Delight to You Hilja, 2010-12-08 For those who chose to read this book the intent herewith is to show you how you can have delight for your life I have had many experiences in my life I want to share these experiences it is the best I can offer Take the time to read and to think You have all the resources you need to make the best of your life You must seek seriously to find the delight of your life As we read good authors books we learn knowledge from these authors through their writings Often we find what we are looking for and even more This is what makes life delightful We are not perfect and can become confused by things we experience in life There are answers for everything and all the means to solve problems by studying the truths in your life You will find that you already know the answers but you have to think Thinking is hard work I have learned this from Socrates the Greek philosopher To all those who read this book I pray and wish you all the best from Heaven above Very Sincerely The Author H R S The Gospel of John Frederick Dale Bruner, 2012-02-22 The author of a much loved two volume Matthew commentary 1990 that he greatly revised and expanded fourteen years later Frederick Dale Bruner now offers The Gospel of John A Commentary more rich fruit of his lifetime of study and teaching Rather than relying primarily on recent scholarship Bruner honors and draws from the church s major John commentators throughout history including Augustine Chrysostom Aquinas Luther Calvin Bultmann Barrett and many more Alongside this historical interpretation is Bruner s own contemporary interpretation which incorporates a lucid translation of the text references to recent scholarship and his pastoral application of the Gospel to present day experience Like Bruner s other work this commentary is rich in biblical insights broadly historical and deeply theological Here is what Eugene Peterson said about Bruner s earlier work on Matthew This is the kind of commentary I most want a theological wrestling with Scripture Frederick Dale Bruner grapples with the text not only as a technical exegete although he does that very well but as a church theologian caring passionately about what these words tell us about God and ourselves His Matthew commentary is in the grand traditions of Augustine Calvin and Luther expansive and leisurely loving the text the people in it and the Christians who read it The same could well be said about the present John commentary which promises to be another invaluable

resource for pastors teachers and laypeople alike
