Origins of Medieval Institutions , 2021-09-20 A collection of essays celebrating the career of Joseph F O Callaghan a noted historian of Spanish history Written by his students and colleagues they explore the relationship between human society and the institutions it produces The first part of the book The Influence of Law on Society contains essays exploring the laws and customs regarding such social institutions as marriage the care of the sick and Jews The second part The Relationship between Government and War focuses on the institutional and technological innovations that the crown and parliament in Spain and England developed to wage war Women, Wealth, and Community in Perpignan, c. 1250-1300 Rebecca Lynn Winer, 2017-05-15 Women Wealth and Community in Perpignan c 1250 1300 investigates the gender system at work in medieval Perpignan Using a series of notarial registers unique as surviving records for the social history of the thirteenth century realms of Aragon and Majorca the political confederations to which this town belonged Rebecca L Winer opens a window onto the experiences of women and their families Her interpretive framework reveals medieval assumptions about the distinct natures of Christian Jewish and enslaved Muslim women by analyzing which actions were curbed controlled or fostered in these different groups Sensitive to questions of social rank and marital status the book departs from traditional women s history by asking how a woman s religious identity factored in determining her economic and legal options in this society As a frontier town Perpignan lends itself well to an analysis of relations among Christians Jews and Muslim slaves The later thirteenth century also provides an ideal focus for this inquiry since the politics of Christian expansion and the economics of the western Mediterranean meant that Jewish communities flourished In contrast Christian Muslim relations unfolded particularly tensely due to intermittent conflict and both groups slave trade almost exclusively in each other s people Winer reconstructs how the members of these three communities negotiated shared space conducting all manner of exchanges making endogamous marriages wills commercial contracts and arranging for the care of children whose fathers were lost to war or disease The first section of the book focuses on women s legal status work and control of financial resources in the two dominant communities Christian and Jewish across the social spectrum It goes on to compare the ways in which mothers relationships to their children were understood in the Christian and Jewish communities The book concludes by entering the homes of Christian Food and Religious Identities in Spain, 1400-1600 Jillian Williams, 2017-03-16 In the late fourteenth century the Iberian Peninsula was home to three major religions which coexisted in relative peace Over the next two centuries various political and social factors changed the face of Iberia dramatically This book examines this period of dynamic change in Iberian history through the lens of food and its relationship to religious identity. It also provides a basis for further study of the connection between food and identities of all types. This study explores the role of food as an expression of religious identity made evident in things like fasting, feasting, ingredient choices, preparation methods, and commensal relations. It considers the role of food in the formation and redefinition of religious identities throughout this period and its significance in the maintenance of ideological and physical boundaries between faiths. This is an insightful and unique look into inter-religious dynamics. It will therefore be of great interest to scholars of religious studies, early modern European history, and food studies. Jews in the Notarial Culture Robert I. Burns, 2021-01-08. This is the first critical edition and study of a unique and important Muslim polemic against Christians and Jews. The Book of Disputation was written in Arabic by a Mudejar subject Muslim living under Christian rule in late medieval Iberia and offers new insight into the cultural and intellectual life of this Muslim minority. The text advances arguments drawn from natural philosophy, largely from Aristotle and Averroes, along with more traditional revealed sources such as the Qur'an and the Bible. Mudejar communities suffered a diminution of religious and political intelligentsia over time. This text, however, highlights the author's particular conception of the world as the creation of God in his defense of Islam, demonstrates the vitality of intellectual life among Muslims in medieval Christian Iberia, and documents the continued cultivation of natural philosophy within these Muslim communities. The Jewish Communities of Medieval England Richard Barrie Dobson, 2010. Last Wills and Testaments: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Oxford University Press, 2010-06-01.
