Entrepreneurship Nadeera Ranabahu, Huibert P. de Vries, Robert T. Hamilton, 2024-11-22 This comprehensive volume explores the phenomenon of refugee entrepreneurship and advances the discussions and debates in the domain The growing number of refugees across the world creates a compelling need to study the social and economic activities of refugees in different contexts and to share experiences and debate how to better support refugee populations This book covers academic practical and policy issues in refugee entrepreneurship seeking to present the current status of research in this evolving field The topics include how to identify and differentiate refugee entrepreneurship refugees business practices the personal economic and social values and impacts of refugee entrepreneurship and the institutional support and role of ecosystems in facilitating refugee entrepreneurship Future research directions are also outlined This book provides scholars with the theoretical foundations and evidence base to advance refugee entrepreneurship research Support agencies will learn from the experiences of others about the delivery of tailored support and policymakers will recognise the need for empathy and consistency in developing host country strategies for refugees Prismatic Performances April Sizemore-Barber, 2020-09-28

At his 1994 inauguration South African president Nelson Mandela announced the Rainbow Nation at peace with itself and the world This national rainbow notably extended beyond the bounds of racial coexistence and reconciliation to include sexual orientation as a protected category in the Bill of Rights Yet despite the promise of equality and dignity the new government's alliance with neoliberal interests and the devastation of the AIDS epidemic left South Africa an increasingly unequal society Prismatic Performances focuses on the queer embodiments that both reveal and animate the gaps between South Africa's self image and its lived realities It argues that performance has become a key location where contradictions inherent to South Africa's post apartheid identity are negotiated The book spans 30 years of cultural production and numerous social locations and includes a team of black lesbian soccer players who reveal and redefine the gendered and sexed limitations of racialized Africanness white gay performers who use drag and gender subversion to work through questions of racial and societal transformation black artists across the arts who have developed aesthetics that place on display their audiences complicity in the problem of sexual violence and a primarily heterosexual panAfrican online soap opera fandom community who by combining new virtual spaces with old melodramatic tropes allow for extended deliberation and new paradigms through which African same sex relationships are acceptable Prismatic Performances contends that when explicitly queer bodies emerge onto public stages audiences are made intimately aware of their own bodies identifications and desires As the sheen of the New South Africa began to fade these performances revealed the inadequacy and indeed the violence of the Rainbow Nation as an aspirational metaphor Simultaneously they created space for imagining new radical configurations of belonging Brazil Hattie Hartman, 2017-03-01 Brazil is a country of city dwellers undergoing radical transformation over 85 per cent of the country's citizens live in cities and over 40 per cent of the population live in metropolises of more than a million people Whereas previously urban growth had been ad hoc preparation for the FIFA World Cup in 12 cities across the country in 2014 and for the upcoming Olympic and Paralympic Games in Rio changed all that Several Brazilian cities have proactively invested in infrastructure and the public realm And a number of projects by international architects have heightened interest in Brazil from architects and urban practitioners abroad The failure of public authorities to meet their ambitious aspirations for the sporting mega events sparked a series of street protests across the country under the banner of the right to the city beginning in 2013 For Brazil this was an entirely new phenomenon one which has unveiled the potential for bottom up influences to effect urban change The focus of this issue though is on design projects that contribute a strong sense of place to their respective cities highlighting also the integration of landscape design in urban planning and community interventions that seek to address the enormous disparity between the lives of the country's rich and poor Contributors Ricky Burdett Thomas Deckker Gabriel Duarte Sergio Ekerman Nanda Eskes and Andr Vieira Alexandre Hepner

design The handbook is organised around nine key themes through which familiar analytic categories of race gender and class as well as binaries such as the urban rural are readdressed These thematic sections together capture the volatile processes and intricacies of urbanisation that reveal the turbulent nature of our early twenty first century Hierarchy Elites and Evictions Productivity Over investment and Abandonment Authority Governance and Mobilisations Volatility Disruption and Adaptation Conflict Vulnerability and Insurgency Provisionality Infrastructure and Incrementalism Mobility Re bordering and De bordering Civility Contestation and Encounter Design Speculation and Imagination This is a provocative interdisciplinary handbook for all academics and researchers interested in contemporary urban studies The State of the World's Cities 2004/2005 ,2004 As towns and cities expand at unprecedented rates sustainable urban development is one of the most pressing challenges facing the international community in the 21st century This publication examines the realities faced by urban populations around the world focusing on the impact of globalisation and the way cities are governed and planned on the make up and density of their population and on their cultures and economies Issues considered include the impact of globalisation on urban culture urban renewal and cultural strategies the concept of metropolitanization socio economic and cultural impacts of international migration urban poverty and homelessness social inequality and exclusion urban governance safety and crime trends contemporary planning strategies and the role of civil society progress towards attainment of the Millennium Development Goals targets for sanitation and housing The report highlights the need for a new culture of planning to establish multicultural and inclusive cities involving civil society as well as public authorities

Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa ,2025-05-16 The new generation of African constitutions crafted in the 1990s marked the beginning of a trend that promised a radical transformation of the continent s governance landscape This movement aimed to eliminate the risks of coups and political instability that had plagued Africa since the 1960s by embedding democracy and constitutionalism However the wave of constitutional reforms post 1990s seems to have sparked a contagious fever of making unmaking and remaking constitutions The nature and frequency of these changes threaten to undermine the progress made in entrenching a culture of constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law It is therefore no surprise that there is almost universal agreement that Africa is now facing a profound crisis of democracy and constitutionalism Constitutional Change and Constitutionalism in Africa examines the nature and extent of these changes which have been occurring more frequently and sometimes more arbitrarily than anticipated Among the main questions investigated are the constitution making process and the roles of various internal actors such as the legislature executive and judiciary as well as external actors like the African Union and Regional Economic Communities in the different processes of constitutional change Ultimately the discussions aim to explore how the processes of constitutional change whether inevitable and unavoidable or contrived can be conducted in a manner that does not undermine or threaten the efforts to entrench democracy constitutionalism good governance and respect for the rule of law on the African continent

Remaindered Life Neferti X. M. Tadiar, 2022-05-02 In Remaindered Life Neferti X M Tadiar offers a new conceptual vocabulary and framework for rethinking the dynamics of a global capitalism maintained through permanent imperial war. Tracking how contemporary capitalist accumulation depends on producing life times of disposability Tadiar focuses on what she terms remaindered life practices of living that exceed the distinction between life worth living and life worth expending. Through this heuristic Tadiar reinterprets the global significance and genealogy of the surplus life making practices of migrant domestic and service workers, refugees fleeing wars and environmental disasters, criminalized communities, urban slum dwellers and dispossessed Indigenous people. She also examines artists and filmmakers in the Global South who render forms of various living in the midst of disposability. Retelling the story of globalization from the side of those who reach beyond dominant protocols of living, Tadiar demonstrates how attending to remaindered life can open up another horizon of possibility for a radical remaking of our present global mode of life. Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 3) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-08-20 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available. It presents an overview of an alternative land use management system for South African municipalities that is economically, socially and environmentally more sustainable than many of the land use schemes in effect at present. Land use management is a component of spatial governance that controls the nature and extent of development to prevent harmful impacts on people and the environment. As the current system with its colonial modernist planning and regulatory mechanisms were never designed to deal with rapid change, urbanisation and informality, a different form of land development and land use management is necessary. This timely book reflects the culmination of many years of practical experience and research into various aspects of land use management by the authors and studies undertaken by their master's and doctoral students. The book goes beyond an analysis of the problems and suggests concrete proposals that can be applied throughout Southern Africa based on a rural to urban transect. This book is directed to a broad range of readers interested in spatial planning and land use management. It will be of interest to those in the fields of geography, urban studies, urban design, planning and architecture. The State of the World's Cities, 2004 Braby's Commercial
