Families as Allies in Treatment of the Mentally Ill National Institute of Mental Health (U.S.),National Alliance for the Mentally Ill (U.S.),1990 This volume promotes changing the clinical education of mental health professionals so that families of mentally ill patients will be viewed as allies rather than adversaries Families as Allies in Treatment of the Mentally Ill provides an overview of issues related to this topic including research directions for new conceptualizations of families and the social context of helping families of mentally ill patients ethical and legal considerations in interviewing families of seriously mentally ill patients an outline of model educational programs Transition Point: From Steam to the Singularity Sean A. Culey,2018-11-06 We live in disruptive times The world is changing faster than ever before leaving people dazed businesses struggling economies floundering and societies fracturing But why Transition Point is the result of over five years of research to establish the answer a breathtaking tale of freedom unintended consequences and disruptive technologies that starts 1000 years ago and ends up in the second half of the 21st Century Starting with an examination into the drivers of technological change and the social economic and political factors that both enable or suppress it Transition Point explains why industrialisation happened where and when it did why progress comes in waves and why the technologies in the current wave such as robotics blockchain and AI are likely to be the most disruptive of all It then addresses the million dollar question what s next What impact will this wave have on our businesses our economies and most importantly on our society Culey explores how our current trajectory could result in a new golden age but also how it is just as likely to result in a digital dictatorship of compliance and constant surveillance Finally he explains why we may soon see Homo sapiens role as the dominant species come to an end As Klaus Schwab founder of the World Economic Forum stated We stand on the brink of a technological revolution that will fundamentally alter the way we live work and relate to one another In its scale scope and complexity the transformation will be unlike anything humankind has experienced before Transition Point explains why this is happening what it means and why the decisions we make now will prove to be critical

Psychosis in the Family Janet C. Love, 2018-03-29 This is a book written not just by a professional transpersonal psychotherapist but by someone who has walked the heart rending path and experienced the psychological trauma of loving someone in psychosis psychosis which still remains the greatest taboo in society today together with its implicit diagnosis of a lifelong sentence of medication and no cure It is in the main a personal and moving narrative of a mother looking to help her son avoid such a lifelong sentence of medication whilst trying to research holistic resources and alternative approaches for treatment at the same time as negotiating the vagaries of the current mental health system It is often a tale of despair and frustration yet also gives a compassionate voice Transpersonal and transgenerational psychotherapeutic insights back up the personal narrative It includes an accessible inquiry into how unconscious forces influence our mind our bodies and the entire family system Its hypothesis is that if we cannot understand our own unconscious responses how can we understand those of our loved ones in psychotic episodes
