History Of Transylvania Vol :

The History of Transylvania ,2005 The History of Transylvania Ioan Aurel Pop,Mihai Bărbulescu,2005 Today Transylvania is part of both Romania and Europe but above all it is the welcoming home of all its inhabitants For the first time in history its inhabitants can truly feel equal and at home The country is no longer the Transylvania of yesteryear bit the traces of the past are present everywhere In the past suffering and happiness were experienced often at different times by Romanians Hungarians Germans Jews and ethnic groups alike Neither the suffering nor the joy must be forgotten The memories of the past are a priceless treasure and their preservation is the hallmark of a civilized nation The Transylvanian entity is a historical construct but at the same time today it accompanies us everywhere It is the only place in Europe where a Byzantine church stands beside a Romanesque basilica next to a Gothic church and not far from a Baroque one all located near a synagogue It is also the only place where an Orthodox place of worship lies a stone s throw from a Greek Catholic a Roman Catholic a Calvinist a Lutheran and a Unitarian one This is indicative of peaceful cohabitation rather than of conflicts and fully consonant with the very message of this book the past must be known not for spite and hatred but rather for friendship and understanding Conceptual History in the European Space Willibald Steinmetz,Michael Freeden,Javier Fernández-Sebastián,2017-06-01 The result of extensive collaboration among leading scholars from across Europe Conceptual History in the European Space represents a landmark intervention in the historiography of concepts It brings together ambitious thematic studies that combine the pioneering methods of historian Reinhart Koselleck with contemporary insights and debates each one illuminating a key feature of the European conceptual landscape With clarifying overviews of such contested theoretical terrain as translatability spatiality and center periphery dynamics it also provides indispensable contextualization for an era of widespread disenchantment with and misunderstanding of the European project A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol.XLIII \(Forty-Five Volumes\); Dictionary of Authors \(K-Z\) Charles Dudley Warner,2008-07-01 Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Volume 43 is Part Two of a dictionary of authors from Hans Vilhelm Kaalund to Ulrich Zwingli that serves as a handy condensed reference to the authors quoted in the first 40 volumes as well as a guide to thousands more authors whose works are notable but not featured in this set History of the Balkans: Volume 1 Barbara Jelavich,1983-07-29 Volume I discusses the history of the major Balkan nationalities It describes the differing conditions experienced under Ottoman and Habsburg rule but the main emphasis is on the national movements their successes and failures to 1900 and the place of events in the Balkans in the international relations of the day Heritage, Ideology, and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Matthew Rampley, 2012 Essays looking at heritage practices and the construction of the past along with how they can be used to build a national identity The preservation of architectural monuments has played a key role in the formation of national identities from the nineteenth century to the present The task of maintaining the collective memories and ideas of a shared heritage often focused on the historic built environment as the most visible sign of a link with the past The meaning of such monuments and sites has however often been the subject of keen dispute whose heritage is being commemorated by whom and for whom The answers to such questions are not always straightforward particularly in Central and Eastern Europe the recent history of which has been characterized by territorial disputes the large scale movement of peoples and cultural dispossession This volume considers the dilemmas presented by the recent and complex histories of European states such as Germany Greece Poland Hungary Romania and Bulgaria Examining the effect of the destruction of buildings by war the loss of territories or the unwanted built heritage of the Communist and Nazi regimes the contributors examine how architectural and urban sites have been created destroyed or transformed in the attempt to make visible a national heritage Matthew Rampley is Professor of History of Art at the University of Birmingham Contributors Matthew Rampley Juliet Kinchin Paul Stirton Susanne Jaeger Arnold Bartetzky Jacek Friedrich Tania Vladova George Karatzas Riitta Oittinen The Creation of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy Gábor Gyáni, 2021-09-30 Recent collection of essays discusses the historical event and the multifarious consequences of the 1867 Compromise Ausgleich Settlement conducted between the Habsburg monarch Francis Joseph and the Hungarian political ruling class The whole story has usually been narrated from a plainly Cisleithanian viewpoint The present volume the product of Hungarian historians gives an insight into both the domestic and the international historical discourses about the Dual Monarchy It also reveals the process of how the 1867 Compromise was conducted and touches upon several of the key issues brought about by establishing a constitutional dual state in place of the absolutist Habsburg Monarchy The emphasis is laid not on describing and explaining the path leading to the final and inevitable break up of the Dual Monarchy but on what actually held it together for half a century The local outcomes of self maintaining mechanisms were no less obvious in the Hungarian part of the Dual Monarchy despite the many manifestations of an overt adversity toward it The Creation of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy will appeal to historians dealing especially with 19th century European history and is also essential reading for university students The European Tributary States of the Ottoman Empire in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries Gábor Kármán, Lovro Kunčević, 2013-06-20 The European Tributary States of the Ottoman Empire is the first comprehensive overview of the empire's relationship to its various European tributaries Moldavia Wallachia Transylvania Ragusa the Crimean Khanate and the Cossack Hetmanate The volume focuses on three fundamental aspects of the empire's relationship with these polities the various legal frameworks which determined their positions within the imperial system the diplomatic contacts through which they sought to influence the imperial center and the military cooperation between them and the Porte Bringing together studies by eminent experts and presenting results of several less known historiographical traditions this volume contributes significantly to a deeper understanding of Ottoman power at the peripheries of the empire

A Seventeenth-Century Odyssey in East Central Europe Gábor Kármán, 2015-11-16 In A Seventeenth Century Odyssey Gábor Kármán reconstructs the life story of a lesser known Hungarian orientalist Jakab Harsányi Nagy The discussion of his activities as a school teacher in Transylvania as a diplomat and interpreter at the Sublime Porte as a secretary of a Moldavian voivode in exile as well as a court councillor of Friedrich Wilhelm the Great Elector of Brandenburg not only sheds light upon the extraordinarily versatile career of this individual but also on the variety of circles in which he lived Gábor Kármán also gives the first historical analysis of Harsányi's contribution to Turkish studies the Colloquia Familiaria Turcico latina 1672

The Political Economy of Extreme Poverty in Eastern Europe Enikő Vincze, Cornel Ban, Sorin Gog, Jon Horgen Friberg, 2024-12-03 This book examines the creation of extreme poverty in Eastern Europe focusing on Romanian Roma through a comparative historical perspective on its roots and the socio economic and political mechanisms that have shaped it in labor housing and migration This interdisciplinary book explores the reproduction of extreme poverty among the Roma across different political economy regimes Chapters engage in comparative historical analysis across several disciplines and integrate perspectives steeped at the national level of analysis with those dwelling intensively on a single context Focusing on the processes of manufacturing poverty among Roma in Romania the chapters cover empirical information about the historical transformations of the economic situation of the Roma in Romania from the 19th century to the present about global national and local processes of industrialization deindustrialization and reindustrialization impacting poverty among the Roma in the past seven decades and about Roma people's current labor positions housing conditions and migration practices in distinct geographies from Romania to Norway The book situates Roma poverty research in a Central and Eastern European context by highlighting its connections with analytical approaches to poverty and institutional policy visions about poverty eradication It will be of interest to researchers studying Central and Eastern Europe political economy of socialism political economy of capitalist transformations poverty studies welfare and housing regimes studies and labor and migration studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Empire and Military Revolution in Eastern Europe Brian Davies, 2011-06-16 In terms of resource mobilization and devastation the wars between Russia the Crimean Khanate and the Ottoman Empire were some of the largest of the 18th century and had enormous consequences for the balance of power in Eastern Europe Brian Davies examines how these conflicts characterized the course of Russian military development in response to Ottoman and Crimean Tatar threats and to determine under what circumstances and in what ways Russian military power experienced a revolution awarding it clear preponderance over the Ottoman Crimean system A central part of Davies argument is that identifying and explaining a Military Revolution must involve examining the role of factors not purely military One must look not only at new military technology new force and command structure new tactical thinking and new recruitment and military finance practices but also consider the impact of larger demographic economic and sociopolitical changes Elgar Encyclopedia of Political Anthropology Arpad Szakolczai,Paul

O'Connor,2025-09-10 This Encyclopedia explores the anthropological underpinnings of politics Featuring biographical entries that reconstruct the life works of key theorists from across the globe alongside topical entries on a range of issues in political anthropology it poses the question what does it mean to be human in contemporary times Dracula Matei

Cazacu,2017-07-10 Originally published in French in 2004 Matei Cazacu s Dracula remains the most authoritative scholarly biography of the Wallachian prince Vlad III the Impaler 1448 1456 1462 1476 Its core is an exhaustively researched reconstruction of Dracula s life and political career using original sources in more than nine languages In addition Cazacu traces Dracula s metamorphosis at the hands of contemporary propagandists into variously a bloodthirsty tyrant and an early modern great sovereign Beyond this Cazacu explores Dracula s transformation into the vampire prince in literature film and folklore with surprising new discoveries on Bram Stoker s sources for his novel In this first English translation the text and bibliography are updated and readers are provided with an appendix of the key sources for Dracula s life in fresh and accurate English translations The Holy Crown and the Hungarian Estates Kees Teszelszky,2023-04-17 This book is about one of the most important elements of the political narratives in the history of Hungary in past and present the Holy Crown of Hungary This object is one of the most widely used symbols of modern Hungarian nationalism in our times and has been in use for ages in political culture Surprisingly less is known how the meaning of the crown has changed over the centuries and how this influenced the development of national identity in the early modern period Starting point is that the medieval doctrine of the holy crown is a modern invention Teszelszky s research concentrates on the relation between the change in the meaning of this crown and the construction of an early modern national identity between 1572 and 1665 Using a constructivist method of research the author shows how the Habsburg ruler and the Hungarian estates legitimised their political program through an image of the crown and the Hungarian political community In a short period between the end of 1604 and 1613 during a rebellion in Hungary a war with the Ottomans and a strive between Emperor Rudolf II and his brother Archduke Matthias the medieval tradition of the holy crown was revived and redeveloped by Hungarian and foreign historiographers into an ideology which is still present today Jewish Hungarian Orthodoxy Menachem

Keren-Kratz,2023-11-30 Beginning with the informal establishment of Jewish Orthodoxy by a Hungarian rabbi in the early nineteenth century this book traces the history and legacy of Jewish Hungarian Orthodoxy over the course of the last 200 years To date no single book has provided a comprehensive overview of the history of Hungarian Orthodoxy a singularly zealous fundamental and separatist faction within Jewish circles This book describes and explains the impact of this strand of Jewish Orthodoxy developed in Hungary in the second half of the nineteenth century across the Jewish world The author traces the development of Hungarian Orthodoxy in the new Jewish territories created in the wake of Hungary's dismantlement following its defeat in World War I The book also focuses on Hungarian Orthodoxy in the two spheres where it continued to develop after the Holocaust namely Israel and the United States The book concludes with a review of Hungarian Orthodoxy's legacy in contemporary communities worldwide most of which are known for their radical anti Zionist and anti modernistic strands The book will prove vital reading for students and academics interested in religious fundamentalism Hungarian history and Jewish studies generally

Parish Churches in the Early Modern World Andrew Spicer, 2016-12-05 Across Europe the parish church has stood for centuries at the centre of local communities it was the focal point of its religious life the rituals performed there marked the stages of life from the cradle to the grave Nonetheless the church itself artistically and architecturally stood apart from the parish community It was often the largest and only stone built building in a village it was legally distinct being subject to canon law as well as consecrated for the celebration of religious rites The buildings associated with the cure of souls were sacred sites or holy places where humanity interacted with the divine In spite of the importance of the parish church these buildings have generally not received the same attention from historians as non parochial places of worship This collection of essays redresses this balance and reflects on the parish church across a number of confessions Catholic Lutheran Reformed and Anti Trinitarian during the early modern period Rather than providing a series of case studies of individual buildings each essay looks at the evolution of parish churches in response to religious reform as well as confessional change and upheaval They examine aspects of their design and construction furnishings and material culture liturgy and the use of the parish church While these essays range widely across Europe the volume also considers how religious provision and the parish church were translated into a global context with colonial and commercial expansion in the Americas and Asia This interdisciplinary volume seeks to identify what was distinctive about the parish church for the congregations that gathered in them for worship and for communities across the early modern world

Slavic Gods and Heroes Judith Kalik, Alexander Uchitel, 2018-07-11 This book offers a radical reinterpretation of the Slavic pagan religion made on the basis of a thorough re examination of all reliable sources What did Slavic pagan religion have in common with the Afro American cult of voodoo Why were no Slavic gods mentioned before the mid tenth century and why were there no Slavic gods at all between the Dnieper and the Oder Why were Slavic foundation legends similar to the totemic myths of the nomadic peoples of the Eurasian Steppe and who were Slavic Remus and Romulus What were the Indo European roots of Slavic hippomantic rituals and where was the Eastern Slavic dragon Zmey Gorynych born Answers to these and many other provocative questions can be found in this book

At Europe's Borders: Medieval Towns in the Romanian Principalities Laurentiu Radvan, 2010-01-28 This ambitious work focuses on the emergence and the development of medieval towns in the two Romanian principalities of South Eastern Europe Wallachia and Moldavia from their earliest days in the 13th century up to the 16th It is the only work of its kind in English but at the same time the first in the field seeking to identify and substantiate common elements between towns in this area of Europe It also covers Poland Hungary and the lands south of the Danube By relying both on various written sources and on archeological finds the author addresses several controversial issues starting from the particulars of urbanization through an analysis of local institutions of urban society and economy and concluding with thorough case studies The result is a book which shows that medieval towns in the Romanian Principalities despite being on the outskirts of Europe were nevertheless part of it

The Rise of the Military Entrepreneur Suzanne Sutherland, 2022-09-15 The Rise of the Military Entrepreneur explores how a new kind of international military figure emerged from and exploited the seventeenth century s momentous political military commercial and scientific changes In the era of the Thirty Years War these figures traveled rapidly and frequently across Europe using private wealth credit and connections to raise and command the armies that rulers desperately needed Their careers reveal the roles international networks private resources and expertise played in building and at times undermining the state Suzanne Sutherland uncovers the influence of military entrepreneurs by examining their activities as not only commanders but also diplomats natural philosophers information brokers clients and subjects on the battlefield as well as through strategic marital and family allegiances Sutherland focuses on Raimondo Montecuccoli 1609 80 a middling nobleman from the Duchy of Modena who became one of the most powerful men in the Austrian Habsburg monarchy and helped found a new discipline military science The Rise of the Military Entrepreneur explains how Montecuccoli successfully met battlefield court and family responsibilities while contributing to the world of scholarship on an often violent fragmented political military landscape As a result Sutherland shifts the perspective on war away from the ruler and his court to instead examine the figures supplying force along with their methods networks and reflections on those experiences
