Islam, Secularism, and Liberal Democracy Nader Hashemi,2009-04-02 Islam s

relationship to liberal democratic politics has emerged as one of the most pressing and contentious issues in international affairs Nader Hashemi challenges the widely held belief among social scientists that religious politics and liberal democratic development are structurally incompatible While there are certainly tensions between religion and democracy the two are not irreconcilable Liberal democracy requires a form of secularism to sustain itself yet the main political cultural and intellectual resources that Muslim democrats can draw upon are religious How can this paradox be reconciled Hashemi makes three principal arguments First in societies where religion is a key marker of identity the road to liberal democracy must pass through the gates of religious politics The process of democratization therefore cannot be artificially de linked from debates about the normative role of religion in government Secondly while liberal democracy requires secularism religious traditions are not born with an inherent secular and democratic conception of politics These ideas must be developed and in an emerging democracy how they are developed is critical Finally Hashemi argues that there is an intimate relationship between religious reformation and political development While the first often precedes the second these processes are deeply interlinked Democratization does not require a privatization of religion but it does require a reinterpretation of religious ideas that are conducive to liberal democracy By engaging in this reinterpretation religious groups can play a central role in the development and consolidation of democracy Islam Secularism and Liberal Democracy argues for a rethinking of democratic theory so that it incorporates the variable of religion in the development of liberal democracy In the process it proves that an indigenous theory of Muslim secularism is not only possible but is a necessary requirement for the advancement of liberal democracy in Muslim societies

Contemporary Thought in the Muslim World Carool Kersten, 2019-06-17 This book presents an intellectual history of today's Muslim world surveying contemporary Muslim thinking in its various manifestations addressing a variety of themes that impact on the lives of present day Muslims Focusing on the period from roughly the late 1960s to the first decade of the twenty first century the book is global in its approach and offers an overview of different strands of thought and trends in the development of new ideas distinguishing between traditional reactionary and progressive approaches It presents a variety of themes and issues including The continuing relevance of the legacy of traditional Islamic learning as well as the use of reason the centrality of the Qur'an the spiritual concerns of contemporary Muslims political thought regarding secularity statehood and governance legal and ethical debates related current issues like human rights gender equality and religious plurality as well as globalization ecology and the environment bioethics and life sciences An alternative account of Islam and the Muslim world today counterbalancing narratives that emphasise politics and confrontations with the West this book is an essential resource for students and scholars of Islam

A Companion to the History of the Middle East Youssef M. Choueiri, 2008-04-15 A Companion to the History of the Middle East offers a fresh account of the multifaceted and multi layered history of this region A fresh account of the multifaceted and multi layered history of the Middle East Comprises 26 newly commissioned essays by leading international scholars Primarily focused on the modern and contemporary periods Covers religious social cultural economic political and military history Treats the region as four differentiated political units Iran Turkey Israel and the Arab world Includes a section on current issues such as oil urban growth the role of women and democratic human rights A Nation Under God? R. Bruce Douglass, Joshua Mitchell, 2000 A Nation under God is a collection of original essays by political and legal theorists on the future of religion as an active influence in American public life This book displays a distinctive set of arguments on topics that range from the ethics of religious witness in public life to the future of civil religion in America Social Text , 2002 Virtual Gender Mary Ann O'Farrell, Lynne Vallone, 1999 Explores notions of gender fantasy across time and culture expanding the concept of virtuality to include people and events in history Beneath the Crust of Culture Howard F. Stein, 2004-01-01 In this book the author presents a pioneering interpretation of culture as constituting a dynamic relationship between the visible crust and the elusive core of social life He meticulously maps the role of the unconscious in shaping much of American life in the late 20th and early 21st centuries He crosses and transcends disciplinary boundaries in studies of September 11 2001 the 1999 Columbine High School massacre the execution of Timothy McVeigh the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing the 1999 Worcester Massachusetts fire and the eruption of hypernationalism and xenophobia in nations and workplaces all as cultural phenomena with a psychodynamic core He shows how the experience of loss in the face of massive social change often leads to equally massive defence against the experience of mourning Beneath the Crust of Culture will be of interest not only for behavioural and social science professionals but also for a lay public interested in understandings of culture deeper than the surface of the news and of official pronouncements The Fullness of Time in a Flat World Scott Waalkes, 2010-01-01 Best selling author Thomas Friedman says that globalization has made the world flat and that we cannot stop the process But while it is right to say that globalization tends to flatten our world it is wrong to say that there are no alternatives to current patterns of economic ecological political and cultural integration This book argues that the Christian liturgical calendar provides a constructive alternative to the globalization of economics ecologies politics and cultures It does so by incorporating the church into the fullness of time in the gospel narrative thereby helping us escape from the dead end of Friedman s flat world so that we can improvise healthier ways of being globally integrated Understanding Dogmas and Dreams Nancy S. Love, 2006-02-09 Nancy Love s concise yet complete volume aims to inform students of their choices among political values By exploring the assumptions of various ideologies and comparing their positions students begin to understand political alternatives to be able to choose among them in essence they learn to think democratically Offering historical and analytic context for the selections in her companion reader Dogmas and Dreams Love challenges students to consider the various ways ideological frameworks shape political actions Reframing her approach in this second edition Love examines how traditional left right ideologies liberalism and conservatism socialism and fascism are shifting to adapt to new political realities in an ever turbulent post 9 11 world She also discusses why alternative ideologies feminism environmentalism fundamentalism and globalization may better convey our global political future While pushing the boundaries of the left right political spectrum she looks at how grassroots social movements offer alternative ways to view ideological differences from cluster concepts to micro discourses and even a planetary galaxy Expanded coverage includes a new chapter on nationalism and globalization which examines the work of Samuel Huntington Kenichi Ohmae Benjamin Barber and many more to explore fundamentalism in Islamic politics increased coverage of global environmental politics including Shiva s Stolen Harvest and Kelly s Thinking Green examining the relationships between developed and developing countries fresh material on socialist politics post 1989 and the rise of neo fascist movements in the United States and Europe including analysis of Hayden and Flacks The Port Huron Statement at 40 and Bob Moser s The Age of Rage an updated feminism chapter that considers the impact of third wave post colonial and so called power feminists and incorporates new analysis of Wollstonecraft s A Vindication of the Rights of Woman and Mohanty s Under Western Eyes Revisited

Zones of Instability Imre Szeman, 2004-12-01 Attempts by writers and intellectuals in former colonies to create unique national cultures are often thwarted by a context of global modernity which discourages particularity and uniqueness In describing unstable social and political cultures such third world intellectuals often find themselves torn between the competing literary requirements of the local culture of the colony and the cosmopolitan world culture introduced by Western civilization In Zones of Instability Imre Szeman examines the complex relationship between literature and politics by exploring the production of nationalist literature in the former British empire Taking as his case studies the regions of the British Caribbean Nigeria and Canada Szeman analyzes the work of authors for whom the idea of thenation and literature are inexorably entwined such as Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka C L R James Frantz Fanon and V S Naipaul Szeman focuses on literature created in the two decades after World War II decades in which the future prospects for many colonies went from extreme political optimism to extreme political disappointment He finds that the nation can be read as that space in which literature is thought to be able to conjoin two things that history has separated the writer and the people

Theological Ethics and Global Dynamics William Schweiker, 2008-04-15 The nature of ethics has been the subject of much controversy and argument in recent decades Theological Ethics and Global Dynamics tackles these various debates offering a wide ranging comprehensive and provocative statement of the nature of theological ethics in global times Offers an accessible lively and provocative statement of the nature of moral philosophy and theological ethics in contemporary times Tackles various perspectives on debates about distinctly Christian ethics Argues that we need to reframe the arena in which moral questions are asked Engages a range of positions exploring distinctively modern issues such as moral and cultural relativism globalization problems of consumption and violence and religious pluralism Addresses the complexity of certain ethical decisions which are difficult and far from clear cut and yet presents an ethical understanding which is both humane and deeply religious International Crimes Nikos Passas,2017-07-05 This volume makes accessible a selection of the most significant journal articles dealing with international crimes The studies collected here will be an invaluable aid to teaching and research Adam Smith and the Circles of Sympathy Fonna Forman-Barzilai,2010-03-25 A broad ranging 2010 study of Smith s views on moral judgement humanitarian care commerce justice and international law Modernism and the Middle East Sandy Isenstadt,Kishwar Rizvi,2011-03-01 This provocative collection of essays is the first book length treatment of the development of modern architecture in the Middle East Ranging from Jerusalem at the turn of the twentieth century to Libya under Italian colonial rule postwar Turkey and on to present day Iraq the essays cohere around the historical encounter between the politics of nation building and architectural modernism s new materials methods and motives Architecture as physical infrastructure and as symbolic expression provides an exceptional window onto the powerful forces that shaped the modern Middle East and that continue to dominate it today Experts in this volume demonstrate the political dimensions of both creating the built environment and subsequently inhabiting it In revealing the tensions between achieving both international relevance and regional meaning Modernism in the Middle East affords a dynamic view of the ongoing confrontations of deep traditions with rapid modernization Political and cultural historians as well as architects and urban planners will find fresh material here on a range of diverse practices Area Studies at the Crossroads Katja Mielke,Anna-Katharina Hornidge,2017-02-28 In this pioneering volume leading scholars from a diversity of backgrounds in the humanities social sciences and different area studies argue for a more differentiated and self reflected role of area based science in global knowledge production Considering that the mobility of people goods and ideas make the world more complex and geographically fixed categories increasingly obsolete the authors call for a reflection of this new dynamism in research teaching and theorizing The book thus moves beyond the constructed divide between area studies and systematic disciplines and instead proposes methodological and conceptual ways for encouraging the integration of marginalized and often overseen epistemologies Essays on the ontological theoretical and pedagogical dimension of area studies highlight how people s everyday practices of mobility challenge scholars students and practitioners of inter and transdisciplinary area studies to transcend the cognitive boundaries that scholarly minds currently operate in World Literature in Theory David Damrosch,2014-01-28 World Literature in Theory provides a definitive exploration of the pressing questions facing those studying world literature today Coverage is split into four parts which examine the origins and seminal formulations of world literature world literature in the age of globalization contemporary debates on world literature and localized versions of world literature Contains more than 30 important theoretical essays by the most influential scholars including Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Hugo Meltzl Edward Said Franco Moretti Jorge Luis Borges and Gayatri Spivak Includes substantive introductions to each essay as well as an annotated bibliography for further reading Allows students to understand articulate and debate the most important issues in this rapidly changing field of study
