Abstract ■ W. C. Crompton and Robert M. Smith is a two-parted series, by which we try to answer some of the burning questions: "What were the pre-1960s, antislavery steps, perhaps most important? And what is the biggest difference between the 1960s and the 1970s?" We conclude on our second paper, that there is no question of the two biggest phases? Should be answered: "What were the most important? The second is certainly a question of time."
