Historical Dictionary of the Indochina War (1945-1954) Christopher E. Goscha, 2012-02-29 This first historical dictionary in English of the Indochina War provides the most comprehensive account to date of one of the most important conflicts of the twentieth century Over 1 600 entries offer in depth expert coverage of the war in all its dimensions Christopher Goscha adopts a path breaking dual international and interdisciplinary approach Thus readers will not only find information on politics and military campaigns they will also discover the remarkable impact this war had on intellectual social cultural economic and artistic domains in France Indochina and elsewhere Indeed rather than limiting the dictionary to the French and their Vietnamese adversaries Goscha explores the internationalization of this conflict from its beginning in September 1945 at Ba Dinh square in Hanoi to its end around the Cold War conference table in Geneva in July 1954 also making it clear that a myriad of non communist Vietnamese Lao and Cambodian nationalists were deeply involved in this war and its outcome In addition to its 1 600 entries the dictionary contains a succinct historical introduction selected bibliography maps illustrations and tables A massive work of outstanding scholarly quality and lasting value this is a reference tool that will be invaluable for researchers students and anyone else hoping to understand the complexity of this tragic conflict

Historical Dictionary of Ho Chi Minh City Justin Corfield, 2014-11-01 Offering a concise overview of Ho Chi Minh City's history and development the Historical Dictionary of Ho Chi Minh City presents a comprehensive historical survey of the city in the form of an alphabetical list of keywords and names with accompanying definitions Both well researched and authoritative the volume draws upon a wide range of modern sources and contains an introductory essay about the city a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations photographs and appendixes of supplemental information Historical Dictionary of Laos Martin Stuart-Fox, Simon Creak, 2023-02-06 Laos has the smallest population the weakest military and despite rapid economic growth in recent years one of the lowest levels of per capita income in mainland Southeast Asia Yet a glance at the map reveals its strategic location between China and Cambodia and Thailand and Vietnam As Laos was formerly a crossroads for trade routes the socialist government of the Lao People's Democratic Republic seeks to transform the country into a prosperous crossroads at the heart of this rapidly developing region Historical Dictionary of Laos Fourth Edition provides an in depth examination of one of the least known countries in Southeast Asia through a detailed chronology comprehensive introduction and extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 1 000 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book will be an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Laos Hanoi's Road to the Vietnam War, 1954-1965 Pierre Asselin, 2013-08-02 Hanoi's Road to the Vietnam War opens in 1954 with the signing of the Geneva accords that ended the eight year long Franco Indochinese War and created two Vietnams In agreeing to the accords Ho Chi Minh and other leaders of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam anticipated a new period of peace leading to national reunification under their rule they never imagined that within a decade they would be engaged in an even bigger feud with the United States Basing his work on new and largely inaccessible Vietnamese materials as well as French British Canadian and American documents Pierre Asselin explores the communist path to war Specifically he examines the internal debates and other elements that shaped Hanoi's revolutionary strategy in the decade preceding U S military intervention and resulting domestic and foreign programs Without exonerating Washington for its role in the advent of hostilities in 1965 Hanoi's Road to the Vietnam War demonstrates that those who directed the effort against the United States and its allies in Saigon were at least equally responsible for creating the circumstances that culminated in arguably the most tragic conflict of the Cold War era

Market Frictions Kirsten W. Endres, 2019-06-06 Based on ethnographic research conducted over several years Market Frictions examines the tensions and frictions that emerge from the interaction of global market forces urban planning policies and small scale trading activities in the Vietnamese border city of L o Cai Here it is revealed how small scale traders and market vendors experience the marketplace reflect upon their trading activities and negotiate current state policies and regulations It shows how traditional Vietnamese marketplaces have continually been reshaped and adapted to meet the changing political economic circumstances and civilizational ideals of the time

A Sense of the Enemy Zachary Shore, 2014-03 A bold explanation of how and why national leaders are able or unable to correctly analyze and predict the intentions of foreign rivals

Subjects and Sojourners Charles Keith, 2024-03-05 During the era of French colonial rule in Indochina as many as two hundred thousand Indochinese sojourned in France Subjects and Sojourners is a vivid and comprehensive social cultural and political history of this diverse group which ranged from ruling monarchs to the most marginal laborers Drawing from a range of rich but underused archives Charles Keith explores how French colonialism extended Indochina's colonial society into France where Indochinese subjects studied labored fought and lived in imperial spaces and contexts that were profoundly different from those they had left behind Time in France transformed these sojourners and when they returned to Indochina they in turn transformed colonial society Indochinese in short did not simply encounter France in the colony they went and lived it for themselves

Regime Type and Beyond Weitseng Chen, Hualing Fu, 2023-06-08 Policing is legitimized in different ways in authoritarian and democratic states In East and Southeast Asia different regime types to a greater or lesser extent determine the power of the police and their complex relationship with the rule of law This volume examines the evolution of the police as a key political institution from a historical perspective and offers comparative insights into the potential of democratic policing and conversely the resilience of authoritarian policing in Asia The case studies focus on eight jurisdictions Singapore Thailand Hong Kong Vietnam China Taiwan Japan and South Korea The theoretical chapters analyse and explain the links between policing and society the politics of policing and recent police reforms This volume fills a gap in the literature by exploring the nature of authoritarian policing and how it has transformed and developed the rule of law throughout East and

Southeast Asia Nehru's Bandung Andrea Benvenuti, 2024-05-31 This book sheds light on a neglected aspect of India's Cold War diplomacy starting with the role of Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and his Congress government in organising the first Asian African Conference in Bandung in April 1955 Andrea Benvenuti shows how in the early Cold War Nehru seized the opportunity accorded by the conference to transcend growing international tensions and pursue an alternative vision a neutralised Asian area of peace underpinned by a code of conduct based on the five principles of peaceful coexistence Relying on Indian Western and Chinese archival sources Nehru's Bandung focuses on the policy concerns and calculations as well as the international factors that drove a sceptical Nehru to support Indonesia's diplomatic push for such a gathering It reveals how in Nehru's estimation Bandung also served a further important purpose securing China's commitment to peaceful coexistence without which stability in Asia would be illusory Nehru's support for an Asian African conference did not derive from an emotional commitment to Afro Asian internationalism Instead it stemmed from a desire to promote a third way in an increasingly polarised world and to forge a stable regional order one that would enhance India's external security and domestic prosperity

Second-Generation Liberation Wars Yaniv Voller, 2022-02-24 The formation of post colonial states in Africa and the Middle East gave birth to prolonged separatist wars Exploring the evolution of these separatist wars Yaniv Voller examines the strategies that both governments and insurgents employed how these strategies were shaped by the previous struggle against European colonialism and the practices and roles that emerged in the subsequent period which moulded the identities aims and strategies of post colonial governments and separatist rebels Based on a wealth of primary sources Voller focuses on two post colonial separatist wars In Iraqi Kurdistan between Kurdish separatists and the government in Baghdad and Southern Sudan between black African insurgents and the government in Khartoum By providing an account of both conflicts he offers a new understanding of colonialism decolonisation and the international politics of the post colonial world

A History of the Vietnamese K. W. Taylor, 2013-05-09 The history of Vietnam prior to the nineteenth century is rarely examined in any detail In this groundbreaking work K W Taylor takes up this challenge addressing a wide array of topics from the earliest times to the present day including language literature religion and warfare and themes including Sino Vietnamese relations the interactions of the peoples of different regions within the country and the various forms of government adopted by the Vietnamese throughout their history A History of the Vietnamese is based on primary source materials combining a comprehensive narrative with an analysis which endeavours to see the Vietnamese past through the eyes of those who lived it Taylor questions long standing stereotypes and clichés about Vietnam drawing attention to sharp discontinuities in the Vietnamese past Fluently written and accessible to all readers this highly original contribution to the study of Southeast Asia is a landmark text for all students and scholars of Vietnam

Contesting Indochina M. Kathryn Edwards, 2016-06-14 How does a nation come to terms with losing a war especially an overseas war whose purpose is fervently contested In the years after the war how does such a nation construct and reconstruct its identity and values For the French in Indochina the stunning defeat at Dien Bien Phu ushered in the violent process of decolonization and a fraught reckoning with a colonial past Contesting Indochina is the first in depth study of the competing and intertwined narratives of the Indochina War It analyzes the layers of French remembrance focusing on state sponsored commemoration veterans associations special interest groups intellectuals films and heated public disputes These narratives constitute the ideological battleground for contesting the legacies of colonialism decolonization the Cold War and France s changing global status

French Indochina War Huston, Simon, 2021-07-01 Military mistakes impel strategic reflection The French Indochina War FIW from 1946 1954 furnishes useful insights with some resonance for current challenges A combination of pre existing conditions catalysts and operational drivers caused the cathartic 1954 French defeat Pre conditions included the illegitimacy of the colonial regime repression that polarised nationalist sentiment Economically pernicious terms of trade suppressed industrialisation but oiled speculation until suddenly reversed by devaluation in 1953 that reflected financial disengagement by France but increased American involvement Vacillating metropolitan and the dubious colonial regime of the night club Emperor B o i fuelled political instability Militarily after the disastrous evacuation of the RC4 in 1950 Vi t Minh men and supplies poured across the Chinese frontier In 1954 financial constraints and the looming international peace conference catalysed Navarre the new French commander to gamble on a battle of attrition He bet that the Vi t Minh would be unable drag artillery to the remote jungle outpost of Di n Bi n Ph but he underestimated their determination strength and adaptability In early December partisans resented the bungled evacuation of Lai Ch u The entrenched camp s defences were inadequate and neither infantry sorties nor napalm suppressed VM artillery in the surrounding hills The French aero logistical sub system was overstretched and significant parachute supplies fell into enemy hands Navarre scattered his reserves on a futile and remote side show Operation Atlante The Americans prevaricated and refused to unleash their B29 fleet Iacta alea est the die was cast

Political Warfare in Republican Vietnam Robert A. Silano, 2024-08-22 This work examines the development of the Republic of Vietnam Armed Forces as a national institution explores the historical origins of the political warfare system and assesses that system s nurturing of military morale popular support and ways to weaken enemy resolve North Vietnam in the 1940s and South Vietnam in the 1960s embraced the system of political control over the military that was developed in Soviet Russia after the Bolshevik Revolution and in Republican China in the 1920s where it influenced both the Nationalist and Communist movements The book discusses the overall effectiveness of political warfare activities in the Republic of Vietnam s army the advice and support offered by the U S military to the South Vietnamese political warfare establishment and the consequences of the war s end for the members of the Republic of Vietnam Armed Forces who served in the political warfare system

Screening the Red Army Faction Christina Gerhardt, 2018-07-12 Screening the Red Army Faction Historical and Cultural Memory explores representations of the Red Army Faction RAF in print media film and art locating an analysis of these texts in the historical and political context of unfolding events In this way the book contributes both a new history and a new cultural history of post fascist era West Germany that grapples with the fledgling republic s most pivotal debates about the nature of democracy and authority about violence its motivations and regulation and about its cultural afterlife Looking back at the history of representations of the RAF in various media this book considers how our understanding of the Cold War era of the long sixties and of the RAF is created and re created through cultural texts

A Displaced Nation Phi-Van Nguyen,2024-12-15 In A Displaced Nation Phi Van Nguyen argues that the displacement of eighty thousand mostly Roman Catholic evacuees from North Vietnam in 1954 had a profound impact on the war opposing Saigon on both Hanoi and on the evacuees themselves Assisting with the transportation emergency relief and resettlement of the evacuees allowed diverse organizations and the United States to support Saigon This transnational mobilization also convinced the evacuees the free world would never let Vietnam remain divided Many people see the Vietnam wars spanning from 1945 to 1989 as separate conflicts But Nguyen demonstrates that the evacuees experienced a continuous civil war A Displaced Nation shows the evacuees felt so validated by transnational support that they thought they could use this external help to return one day to the north This belief was not constant nor were the strategies to achieve it the same for all but through their political activism and action the evacuees showed they were willing to seize any opportunity to oppose Hanoi during the subsequent decades even once established overseas

America's Vietnam War and Its French Connection Frank Cain,2016-12-08 That America was drawn into the Vietnam War by the French has been recognized but rarely explored This book analyzes the years from 1945 with the French military reconquest of Vietnam until 1963 with the execution of the French endorsed dictator Ngo Dinh Diem demonstrating how the US should not have followed the French into Vietnam It shows how the Korean War triggered the flow of American military hardware and finances to underpin France s war against the Marxist oriented Vietnam Republic led by Ho Chi Minh

Impure and Worldly Geography Gavin Bowd,Daniel Clayton,2019-02-13 Tropicality is a centuries old Western discourse that treats otherness and the exotic in binary us and them terms It has long been implicated in empire and its anxieties over difference However little attention has been paid to its twentieth century genealogy This book explores this neglected history through the work of Pierre Gourou one of the century s foremost purveyors of what anti colonial writer Aim C saire dubbed tropicalit It explores how Gourou s interpretations of the nature of the tropical world and its innate difference from the temperate world were built on the shifting sands of twentieth century history empire and freedom modernity and disenchantment war and revolution culture and civilisation and race and development The book addresses key questions about the location and power of knowledge by focusing on Gourou s cultivation of the tropics as a romanticised networked and affective domain The book probes what C saire described as Gourou s impure and worldly geography as a way of opening up interdisciplinary questions of geography ontology epistemology experience and materiality This book will be of great interest to scholars and students within historical geography history postcolonial studies cultural studies and international relations Decolonization and the Remaking of Christianity Elizabeth A. Foster, Udi Greenberg, 2023-08-29 In the decades following the era of decolonization global Christianity experienced a seismic shift While Catholicism and Protestantism have declined in their historic European strongholds they have sustained explosive growth in Asia Latin America and Africa This demographic change has established Christians from the Global South as an increasingly dominant presence in modern Christian thought culture and politics Decolonization and the Remaking of Christianity unearths the roots of this development charting the metamorphosis of Christian practice and institutions across five continents throughout the pivotal years of decolonization The essays in this collection illustrate the diverse new ideas rituals and organizations created in the wake of Western imperialism's formal collapse and investigate how religious leaders politicians theologians and lay people debated and shaped a new Christianity for a postcolonial world Contributors argue that the collapse of colonialism and broader cultural challenges to Western power fostered new organizations theologies and political engagements across the world ultimately setting Christianity on its current trajectory away from its colonial heritage These essays interrogate decolonization's varied and conflicting impacts on global Christianity while also providing a novel framework for rethinking decolonization's modern legacies Taken together this book charts the relationship between decolonization and Christianity on a truly global scale Contributors Joel Cabrita Darcie Fontaine Elizabeth A Foster Udi Greenberg David Kirkpatrick Eric Morier Genoud Phi V n Nguyen Justin Reynolds Sarah Shortall Lydia Walker Charlotte Walker Said Albert Wu Gene Zubovich Empire's Violent End Thijs Brocades Zaalberg, Bart Luttikhuis, 2022-07-15 In Empire's Violent End Thijs Brocades Zaalberg and Bart Luttikhuis along with expert contributors present comparative research focused specifically on excessive violence in Indonesia Algeria Vietnam Malaysia Kenya and other areas during the wars of decolonization In the last two decades there have been heated public and scholarly debates in France the United Kingdom and the Netherlands on the violent end of empire Nevertheless the broader comparative investigations into colonial counterinsurgency tend to leave atrocities such as torture execution and rape in the margins The editors describe how such comparisons mostly focus on the differences by engaging in guilt ranking Moreover the dramas that have unfolded in Algeria and Kenya tend to overshadow similar violent events in Indonesia the very first nation to declare independence directly after World War II Empire's Violent End is the first book to place the Dutch Indonesian case at the heart of a comparison with focused thematic analysis on a diverse range of topics to demonstrate that despite variation in scale combat intensity and international dynamics there were more similarities than differences in the ways colonial powers used extreme forms of violence By delving into the causes and nature of the abuse Brocades Zaalberg and Luttikhuis conclude that all cases involved some form of institutionalized impunity which enabled the type of situation in which the forces in the service of the colonial rulers were able to use extreme violence
