Simut,2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world. Because today's world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science, technology, economics, urbanism, etc., modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally. In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world, Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines. Primarily, the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world. In Schillebeeckx's thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology, God is man's terrestrial future, Christ the symbol of universal human values, and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values. Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations, emptied of metaphysical content, can help today's people understand their existence in a new, relevant, and meaningful way.

The Master Key to Life R.U. Forgiven, 2003-10 The Ladies' Repository, 1862

The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams, a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion. Written largely by ministers, this exceptionally well-printed little magazine contained well-written essays of a moral character, plenty of poetry, articles on historical and scientific matters, and book reviews. Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems, her sister Phoebe Cary, Otway Curry, Moncure D. Conway, and Joshua R. Giddings. New England contributors included Mrs. Lydia Sigourney, Hannah F. Gould, and Julia C. R. Dorr. By 1851, each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates, usually landscapes or portraits. When Davis E. Clark took over the editorship in 1853, the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40,000. Unlike his predecessors, Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family. After the war, it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository. The Ladies' Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart. Its essays, sketches, and poems, its good steel engravings, and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own. Cf. American periodicals 1741-1900 Life in Christ William Robert West, 2015-09-29

What do you believe about souls? There are many very different doctrines taught in the world today concerning souls that are believed to be in all humans. By most, a soul is believed to be something that is wholly apart from the person; a soul is in that a soul is something that is that is believed to be complete in its self without the person; it will live after the person it is in is dead; it is believed that a soul will exist forever without the person; it will never be dead; therefore, a soul cannot be resurrected from the dead. It is believed that a soul must live someplace forever and it will live either in Heaven or Hell, even if there is no resurrection. The doctrine of unconditional immortality of a deathless soul, being in a person and that soul leaving that person at the death of the person, makes it impossible for Christ to have given His life to save that soul from death; if a soul had immortality, it would already have life and could never not have life. All Christ could do is give it a reward or punish it.
