John As Storyteller John As Storyteller:

John as Storyteller Mark W. G. Stibbe, 1994-12-08 A widely acclaimed study which suggests a new holistic approach to the gospel literature John as Storyteller Mark W. G. Stibbe, 1994 John Warren Carter, 2006-06-01 The Final Volume in a Well Received Gospel Study John Storyteller Interpreter Evangelist is an accessible introduction to the Fourth Gospel This book examines three aspects of John's Gospel John's telling of the story of Jesus his interpretation of Jesus for his readers and his formulation of all of this into the Gospel of Jesus Carter surveys the central issues of this Gospel and engages with narrative and historical approaches the two dominant methods used in interpreting John's Gospel In addition he introduces his readers to a consideration of the Gospel's negotiation of the Roman imperial world This book is written for college and seminary students clergy seeking resources for teaching and preaching and the laity especially Bible study groups who like to engage a topic in some depth Provoking the Gospel of John Richard W. Swanson, 2010 Provoking the Gospel of John Years A B and C the final volume in the Provoking the Gospel storytelling commentary series spurs efforts to provoke pastoral leaders and religious educators to look for new and lively readings of John and challenges them to experiment with interpretive tools such as embodied ensemble exploration The book like the series volumes on the Synoptic Gospels is composed of three chapters plus the author's provocative translation of the Gospel of John An appendix identifies the Revised Common Lectionary texts in story order It also includes a companion DVD with illustrations of the process of script analysis and the performance that lies behind this way of storytelling Designs for the Church in the Gospel of John R. Alan Culpepper, 2021-07-16 The essays in this volume which span four decades represent sustained reflection on the historical setting narrative devices and theology of the Gospel of John Methodologically the essays develop a narrative critical approach to the Gospel producing insights that have implications for historical and theological issues Thematically many of the essays explore the Gospel's ecclesiology especially its vision for the church and its mission As a collection this volume provides an introduction to the Fourth Gospel analyses of major issues including John's anti-Judaism relationship to 1 John irony imagery creation ethics evil and eschatology and in depth exploration of key texts especially John 1 1 18 2 20 4 35 38 5 1 18 5 21 30 10 1 18 12 12 15 13 1 20 19 16 30 20 19 23 and chapter 21 A Prologue to Studies in the Fourth Gospel Riku P. Tuppurainen, 2021-05-25 The Fourth Gospel both blesses and betrays It blesses readers who engage with its message but it may betray those who read it nonchalantly The notion that the Fourth Gospel is easy to understand is an enduring myth This volume takes readers on a heuristic journey to discover the Fourth Gospel's unique theological aspects problematic historical matters inimitable literary features and various interpretive approaches using an accessible format and easy to read language The purpose of this publication is to enable readers to appreciate the Fourth Gospel's wide horizon so necessary to understand its narratives in their historical and narrative contexts Like the prologue of the Fourth Gospel that introduces and gives perspective on how readers should approach the rest of the Gospel similarly this volume introduces and gives perspective to studies in the Fourth Gospel The text is divided into three parts which examine its independent theology and argumentation various outstanding issues and its interpretation respectively This volume is suitable for a wide readership from Bible study groups to pastors and from undergraduate to graduate students

First-Century Gospel Storytellers and Audiences Thomas E. Boomershine, 2022-07-29 These essays explore the reconception of the Gospels as first century compositions of sound performed for audiences by storytellers rather than the anachronistic picture of a series of texts read by individual readers The new paradigm implicit in these initial experiments is based on the recent realization that the majority of persons 85 to 95 percent were illiterate and experienced the Jesus stories as members of audiences Either from memory or from memorized manuscripts the evangelists performed the Gospels as an evening s entertainment of two to four hours The audiences were predominantly addressed as Hellenistic Judeans who lived in the aftermath of the Roman Jewish war When heard whole the Gospels were vivid experiences of the central character of Jesus These studies of audience address and the interactions between first century storytellers and audiences reveal a dynamic performance literature that functioned as scripts for an ever expanding network of storytelling proclamations whose envisioned horizon was the whole world When the Gospels were told at one time from beginning to end they invited the listeners to move from being peripherally interested or initially opposed to Jesus to identifying themselves as disciples of Jesus and believers in him as the Messiah
