imaginary middle America that begins subtly to morph into something stranger. Walker's search intensifies, and soon it seems that somebody else is searching for him. In The Search, his second novel, Geoff Dyer concocts a sophisticated and enthralling narrative puzzle.

The Memory of Water Allen Smutylo, 2014-06-19 Over the last forty years, Canadian adventurer, writer, and artist Allen Smutylo has experienced some of the wildest and most captivating waters imaginable in all corners of the globe. The stories in The Memory of Water, all of them accompanied by the author's own stunning artwork, describe his adventures in the Arctic, South Pacific, Great Lakes region, and India. In the Arctic, he is attacked by a polar bear stalked by a rogue walrus and nearly drowns in ferocious waters But his Arctic stories also celebrate human creativity as they recount the life of the pre Inuit people who hunting in a changing environment endured many hardships and developed new technologies such as the sea kayak to cope Other stories include an account of a sojourn in a small Georgian Bay fishing village as a young artist an adventure on an urban river in southwestern Ontario and a portrayal of the complex underwater world of the South Pacific Travelling the River Ganges in India the author finds that a massive misuse of water is complicated by a billion people s faith based adoration of the same water The Memory of Water probes a crucial and contemporary issue that of our relationship to water and the wildlife and human life that depends upon it This book will appeal to anyone interested in the natural world in artistic depictions of it or in a good story well told The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction Huw Marsh,2020-07-09 The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis bleakness cruelty melancholia environmental catastrophe and collapse Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis Nicola Barker Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Howard Jacobson Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction but also that this humour this comic licence allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre style affect and politics demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing creating sites of rich political stylistic cognitive and ethical contestation whose analysis offers a new perspective on the present New Directions in Philosophy and Literature David Rudrum,2019-08-22 This forward thinking volume draws on new developments in philosophy including speculative realism object oriented ontology the new materialisms posthumanism analytic philosophy of language and metaphysics and ecophilosophy alongside close readings of a range of texts from the literary canon

Metamodernism Robin van den Akker,Alison Gibbons,, Timotheus Vermeulen,2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today s metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson s canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century
